Alumnae News

MRS. WILBUR BELTS, EDITOR

When the Kappa Nu Sigma Society was organized, the alumnae who were eligible were admitted, beginning with the year 1915. That was the year that Meredith met fully the requirements as to standards of the Association of College and Secondary Schools of the Southern States. When Meredith graduates last year became eligible for membership in the American Association of University Women, no limit as to the date of degree was set. OVER-ORGANIZATION

One of the worst things about modern colleges is their over-organization. No wonder Tenneyson had time to debate in the Apostle's Club—he did not belong to a literary society, four other clubs, a Y. W. C. A., a B. Y. P. U., and half dozen organizations besides. Not only do so many societies and clubs fail to function well, but they take time that rightfully belongs to real work. There are comparatively few people in any college who can and will work in any of these activities, and it is on their shoulders that the burden lies.

Of course every club and every union, association or society of any kind has a definite purpose and serves it, if not well, in some measure. but is it wise to let the purpose for which we come to college give way to all these smaller and rather doubtful blessings? Perhaps a certain number of clubs is necessary, but it is certainly not necessary that every upper classman should feel in honor bound to belong to them all. Better to say "This one thing I do," than "These forty things dabble in."
