INSPECTOR VISITS R. O. T. C. UNIT

Major Ardrey from headquarters of the 4th Corps Area at Fort McPherson, Ga., will visit the Davidson Senior Infantry R. O. T. C. unit for three days, arriving on February 4th. Major Ardrey is on a tour of inspection of the different units of the 4th Corps Area.

DR. MARTIN CONFINED TO BED

Davidson, Feb. 4th—While taking his morning exercise one day in the past week Dr. W. J. Martin, president of Davidson College, suffered a very painful but not serious injury, tearing loose a ligament in his back. Since that time he has been confined to his bed where his physicians say he must remain for six weeks. However, this has not prevented him from attending to his duties, for he is keeping in close touch with college affairs thru his secretary.

STATE BASKETBALL TRIP TO START FEB. 6TH

Davidson, Feb. 4th—The Davidson basketball squad starts on its trip through the 'Old North State' on February 4th. After success in the two opening games of the season the men feel confident of a successful trip. They are in excellent shape and 'dope' agrees with them on the outcome of their journey. The following games will be played:

- Feb. 7th Trinity at Durham
- Feb. 8th N. C. State at Raleigh
- Feb. 9th Wake Forest at Wake Forest
- Feb. 10th Elon at Elon

The Y. W. C. A. presented a musical program on last Sunday evening, which, we are sure, was enjoyed by all who were present.

The program was as follows:

- Organ Prelude—Joseclyn Cox
- Hymn of Praise No. 5
- Scripture Reading—Psalm 147
- Prayer
- Response
- "At Even"—Choir
