

The Annuals are finished, just hot from the press, and they are the best Annuals that ever were. You'll think so, too, when you see one and then you'll want one, and it will be too late. Buy one now while it is yet time. If you have ordered one get another for your sweetheart, your girl friend, your brother, etc. Show that you are proud of your college; support her publications, and especially buy an Annual now. Apply to Annie Hall Baity, business manager.

DR. HILL LECTURES

Friday evening at 6:45, in the chapel auditorium, Dr. Hill, famous foot specialist, who rendered valuable service in his line of work during the war, gave a very interesting and informational talk. His lecture was illustrated by slides which portrayed graphically the follies and horrible results of improper footwear. It is hoped that the facts presented will make a lasting impression and that Meredith College students will hereafter wear proper shoes.

POPS AND CRACKLES

Stupid: "That girl over there always looks so nice."

Wise: "Yes, she has good borrowing taste."
 —M. B. B., '21 N. C.

"Where are you going my pretty maid?"

"I am going to sneeze, sir," she said.

"Whom are you sneezing at my pretty maid?"

"I'm going to sneeze—a-chew," she said.

"Which tooth do you want me to pull, Sam?" asked the dentist.

"Upper six, sir," replied the Pullman porter.

Sadie critically viewed the eggs she was sent to purchase.

"These are not fresh," she told the grocer.

"Strictly fresh, little girl," he assured her.

"No," she persisted; "my papa told me there's a corner on fresh eggs; these are all smooth."—The Epworth Herald.

A HOLD UP!

He: "Well, I guess I'll kiss you goodbye until tomorrow."

She: "No, George, I couldn't hold my breath that long and besides I must go inside in ten minutes."—Colgate Banter.

Disgusted Professor—What did you come to college for, anyway? You are not studying.

Bobby Rahrah: "Well, mother says it's to fit me for the presidency; Uncle Jim, to sow my wild oats; sister Helen, to get a chum for her to marry; and dad, to bankrupt the family."—Boston Transcript.

L. Kelly: "My ancestors came over in the Mayflower."

J. Mauney: "It's lucky they did, the immigration laws are stricter now."

A. W. Lawrence: "But Mary, how could you see to kiss him in the dark?"

Mary Bennett: "Um! Don't you think that I hadn't found the way to his lips before then."

PHOTO GRAFT

Percy: "I asked her if I might see her home."

Valle: "And what did she say?"

Percy: "She said 'sure'—that she would send me a photo of it."
