

COLLEGE NEWS

Mary Farrar visited the college one day last week.

Gertude Smitherman, '21, is teaching in Stoneville.

Hattie Sawyer is visiting friends at the college this week.

Magdeline Fulch has returned to her home in Pilot Mountain.

Beatrice Martin spent the week end at her home in Fuquay Springs.

Swanana and Gladys Broughton, Lena and Mary Bunn spent the week in Zebulon.

Delila Deaton, a former student here is teaching in Rocky Mount this season.

Margaret Riddick, a former Meredith girl, is teaching in Reynoldson High School.

We are glad to welcome Edith Maynard back to school after a serious operation.

Mrs. N. T. Paterson visited her daughter Velma, a student here, Monday afternoon.

Mozelle Lassiter spent the week end with Lillie and Clara Eason at their home in Selma.

Naomie Wilson and Myrtle Segraves spent the week end in Holly Springs, as the guest of parents.

We are sorry to report that Sue Ellis and Mary Watts, on the account of ill health, had to leave school.

We are glad to have Mrs. Simms, a former Meredith student, to conduct our devotional exercises of the Y. W. C. A., Sunday evening.

Miss Ellen Brewer, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Brewer, left September 21 for Columbia University in New York, where she will study this year for her M. A. degree in Home Economics. Miss Brewer is an A. B. of Meredith, being a member of the class of '18 and last year she received her B. S. in Home Economics from Columbia University.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

This week brings the beginning of our Y. W. C. A. membership campaign. We feel sure that every girl who knows anything about the Y. W. C. A. and what it means to the college girl will not hesitate in joining the Y. W. C. A. But it is quite probable that some girls do not know these things. Therefore, here are four reasons for your joining the Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. represents that part of our three-fold development known as the spiritual, without which we cannot become well-balanced women.

2. Without belonging to the Y. W. C. A. we miss a great part of the social college life.

3. The Y. W. C. A. offers opportunity for training in leadership, valuable to us during college and in after life.

4. If not for individual reasons, we should join the Y. W. C. A. to show our college spirit. We want Meredith to have 100 per cent. efficient membership. Other colleges do, and we cannot afford to let them get ahead of us.

INTERESTING PAGEANT PRESENT- ED BY THE Y. W. C. A. MEMBERS

these came the spirits of Recreation and Co-operation with their respective dancers. After they have taken their former places on the stage the Chalice-bearer knelt in the center of the stage and the four spirits passed in front of her dropping their gifts into the Chalice. The Triangle Girls then formed a triangle around the Spirit of the Association, the Spirit of the Community and the Chalice-bearer, and the Association Spirit took from the Chalice gold stars and characters then marched out singing "Lead On, Oh King Eternal."

CELIA HERRING B. Y. P. U.

Wide-Awake, Ever-Ready, On-The-Job, and Over-The-Top, the names of the four groups, are indeed characteristic of the Celia Herring B. Y. P. U. Although our enrollment is not sufficient to divide and create a new Union, we have fifty energetic, hustling members. We are indeed fortunate in having secured Miss Welch for our advisor. Do you hear us singing from the heights of Faireloth? Come and join us, for we have new song books, and we gladly pass them out to new members and visitors.

COLLEGIATE PRESS

COLLEGIATE PRESS ASSOCIATION

Elon College, N. C.—Oct. 3—At a meeting of the Students of Elon College last Friday evening a song, the words of which were written by Mr. S. M. Lyman, a member of the sophomore class, was presented to the students, and unanimously adopted by them as the official college song. The words express in beautiful terms the Elon spirit, athletic, co-educational, and otherwise, and is suitable to be sung, not only at athletic games but on more solemn occasions. The song will be set to music and published in sheet form in the near future. The words are as follows:

UNDER 'NEATH MAROON AND GOLD

*Never college gave to mankind
Fairer women, braver men;
Never did their hearts beat truer
Than did hearts of Elon, when
On the field for college glory
Fellows that are clean and bold
Give their best and fight their hardest
Underneath Maroon and Gold,
Through the four long years of college,
Through the brighter, darker days,
Men and women work together
Learning each some gentler ways—
Learning too, of love's best meaning,
As the years of life unfold,
Till, perchance, two lives be blended
Underneath Maroon and Gold.
When the snows of many winters,
Leave their whiteness in our hair,
We will sit and talk together—
And she'll be so young and fair
To the eyes that learned to love her
In the days then growing old,
That we'll whisper, "Lo! I found you
Underneath Maroon and Gold."
—Sion M. Lyman*

Elon College, N. C.—Oct. 1.—Elon's football season opened here today in a slow game with Lenoir College. The Maroon and Gold squad gave the visitors a good trouncing by piling up a score of 39 to 0. At no time was Elon's goal threatened in spite of the fact that second and third string men were freely run in before the game was finished.

FASHION SHOW

On Friday evening, October 14, a Fashion Show will be given at Meredith by the members of the senior class. All the leading styles of the Raleigh shops will be presented. This will be probably one of the most unique entertainments ever given at Meredith. Admission: 50 cents. Come everybody. It will be well worth your time and money.
