SUPPOSE

Gladys Patterson did not get a letter every day.

Elizabeth Wheelless should stop flirting.

Thelma Hales didn't love Clifton Moss.

Blannie Betts should decide to become dignified.

C. M. Epley—Where's a screw driver? I want to open this bottle.

Sadie R.—For the love of Mike—

C. M.—Oh! I mean a cork screw.

Mildren Allen—"What cute little caps those State Freshman wear. But how do they keep them on?"

Mary Rodwell Hunter—"Vacuum pressure, my dear."

Miss Carroll (In English)—"I have went. That's wrong isn't it?"

P. Yarborough—"Yes."

Miss C.—"Why is it wrong."

J. Yarborough—"Because you ain't went yet."

Sarash Oliver—"What is the difference between a hill and a pill?"

Mary Willis—"One is hard to get up and the other is hard to get down."

A TECHNICAL TERM

You do not speak to him?

"No," replied the scholarly girl

"When I passed him I gave him the Geological survey."

"The Geological survey?"

"Yes. What is commonly known as the stony stare."—Washington Star.

Mildred Poole—"Raymond really has a soft spot in his heart for me."

Clara B.—"How do you know?"

M. P.—"He says he is always thinking of me."

C. B.—"Why, a man doesn't think with his heart. The soft spot must be in his head."

Edith M.—Isn't it wonderful to be in love?"

Mary T.—I have never been in, I'm afraid it's like swimming. I might get ducked.

considered among our students. Jesus our Saviour needed prayer, so how much more do we who are so finite!

From the word prayer we can build a ladder of six rungs. Begin at the bottom and go up until we have reached the top and see what we have.

1. Relation—Our Father. The relation we feel with Him—the blessed assurance that he is indeed ours!

2. Expectation—Thy Kingdom come. Are we willing that His Kingdom come?

3. Yielded will—Thy will be done. Our lives are in His hands, that He may shape and mould us after His will.

4. Acquisition—Give us, lead us, forgive us. Our father will lead us thru all trials.

5. Redemption—Deliver us. Christ has delivered us by His death on the cross.

6. Possession—Thy Kingdom Come. All is Christ's. All is with Him when we reach the top of the ladder.

Jesus is always willing and ready to help us thru all our trials and temptations.

We as students can think on these words, make them not mere words to ourselves, but convert them into a real, earnest every day life and Christ will soon be Campus Commander at Meredith.

ALUMNAE NEWS

name of Meredith could never be dissociated from these noble souls who have labored long and untiringly in their efforts to make the dear old college what she is.

The members of Class of '03 have drifted far and wide. In Japan the fancy of our dreams turn to one whom we knew as Maude Burke. In that far away land she is known as Mrs. Dozier, where she is giving her best to help save Japan. Every one is doing her bit for the upbuilding of humanity. One as a pastor's wife in the State—Knotokah Marshbanks as we know her—now Mrs. Martin, is proving herself a helpmate indeed.

Cora Marshbanks, now Mrs. Privette of Edenton, is a wife and mother in the true sense of the word, always full of determination. We knew the Marshbanks girls would make good. Sorrows have overtaken some of our members—"Hal" Williams suffered bereavement a few years ago in the death of her husband. That bright, cheerful disposition that made "Hal" popular has made her a "pal" to her boys and she finds great joy in their companionship.

What shall I say of the remaining members of the Class of '03? I am sure all are filling their places in life. One could not fail who had ever abode within the sacred walls of this grand old institution.

And so, our class though scattered yearn oft-times for "a touch of the vanished hand—and the sound of a voice that is still." In the busy rush of the day amid the cares and perplexities that confront us, our hearts turn to Meredith, and in the quiet of the hour there rings the dear old words of "Alma Mater" beth Purrell described in vivid terms the needful situation among our fellow students in Europe and how we may help them by giving to the Student Friendship Fund.

Are we to be the good Samaritan to help the needy ones or shall we be casual passers-by? They are a part of us; let's help them.

I. R. CLUB MEETS

FIRST TIME OF YEAR

The question next to come before the meeting was the course of study to be followed this year. There were three suggested by the International Relations Club Headquarters. Treaties of Peace, Russian Debt and Reconstruction and Problems of the New East. The decision was finally made in favor of the third cause, The Problems of The Near East. It was decided to hold the meetings hereafter in the "Y" Room instead of the parlors. After one or two matters of business had been settled, very delightful refreshments consisting of hot tea and sandwiches were served to the old, and the following new members. Blanche Current, Ira Dale, Nita Garrett, Annabelle Abbot, Mary Alderman, Louise Allen, Mary Allison, Fanny May Ange, Minnie Bell, Grace Blaylock, Cathrine Bobbitt, Mary Covington, Lucretia Dean, Annie Harris, Jennie Mae Hartsfield, Minnie Herrin, Ruth Heatherly, Bettie Hewlett, Emily Hillard, Sadie Hobbs, Iva Grace Daughton, Annie Horner, Alice Graves Honeysuckle, Novella Kendrick, Gladys Leonard, Edith Morgan, Theresa Newton, Lelia Owen, Ruth Pearce, Elizabeth Purnell, Winnie Rickett, Jessie Bell Strickland, Beatrice Townsend, Leone Warrick, Ruby Harville, Ruth Shaw Brittain, Bessie Lee Moss, Grace Neathery, Vera Pearl Milton.

CHAPEL TALK GIVEN

BY MISS COVINGTON

"Be just"—Be just and fair to everybody.

Think—Ask your self, "would I like them to say that of me or to think that of me?" If we reverse the situation we will often not say or do what we would otherwise.

"Be Pure"—Be pure in language, thought and heart. If we are pure in language and thought our hearts will be pure and vice versa. There are great promises in the Bible for the pure—"Blessed be the pure in heart for they shall see God." (Mathew 3: 8).

"Lovely"—If we think on lovely things our souls will become lovely.

"When there is any thing to praise, praise it. If we continue to do this, love will be in our hearts, and if love is in our hearts it will be on our lips and we will see the beautiful in life and speak of beautiful things rather than the ugly and unkind."
