Choral Club News

The Dillard Choral Club is rounding out a busy season as preparations are being made for the Spring Concert to be given May 5. The 140 voice group has sung for assembly and special programs sponsored by the school and community organizations. The Spring Concert will include classical, sacred, modern, spiritual, popular and novelty numbers. The program will feature the Mixed Chorus, Girls Choir, Senior soprano Sandra Durante, and the Male Ensemble.

Seventy-five choral members participated in the District Music Festival held at Speight High School in Wilson County, April 7th. The group received a rating of "1" for three entries which were: "Create in Me a Clean Heart, O God."—Mueller (Mixed Chorus), "How Lovely is Thy Dwelling Place"—Brahms (Girls Choir), and "Let Us Break Bread Together" — arr. Ryder (Male Ensemble). The Mixed Chorus also received a "2" for "Zum Schluss" ("To Close") by Brahms. These excellent ratings made the group eligible to attend the State Music Festival at North Carolina College in Durham, April 30th.

On May 12, a Senior Vocal Recital will be presented by Sandra Durante, Elizabeth Martin, Daniel Clark and Herbert Braswell. These Vocalists have been outstanding for their work throughout the year on programs including the Omega Talent Hunt and the Music Festival. Sandra and Daniel will perform at the State Music Festival.

The choral director, Mrs. E. L. Harris, is very anxious for students interested in music to start planning to join the or-

Think About Student Elections

The week of May 3-7 is election week at Dillard High School. Students will elect Student Council officers to serve for the 1965-66 school term.

Students are urged to vote for a candidate, not because he is a very dear friend, but because you are convinced that he meets the requirements for that particular office.

Particular organization next year. Particularly is she interested in boys for the tenor and bass sections.

SENIOR CLASS GIFTS

One of the projects of a senior class at Dillard each year is to make plans and present the school so soon to be their Alma Mater, a gift.

The gift of the present senior class is a blue and gold electric bulletin board which will be erected by members of the class on the northside of the campus. This announcement was made earlier in the year.

The class gift for 1964 was gold concert curtains which were installed at a cost of $231.25 in time for commencement activities last June.

Juniors Take Tops In "Down Town" Performance

On the morning of March 27, the juniors were very happy, about the outcome of their annual production, "Down Town" presented at Dillard March 26.

As a form of entertainment and as a class project to replenish the class treasury, the performance was outstanding.

The spectacular musical cast's selections included numbers from the band, vocal selections, and popular dances with an added attraction, "Two Mystery Notes" by Mrs. M. F. Wright.
