LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF CLASS OF '41

The last Will and Testament of the Senior Class of Jamestown High School, in the 1941, the month of May, the County of Guilford, and the State of North Carolina.

The entire Senior Class being in a sound state of mind do give and bequeath after the payment of all their just debts and funeral expenses the following:

Item I: To the members of the faculty: We do bequeath without any limitations, all the learning which has been acquired by them during the four years they have had to preside over our classrooms.

Item II: To the entire Student Body: Our never-ending and stupendous mental capacities for the assimilating of knowledge and information, and our unending devotion to study periods.

Item: To Ann Abernathy, George McKinney leaves his artistic ability. Ann, this is for the sole purpose of using it on the newspaper and not on your face.

Item: J. W. Warren, Doris Marie Vestal leaves you a book of stamps to mail her letters with. Be sure they're sealed, J. W.

Item: Bob Clodfelter, leaves his ability as a debater to Buddy Queen. Better luck than he had, Buddy.

Item: To the future seniors, Guy Osborne leaves his talent of getting his French "all wrong". Try and do better, "seniors."

Item: Evelyn McKinney's sunny disposition goes to Mary Edith Procter and her typewriter to Miss Hanner.

Item: Carl Cox leaves his "slenderizing tonic" to Charles Ball. Charlie watch your "school girl" figure.

Item: Mary Weatherly Tilden leaves her red high top socks to Carol Raper. Carol they have that "slenderizing appearance."

Item: George Ballinger leaves his worst habit—flirting—to Lunsford Hunter. Best of luck, Lunsford.

Item: To Norman Osborne, Norma Lee Simmons leaves her desire to join the Air Corps. Remember us to the stars, Norman.

Item: Hebron Coble leaves his remarkable pronunciation of words (?) to James Pardue. Try and improve it, James.

Item: Joyce Winslow leaves her compact and comb to the girls of the Junior Class. Take care of them, girls.

Item: Attention, boys! Joe Morton leaves his bus to anyone who can manage it.

Item: Louise Lance leaves her "Southern Accent" to Edward Wilson. "Come up and see us sometime, Edward."

Item: Basil Meredith leaves his bell ringing "position" to whoever Mr. White sees fit to have it.

Item: Lucille Lanier wills her unfathomable love for chewing gum to Mary Edith Procter.

Item: Lewis Waynick leaves his ability to "blush" to Norris Frazier. Hats off to anybody who is able to blush in 1941.

Item: Wanda Hiatt Brackett wills her (?) ability to remain quiet and listen inattentively (?) on class to Alice Scott. Alice we hope you'll live up to this more than Wanda did.

Item: Maurice Cruthis leaves his seat in Physics to Lessie Loftin.

Item: Norma Willard leaves her ability to fall down steps to Doris Marie Wilson. We hope you make "less" use of it than Norma did, Doris.

Item: Calvin Cashatt wills his "worn out brain" to Jeddy Smith.

Item: Lessie Price leaves all of her English knowledge to Buck Guyer.

Item: Ray Ward leaves his baseball suit to "Chigger" Wilson. Hope it fits, "Chigger."

Item: Wanda Smith wills her big brown eyes to Tonsay Delk. Don't roll them at the boys.

Item: Chubby Jarrell, alias Adam Lazonga, wills his ability to make love to Misses Hanner and Sublette with hopes they'll soon become "Mesdames."

Item: Dot Howell leaves her love for eating and skating to Gene Thomas. Don't get too plump Gene.

Item: To Gene Kester, Bobby Floyd leaves his title as Biggest Flirt. We advise you NOT to live up to it, Gene.

Item: Ruby Briggs wills her natural curly hair to Edith Metters.

Item: Arlene Shackelford leaves her hair curlers and dimples to Diana Doggett. Please don't wear them out, Diana.

Item: Bill Holton leaves his red, I'm sorry, auburn hair to Hadley Yow.

Item: Hope Parrish wills her ability to sing to Jack Haley. We hope you can make some improvements, Jack.

Item: Gilbert Clark leaves to Miss Hanner the nearest thing to his heart—his glzzard.

Item: Aetna Davis wills her "luck" to get a boy friend (and keep him) to Nancy Willard.

Item: Raymond Vuncannon wills his pretty black hair to Branson Russell. Don't have it cut so short though, Branson.

Item: Hilda Hethcox and Wilma Cashatt leave their French knowledge to Doris Osborne and Beatrice Davis. Hope you two make better use of it than they did.

Item: Charles Gardner leaves his position as "wallflower" to Edward Wilson. Hope it won't happen to you, Edward.

Item: Danna Morgan leaves her school girl figure to Carol Raper. Hope it becomes you Carol.

Item: Ernest Ingold leaves his basketball ability to Tom Johnson. Use it to win the championship next year, Tom.

Item: To Terrence Thornton, Elaine Phillips wills her ability to play the violin.

Item: Robert Winslow leaves his "radio" (the one he made?) to Mr. Morgan. We hope it plays.

Item: Naomi Smith wills her worn-out heel taps to Lucille Morris. Don't make much noise in the halls, Lucille.

Item: Ernest Wolfe, Jr., wishes to will his ability to make all his noise at home and to keep quiet in school to Doyle Hobbs Lowe. We hope he'll make use of it.

Item: Elizabeth Cashatt leaves her basketball ability to Margaret D. Ballinger.

Item: Norman Ingold leaves his absences to Tom Johnston. Don't break his record, Tom.

Item: Annilea Osborne leaves her basketball suit to Carol Raper. We hope it fits Carol.

Item: Newman Lemonds leaves his nickname "Automotive" to Pork Morris.

Item: Mildred Falls leaves her front seat in French to Louise Crowell.

Item: Charles Wyrick leaves his smoking permit to Darrell Key. This'll save you a lot of running Darrell.

Item: Alma Midkiff leaves her General Business Workbook to the General Business students. Please don't use it when Miss Speer is looking.

Item: James Russell leaves his permission to take Miss Hanner to next years Junior-Senior to Thad McInnis.

Item: Kathleen Davis leaves her bow ribbons to Ann Abernathy.

Item: Romulus Modlin wills his ability to get to school on time (if at all) to Thad McInnis.

Item: Mary Frances Webster wills her popularity to Betty Lynn Willard and her old themes and notebooks to Jeddy Smith.

Item: Elizabeth Burleson wills her red hair and freckles to Julian McGhee.

Item: O. D. Leach wills to Bill Burney a '38 Chevrolet for transporting human being to and from Jamestown only.

Item: Joy Smith Stroud leaves her marriage certificate to Mr. Wyatt with hopes he'll soon have one of his own.

Item: Frances Foster leaves her favorite expression, "Oh, but definitely!" to Nancy Willard.

Item: Margaret Burney leaves her red fingernail polish to Ann Thompson.

Item: Wray Hutchins leaves his place on the newspaper staff to David Journey.

Item: Carrie Dell Hennis wills her Beta Club membership to Belva Lee Harrison. Hope it comes in handy.

Item: Mary Alice Johnson leaves her seat behind Joe Morton to Goldie Kulp.

Item: Phyllis McGhee leaves her homeroom seat to James Johnston (if he ever gets to the Senior Class).

Item: Since Thomas Johnston studies so hard, Georgia Kersey leaves him her French book. Take good care of it, Tom.

Item: Evelyn Caudle leaves her ability to memorize poems in French to Beatrice Davis.

Item: Mary Frances Crowell wills her quietness in fifth period study hall to Norma Cox. Please take heed, Norma.

Item: Martha Raye Spencer wills her diary to Betty Lynn Willard. (you lucky thing. We'd like to see it, too.)

Item: Jean Donaghy wills her long fingernails to Elizabeth Brown. Don't scratch anyone, Elizabeth.

Item: Rosella Modlin leaves her sweet personality to Nancy Gibson.

Item: Ruth Thornton leaves her job as librarian to Ruth Halbrook. Be as good as Ruth was, Ruth.

Item: Eloral Hennis leaves his quietness to Steven Thornton. (He needs it!)

Item: Louise Landreth leaves her "Middle Age Spread" to Elizabeth Brown. Don't increase it, Elizabeth.

Item: Junnie Hester wills his worn out milk pail to James Johnston.

Item: Fleta Mae Richardson leaves her seat in fifth period study hall to Doris Hennis.

Item: Louise La Prade wills her French name to Lucille Lasley.

Item: Harriet Murray leaves her ability to dodge work and escape classes to Steven Thornton and Norris Frazier. Her position on the newspaper to Miss-Marlett.

Item: W. C. Mangum (alias Monkey Mangum) wills all his cigars to Jack Haley. We hope they won't make you sick, Jack.

Item: Frances Turner wills her beautiful curly hair to Dallas Pendry.

GAB ABOUT JAMESTOWN

Ruth Thornton took Pluto to a Sunday school picnic a couple of weeks ago and had to share him with another girl. Come on now Kathleen, you know three's a crowd. You too, Violet?

To whom did Mr. White's announcement, on joy-riding, refer? "Give me a date in a Ford V-8."

When the newspaper staff tried to trade its worn-out, broken down typewriter in on Mr. White's good one, without his permission, Mr. White returned said keyboard with the remark, "I'm not as dumb as you think I am."

Let's hope that the Misses Hanner and Marlette don't desert us for a couple of men during the summer months. Huh?

Billy surely did "slay" the girls with his Dog-Patch wooling in the operetta.

Mary Alice, buttercups are to look at and not eat in chemistry class.
