

POPS AND CRACKLES

Lessie Harner: (walking up the street and seeing the Capitol Square) "Oh! What's that place? (Pausing a moment) I know it's St. Marys'."

Soph. Mac Lean (Taking two freshmen to walk) "Girls, let's walk fast and hold our shoulders up too."

M. L. Little said "I hope gym will make me do that this year."

Jenna Weston—"Do you have to be elected to go to the infirmary?"

Virginia Barrier—"Is Miss Rogers in our B. Y. P. U.?"

Soph—"Yes."

V. B.—"Well, listen, when you go by there tell her to be sure to go tonight. I want to see her about some English."

Margaret Overturn (excitedly running to one of the negro waiter's back of the practice hall), "Say, I couldn't help being absent from practice last period. Did you mark me absent?"

Helen Weaver talking to Joe Cox:

"Did you give a piano recital last year?"

Joe—"Not exactly."

H. W.—"Well, my teacher wants me to give one but I don't know whether I'll have time or not."

Mary Ethel Lewis, talking to Lelia McClellan—"You know, I believe I'll change my course to Public School Music."

Leila Me.—"Why, what do you mean?"

Mary E.—"Take a few subjects up here, and go to the city schools for piano lessons."

Soph.—"Are you going to the Academy of Music this evening?"

Francis Smith—"Well, I don't care anything about hearing Miss Lula Betts sing, so I don't believe I'll go."

Dorothy Miller, getting a whiff of H<sub>2</sub>S from Chemistry Lab—"Ugh! I know what we are going to have for lunch — eggs."

Ruby Barker wants to know if the Sophs will announce their "night off" the day before.

A beginner is getting a start and a start is a necessary part in the race for the brilliant upstart—

A Freshman who thinks he's smart.

—"Orange and Blue."

Miss Winston—How many girls are going to Chapel Hill Society Day this year?

Bertha M.—You ought to see the way I used to behave when I was little and went into tangents.

Dick F.—Oh, say, you mean when you went into a transom.

Hand this to Mr. Highsmith some time when he tells you, on test, to make out a list of questions.

1. How long is a short circuit?
2. Name an undiscovered island in the Pacific.
3. What is strategy? Would it be strategy to continue firing after your ammunition has been exhausted?
4. How many footsteps in your yard?
5. How light is loose? How long does it take?
6. Where does the light go when it goes out?
7. Y is W?
8. What happens to the piece when day breaks?
9. Which way does the worm turn?
10. What color are gold fish and why?

TEACHING PROFESSION CALLS MANY GIRLS FROM MEREDITH

partment of Boiling Springs High School. Lucile Kelley is teaching piano at her home in Clinton. Nellie Olive is also teaching piano at her home near Apex. Margaret Pope is teaching violin at home in Lumberton.

The class of '22 lost six of its members this year. Mary Bennett is teaching at Woodland. Alma Clay is teaching at Castalia. Katherine Gibbs is teaching violin and French in Mars Hill College. Carrie Pierce is at her home in Ahsokie. Lucile Holmes comes back to Meredith to take Art. Myrtle Parrish has become Mrs. Clifford Dean of Louisburg.

Eula Adams, Delila Deaton and Goldie Kale are also teaching. Eula is teaching near Hamlet, Delila is high school assistant in Bunn High School at Rocky Mount, and Goldie is teaching at her home in Mount Holly.

We miss these girls, and can not help but wish that they were back with us. We wish them the best of luck wherever they may be.

SPECIAL TREATS

This year it is the aim of the music faculty to give some real treats in special music to the other faculty and students, at least one morning a week at the time of our morning chapel exercises. So far we have been favored with beautiful vocal selections by Misses Snider and Stitzel, a charming piano solo by Miss Eiberg, and a peculiarly lovely organ solo by Dr. Brown. We have enjoyed these to the fullest extent, and eagerly look forward to Tuesday morning, at which times these enjoyable exercises occur.
