Outstanding members of the Senior Class will participate in a panel discussion led by George McKinney. This discussion will center around the preservation of our democratic ideals. As a climax to the evening's exercises, Mr. Clodfelter will speak on "Our Call to Duty".

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The annual senior class day exercise entitled, "Soothsayer", was given Friday morning, May 2, at 9 o'clock. George McKinney was chairman of the program committee, capably assisted by Arlene Shackelford and Hilda Nall.

The audience received programs upon entering the auditorium. Two seniors, representing newspaper reporters, visited the tent of Madam La Zolar to learn the future of the Senior Class of 1941 for the "Jamestown Hi-Lights". The madam forecasted the fates by gazing into the crystal ball. Senior "wills" were also read during the ceremony. When asked for the class superlatives, the madam conjured the image of the slave in her magic mirror who imparted the desired information.

Very effective costumes and scenery together with the unusual lighting effects added to the presentation.

The Senior recital will be presented tonight, May 2. All lovers of music and interested parents and friends are invited to attend.

SENIOR GIFT

When passing by Jamestown High School, be sure to stop and look at the new flag-pole with "Old Glory" waving gallantly from the top of it. You had better make some nice remark about it, because we're mighty proud of our gift.

The pole was a gift of the 1941 graduating class, and the flag was given by the 1940 class.

Every time you pass the flag remember Frances Scott Key's words, and in your heart say a prayer that "long may it wave, o'er the land of the free and the home of the brave."

BOB CLODFELTER WINS HIGH HONOR

Friday, April 18, the high school met to elect the best citizen of Jamestown High School. After a close race between Arlene Shackelford, Bob Clodfelter was elected. This honor is based on the qualities of character, scholarship, service, leadership, loyalty and sincerity. The Civitan award will be presented to Mr. Clodfelter during the graduation exercises, Monday night, May 5.

HERE COMES PATRICIA

The dramatic club selected for the commencement play "Here Comes Patricia", a farce comedy, by Eugene O. Neff. The following capable cast carried off the honors for the club: Norma Willard—Mrs. Carrol, Frances Foster—Elsie Crowder, Nancy Willard—Mrs. Smith Porter, Wanda Smith—Angelina Knoop, Ruby Briggs—Minnie Knoop, Betty Lynn Willard—Patricia Grayson, Robert Clodfelter—Jimmy Clark, George McKinney—Elbert Hastings, Charles Jarrell—Adam Wade, Norris Frazier—Tim Hopper, and Julian McGhee—Bud Flannigan.
