

Dr. Gutzon Borglum Lectures In Auditorium Monday Evening

RARE TREAT FOR ART LOVERS
NOTED SCULPTOR SPEAKS TO A LARGE AUDIENCE MONDAY EVENING
STONE MOUNTAIN TRAGEDY EXPLAINED

On Monday evening, May the fourth, Meredith College students and friends of the College were fortunate in hearing the noted sculptor, Mr. Borglum, deliver a most impressive lecture. Mr. Borglum is best known to the public because of the recent Stone Mountain tragedy.

In the beginning Mr. Borglum stated that he had chosen Raleigh as a place of refuge for a temporary home. In his lecture Mr. Borglum cleared himself of three charges that have been brought against him. First, Mr. Borglum said that he did not destroy the Angel of Saint John the Divine. Second, he explained the coin charge that has been falsely interpreted, and third, he explained that he had never collected one cent for the work he had done on Stone Mountain, but has even gone so far as to finance some of his plans.

Mr. Borglum then said that he had held a special conference with some of the Stone Mountain committee the day he delivered the lecture, and he expressed the belief that possibly the Stone Mountain Memorial would be finished by himself.

Mr. Borglum succeeded in gaining the sympathy of his hearers by his lecture, and it is hoped that the people of the South will cooperate and show their loyalty to Mr. Borglum in so great an undertaking. For just as Milton would not be capable of finishing a play of Shakespeare no other sculptor will be able to finish the task Mr. Borglum has so originally and wholeheartedly designed.

VESPER SERVICE HELD ON CAMPUS AT SUNSET

The Y. W. C. A. had the Sunday afternoon program out on the campus where each one could be as near to nature and as near to God as possible. The program began by singing "Day is Dying in the West." The devotional was conducted by Mary Herring who read from the nineteenth Psalm. Following the devotion Irene Edwards read "God of the Open Air," by Van Dyke. "Now the Day is Over," was then sung by Marguerite Harrison, Katherine Cook, and Annie Elkins. Immediately following the trio Florence Stokes read "Sundown," by Charles McNeil.

The out of door service is very impressive and it is hoped that it will be possible to have the other Y. W. C. A. programs of this year on the campus.

INTERESTING STATISTICS FROM STUDENT BODY SIDE-LIGHT THROWN ON STUDENTS

FACULTY TO BE INTERVIEWED ON SOME SUBJECTS

Following the general trend of gathering statistics on any and all subjects, a member of the Twig staff secured some information which, the

(Continued on page two)

ANNUAL FIELD DAY OBSERVED AT MEREDITH GENERAL INTEREST MANIFESTED IN LARGE CROWD MISS ROYSTER TO BE CONGRATULATED

"There was a time when meadows, groves and stream, The earth and every common sight, To me did seem appareled in celestial light."

So was the time when the annual Field Day Exercises took place on the campus Friday (May 8). The general interest of the exercises was displayed in the crowd which had gathered when the exercises began. The first exercise was a "Grand March," in which all classes took part. Then immediately following, the Juniors presented some interesting exercises, a wand drill and a dance. The Sophomores gave a Dumb Bell Exercise and an English Barn Dance. Then last came the Freshmen with some gymnastic exercises, followed by "Jump, Jump Jim Crow," "May Day Gallop," "My Bonnie," and "Hewitt's Fancy."

After the judges made their decision, the ribbons were presented by Mr. Wood, Physical Director in the schools of Raleigh. The following girls won ribbons:

JUNIOR CLASS: Elsie Elkins, Katherine Cooke, J. M. Hartsfield, Elizabeth Purnell.

SOPH. CLASS: Sybil Myers, Maude Bowers, Lois Stafford, Marguerite Harrison.

(Continued on page four)

EXAMINATION SCHEDULE

Monday, 2 p.m.—Analysis, Biol. 4, Chem. 1(c), Eng. 6, French B(d), Hist. 1(d), German B, Greek 3, Lat. O(b), Textiles, Math. 2.

Tuesday, 10 a.m.—Chem. 3, Ed. 31, Eng. 5, French A, German A, Lat. 2, Math (b), (d), Relig. Ed. 14, Harmony 1, Pedagogy 1.

Tuesday, 2 p.m.—Geology, French 1(d), History 1(e), Music, History 2, Theory (a).

Wednesday, 10 a.m.—Chem. 1(a), Eng. 1(a) (b), Eng. 2(a), (b), French B(a), Sociology.

Wednesday, 2 p.m.—Biology 1, Chem. 1(b), Economics, Ed. 21(b), Eng. 1(d), Eng. 10, French B(c), French 1(b), French 2(b), Latin 1(b), Math 4, Relig. Ed. 10, P. S. M. 2.

Thursday, 10 a.m.—Chem. 2, Ed. 41, Eng. 1(g), Eng. 2(d), French 3, Hist. 1(c), Lat. O(a), Lat. 3, Math. 2(c), (d), (e), Harmony 2.

Thursday, 2 p.m.—Ed. 49, Eng. 1(e), Eng. 4, French 1(c), Lat. 1(c), Mus. Hist. 1, Hist. 2, Home Appreciation.

Friday, 10 a.m.—Biol. 2(b), Eng. 1(c), Eng. 2(c), French 1(a), French 2(a), Hist. 1(a), Lat. 1(a), Math. 2(a), Math 3, Physics, Relig. Ed. 2, P. S. M. 1.

Friday, 2 p.m.—Cooking 1, Ed. 21(a), Eng. 3, Biol. 2(a).

Saturday, 10 a.m.—Dietetics, Ed. 31, Eng. 1, French 1(e), German 1, Greek 1, History 1(b).

Saturday, 2 p.m.—Theory (b).

BANNER ROOMS FOR APRIL, 1925

Room No. Main Building—
224. Ruth Janet Sikes, Mary Allison.
223. Margaret Overton, Annic F. Harris, Rachel Wilkerson.
221. Elinor Lane, Martha Liverman.
222. Catherine Bobbitt, Lucreta Dean, Ruth Pearce.
220. Winnie Rickett, Bessie Lee Moss.
218. Grayce Butler, Margaret Lassiter, Lillian Walters.
214. Elizabeth Daniel, Rachel Daniel, Mary Love Davis.
213. Elizabeth Higgs, Mary Blount Martin.
212. Berta Crawford, Mary Crawford, Studie Creech.
211. Alma Kendrick, Neva Pearl Kendrick, Novella Kendrick, Annie Will Kendrick.
206. Mary Covington, Lena Covington.

Faircloth Hall—

1. Bertille Blackwell, Vada Hester.
3. Mary Martin, Helen Oldham, Ellen Broadwell.
5. Ruth Bruce, Irene Edwards.
6. Sybil Myers, Beatrice Townsend.
9. Mary Bowers, Maude Bowers.
23. Annabelle Abbott, Katherine Cooke, Elizabeth Furnell, Elizabeth Richardson.
22. Mabel James, Jessie Belle Strickland.
19. Gladys Currin, Velma Poplin, Velma Patterson.
11. Maude Brock, Nannette McClure.
12. Esie Jackson, Gertrude Sample.
18. Ruth Heatherly, Mary Moss.
49. Nita Garrett, Leila Owen, Aurelia Garren.
14. Gladys Leonard, Paige Leonard.
15. Annie Grace Williams, Monte Clark.
24. Lena Mae Williams, Margaret Cone Tucker.
26. Mary Warsley, Estelle White, Evelyn White.
29. Naomi Hocutt, Zelma Hocutt.
28. Virginia Link, Mabel Severance, Hattie Bradley.

38. Sallie Mashburn, Sallie Wilkins.
40. Jessie Brooks, Inez Holloway.
45. Nell Cheek, Mozelle Kelly.
46. Mary Frances Dark, Grace Dark.
51. Pauline Sawyer, Lorene Woody.
2. Frances Harris, Margaret Heywood.
4. Louise Allen, Alberta Harris.
8. Edith Morgan, Glennie Morgan.
17. Edith Maynard, Mary Tatum.
16. Mary Alderman, Mary Herring.
27. Mary Thomas, Theresa Newton.
35. Jennie Mae Hartsfield, Bettie Hewlett.

Adams Cottage—

6. Essie Mae Wrenn, Mattie Lee Wrenn, Vallie Morris.
8. Ellen Johnson.
7. Lucile Pitt, Annie Cook.

Teacher's Cottage—

14. Ruby Daniel, Faytie Harrell.
12. Willie Mae Workman, Norine Ralvey.

2. Mary B. Wheeler, Elizabeth Graham, Aleen Braswell.

North Cottage—

7. Mary Misenheimer, Ailene Young, Ruth Loudermilk.

East Building—

1. Ruth Shuman, Blannie Betts, Thelma Hales.
6. Gladys Cox, Alice Graves Hunsucker.
8. Bessie Jackson, Nannie Jackson.
5. Gladys Beeker, Thelma Peake, Annie Brown, Geneva Yeargin.

(Continued on page four)

Wake Forest B. Y. P. U. Social Given Saturday at Meredith

MISS MARY M. JOHNSON ENTERTAINS AT DINNER DELIGHTFUL DINNER PARTY GIVEN BY MISS JOHNSON FRIDAY EVENING

On Friday evening, May 8, Miss Mary Martin Johnson, of the Meredith Chemistry Department, assisted by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Johnson, gave a lovely dinner party for a number of Meredith girls and other friends of the city at her home on West Park Drive.

The guests were met at the door by Miss Johnson and Miss Susan Dewar, who gave them a hearty welcome and ushered them into the living room, which was beautifully decorated with roses. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson received there. After a few minutes, the guests were summoned into the dining room, where a lovely dinner, which was not only enjoyable but beautiful, was served by Mrs. Theodore Johnson, Mrs. Johnson, Miss Johnson, Miss Carrie Moses and Miss Susie Herring. On the plate of the last course each guest was presented with a favor of flowers, which added to the joy of the occasion. The menu was as follows:

Creamed chicken in patty shells
Creamed potatoes	English peas
Olives	Pickles
ROIS
Perfection salad
Saltines	Cheese apples
Ice cream with strawberries
Vanilla wafers
Iced tea
Lemon	Mint

(Continued on page four)

LITERARY GROUP ENTERTAINS ASTROS ASTROS ENJOY UNUSUAL PROGRAM ON ADVERTISING

Fanatics of practicality may well have been astonished had they been present at the Astro meeting Saturday night. For the Literary Group rendered a remarkable program, based on the meaning of advertisements in the Meredith publications, and the attitude which is fitting that the students assume in order that these publications receive the maximum assistance from commercial Raleigh.

There was a representative from each publication to list the hardships and trials in obtaining advertisements from merchants, Portia Alderman from the Twig staff, Bess Thomas from the Acorn staff, and Maud Bowers from the Oak Leaves staff. Points emphasized were: the necessity of advertisements to the financial life of the publications, the law of the Merchant's Association forbidding a merchant to advertise in more than one school publication, the difficulty in obtaining patrons with whom Meredith girls do not trade often, and the difficulty in obtaining advertisements from those merchants with whom Meredith will do extensive trading regardless. It was urged that the students heed more the advertisements in all of Meredith publications and take more care to trade with those who advertise with Meredith. This is something to act, as well as think upon.

SOCIAL PROVES SIGNAL SUCCESS

WAKE FOREST B. Y. P. U.'S PROVE THEIR EFFICIENCY AND ORIGINALITY AS ENTERTAINERS

SOCIETY HALLS SCENE OF MUCH ENJOYMENT

The Wake Forest B. Y. P. U.'s entertained the Meredith B. Y. P. U.'s Saturday night, May 9, in the Meredith society halls.

From the time a few of the boys came in the afternoon to help decorate until the actual time for all of them to arrive, every one seemed all excited over the approaching event. At about eight o'clock masculine voices were heard on the stairs giving a signal that they had arrived, and we rushed up to greet them expecting a good time. Soon almost all of the boys and girls had arrived and every one was gaily chatting to her new friends. Then Mr. L. B. Moseley, president of the Wake Forest B. Y. P. U.'s announced that Miss Emily Parsons would sing. All was hushed and delighted to hear her sing "Under the Lilac Tree" and "To-whit To-who." She received much applause and we wished she would favor us with another selection, but she charmingly declined.

We were next entertained by Mr. Cloz, who performed several miracles from making bread go under a hat to turning water into a girl. Then Mr. Mosely called for three girls who volunteered to have a joke played on them. Edna Earle Walton, Ruth Truesdale, and Dorothy Dunning were the sufferers whose facial expression we watched while a pointless joke was being told.

(Continued on page four)

LAST MEETING OF HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

OFFICERS ELECTED FOR NEXT YEAR

The last meeting of the Home Economics Club for the year 1924-25 was held in the Home Economic Building Tuesday afternoon, May 4th. Mary Tatum, president of the club, presided over the meeting. The election of officers for the year 1925-26 was taken up first and the following officers were elected: President, Margaret Wilkinson; vice-president, Dorothy Yates; secretary and treasurer, Clara Brooks; reporter, Mabel Andrews.

Immediately following the program Inez Holloway spoke on "The Hygiene of Clothing." She took up the subject of clothing as to appropriateness, value to health, and service. Clothing is a great preserver of health if cared for and used correctly.

Following the program, ice cream with whipped cream and strawberries were served by the refreshment committee.