

MEREDITH B. Y. P. U. ENTERTAINS WAKE FOREST B. Y. P. U.

MEREDITH HOSTESS TO WAKE

FOREST SATURDAY NIGHT

SOCIETY HALLS SCENE OF REVELRY

STUNTS, MUSIC AND GOOD EATS MAKE HALLOWE'EN RECEPTION HUGE SUCCESS

MEREDITH REQUESTS YOUR PRESENCE
The Meredith B. Y. P. U.'s.— (Or so I've heard them say) Have planned a party for you all.
October twenty-fourth's the day.
We truly hope you'll come.

We'll try to have a pretty girl For every single date.
But still you're taking quite a chance If you should happen to be late.

We may not entertain you much—Perhaps we'll talk or sing.
You know we're sure to have some dates,
For that is quite a proper thing.
(We're never out of style!)

Shall we be looking for you then?
Our hearts with hope beat high.
The time will almost endless seem I'm sure—till we get your reply.
(Don't disappoint us, please.)

Saturday night, October, 24, came as a climax to all our thrills and excitement of the past week over the B. Y. P. U. Reception. Happy had been our anticipation of the Gala occasion, but happier was the occasion itself.
A crowd nearing the five hundred mark filled the Phi and Astro halls early.

The halls were beautifully decorated in orange and black, the Hallowe'en scheme being carried out. Wake Forest and Meredith Pennants lined the walls, and unique posters were placed on the stairway to welcome our Wake Forest Brothers. A very attractive one of a girl in Meredith colors welcoming a boy in Wake Forest colors was placed at the entrance.

The first few minutes were given to get acquainted, each boy and girl being supplied with a pencil, and a card with a space for five dates. It was probably with a bit of timidity that the first dates were made, but soon the sense of fear and awkwardness was dispensed with, and the fairer sex learned the art of making as well as giving dates and every one became two.

The general president of the Meredith B. Y. P. U's, Marguerite Harris-son, then welcomed the Wake Forest B. Y. P. U's, and was supported in this by a resounding applause from the Meredith girls.

Miss Parsons, of the Music Department, then sang, in costume a group of Irish Songs. She very pleasingly rendered these songs, and they were very much enjoyed by all.

Each of the five unions presented a stunt; there being an intermission between each for the change of dates.

In the Phi Hall, the Pearl Johnson Union presented, "The Lucky Ones," which was in impersonation of the various colleges of the State. Naturally, and as was quite the proper

FLORENCE STERN THRILLS LARGE AU- DIENCE OF ADMIRERS

YOUNG AMERICAN VIOLINIST VISITS RALEIGH OCTOBER 20

CONCERT WELL ATTENDED BY MEREDITH

On Tuesday evening October 20, one of the greatest treats that has ever been to Raleigh was enjoyed by a large number of Meredith Students.
Florence Stern, violinist, foremost among Americans and internationally known and appreciated, came to the city auditorium with all her musical talent, her charming personality, and her fine poise, and literally thrilled an audience of admirers.

She is liked by everyone, critics included, for there is not another nearly so young as she of whom critics speak so highly. It has been said that someday she will have all the qualities of Kreisler and Keifitz combined. She has also been favorably compared with Heifitz when he made his debut in America at the age of sixteen.

The following is a copy of the program:

I

Sonata, No. 4, D Major—Haendel.
Adagio—Allegro.
Larghetto—Allegro.

II

Grand Concerto—Viextemps.
Andante—Moderato.
Adagio—Religioso.
Finale—Marziale.

III

a. Midnight Bells—Heuberger-Kreisler.
b. Perpetuum—Mobile—Ries.
c. Chant Hindou—Rimsky-Korsakov.
d. Introduction et Tarantelle—Sarasate.

IV

a. Summer Idyl—Burleigh.
b. Carnival Russe—Wieniawsky.

Whether in the low weird tones with which she seemed to hypnotize the audience, or whether in the light fantastic touches of her bow with which she sent us all to fairyland, in all cases it can well be said "How good music doth charm the soul!"

All of the students of Meredith College wish to offer their gratitude to the Woman's Club for the great work which they are doing to make the community more musical. They are to be congratulated for having obtained such artists for the series of concerts and recitals which will be held through the year. We feel sure that

STUDENT CONFERENCE WILL DISCUSS WORLD COURT PROBLEM

ARE WE FOR A NATIONAL POLICY

OF "SPLENDID ISOLATION"?

ARMENIAN STUDENT SPEAKS IN Y. W. SUNDAY

MR. DANIELS DISCUSSES "THE AMERICAN PERSECUTION IN Y. W. VESPER

Mr. Daniels, an Armenian student from Wake Forest, spoke to Meredith Y. W. C. A. Sunday night October, 25.
Mr. Daniels was born in America, but has spent most of his life in Armenia.
He came to the United States about four months ago and is at present a student at Wake Forest. "The Armenian Persecution" was the topic, Mr.
Daniels discussed. He told us that in Armenia the Christian man or woman has quite a struggle; the Christian is always in danger of being killed by the Turks. Turks are Mohammedans and they believe that they should kill those people who do not believe as they do. One Mohammedan priest told the Turks that they had a place fixed in Heaven if they would kill five Christians. So the Turks are a fighting people. When the Turks capture a Christian they ask the Christian three times to give up his Christian religion, and after the third time, if he refuses, ninety five times out of a hundred it means death. Mr. Daniels told of the fighting done by the Armenians, in the late War. Even boys fourteen and fifteen years old enlisted and went into the firing line; however, the persecution by the Turks that still exists in Armenia may be compared with the war. In one instance the principal of a girl's school and four hundred girls threw themselves off of a rock five hundred feet high in order that they might not be captured by the Turks. In the city of Bitlis sixty thousand persons were captured and slaughtered by the Turks. The Mohammeds are very loyal to their religion. Mr. Daniels said that if we Christians were as loyal to our religion as Mohammedans are we would christianize the world in twenty years.
We Americans should be proud that we live in a free country, but we must not forget those who are struggling, even dying, in order to be true to God. Before Mr. Daniels spoke Lena Mac Williams sang "Cast Thy Burden on the Lord."

CONFERENCES TO BE HELD THROUGHOUT ENTIRE COUNTRY

ARE AMERICAN STUDENTS THINK- ING BEYOND BORDERS OF THE CAMPUS?

In twelve conferences held in various parts of the country over the last two week-ends, students from every type of college and university studied the World Court. Plans for campus investigation on the subject were set up and the work is already under way in a number of schools. Approximately 450 of the keenest student minds decided that the educational campaign which is being sponsored by the Council of Christian Associations during the fall months is a worthy enterprise and that they will give their fullest cooperation.

The special World Court conferences of the past week-end included two in Nebraska, one in Oklahoma City, one in Galesburg, Ill., and one in Sioux Falls, S. D. An average of fifty students attended each of these regional and state gatherings and considered the World Court. During the latter part of October and the first half of November, between thirty-five and fifty similar conferences are planned in line with the accelerated interest in international affairs focusing on the opening of the Senate debate on December 17th.

During the first two weeks of December, a national poll will be conducted by the New Student and the Council of Christian Associations' World Court Committee which will be the culmination of weeks of study and discussion. In the poll, students will express their approval or disapproval of the entrance of the United States into the Court.

This intensive series of meetings has grown out of the resolutions passed at the recent annual meeting of the Council of Christian Associations in which the student leaders from campuses from all quarters of the country expressed the belief that the United States should enter the World Court at the earliest possible date. This conviction resulted from a study of the situation as it exists and was followed by a plan whereby students all over the country may have a chance to educate themselves on the issue and to mobilize whatever thought may result from the study done on local campuses and in conferences.

The conviction that students should take a continuous interest in things international and that they should exert a vital force in shaping of policies led to the purpose that the intensive educational campaign should be only the first step toward the continuous influence of an intelligent and active student opinion on all matters of international concern.

Raymond Fosdick, Ivy L. Lee, Irving Fisher, Manley Hudson, and Ex-Governor Sweet of Colorado are among those interested in the stand the student movement has taken on the World
