

C. A. Carter Gives Favorite Recipe For A Warm Day

Carolyn Carter, a D. H. senior wants others to try a recipe that she "adores" for cooling on a warm summer day:

Fill a chilled enamel, pottery or china pot a'creme or demitasse cup with your favorite ice cream or sherbert, with edge of spatula level off top. Then place in freezer for 30 minutes.

With a number 20 ice-cream scoop, scoop up a ball of the same ice-cream or sherbert lay it firmly on top of filled cup from freezer; smooth any drips of soft ice-cream around cup rim.

With tip of teaspoon, make a row of petal-like indentation, about 1/8 inch apart, all around base of ice-cream ball at cup rim. Then make a second row of indentions just above the first, alternating these petals.

Repeat steps 1, 2, and 3 for as many Poises desired using all the same or several ice-cream or sherbert flavors.

THOSE WHO ARE ABOUT TO DEPART

The 217 seniors who are about to "depart" do so with mixed emotions—some filled with fear, some with tears, some with joy, while others are experiencing all in one big throbbing lump. Favorite spots will miss the chatter of Doris Bowden and Charles Gunter; Helen Lewis and Donnell Wilson; Annette Dawson and Larry Williams; Ernestine Burden and Donnie Henderson; Nellie Lane and Freddie Dawson — and so will the birds.

Curtis Philips, Douglas Lawson, and Elizabeth Martin give up their rendezvous very reluctantly, leaving their pals to the loneliness of another year.
