

WINGATE CLUB HOSTESS TO W. F. CAROLINA STATE WINGATE BOYS

The boys were met at the door by Misses Elizabeth Graham, Nell Redfearn, and Elizabeth Brewer who invited them to the hall. Here they were welcomed by the other members of the club and given slips to match for partners. Miss Armstrong, accompanied by Miss Galt at the piano, then sang two numbers: Morning, and In Italy. Misses Galb and Armstrong are members of the Meredith Music Faculty. After the musical selections, all were invited to the punch bowl over which Miss Alma Moose presided. A salad course was served, consisting of chicken salad, pickles, saltines, coffee, and salted peanuts. During the course an imaginative chapel program was heard over the radio. Just before time for the boys to leave, Miss Glennie Morgan, President of the Wingate Club, expressed the pleasure of the club in having the boys over and also read a letter from Mr. J. B. Huff, President of Wingate Junior College, which contained greetings and best wishes to all the former students present.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Poplin, Crawford Bowers, and Earl Kendall from N. C. State; Messers Howard Williams, Tilroe Threatt, Loyd Finch, Eugene Howard, Dan McArthur, Judson Coats, George Hocutt, Robert Goody and Bernard Helms from Wake Forest, and Messers Croxton Blackwell, Otto Reese, Abner Lassiter, Edwin Lowery, and Conley Baucom from Carolina.

The Meredith girls present were: Misses Mary and Glennie Morgan, Alma and Zelma Hocutt, Alice Lawrence, Mildred Braswell, Alma Moose, Mae Griffin, Nell Redfearn, Sallie Williams, Minnie Briley, Izorah Reese, Mary Taylor, Elizabeth Graham, Ruth Abie, Elizabeth and Mamie Brewer.

JOKES

"Just to think" said the husky in football togs, "I promised my mother I would never be a football player."

"Well," said the out spoken coach, "you've kept your promise."

"What do you say to shaking hands?"

"Too many Cigaretts."

Lightning knocked a college man out of bed. The first words he said upon regaining consciousness were, "All right, roommate, I'll get up."

"Do you think it was suicide?"

"No, he still had a pint of gin in his pocket."

We never yet heard of an absent-minded professor who forgot to flunk any one.

A watch on the wrist is worth two on the Rhine.

"Are rabbits feet lucky?"

Yes, my wife felt one in my pocket and thought it was a mouse.

"I'm a sticker," cooed the chewing gum, as the frantic soph tried vainly to get it out of her tangled locks.

When louder clothes are made, college girls will wear them—
And when more quizzes are discovered, college profs will adopt them.

FOR THE SEWING CIRCLE

Absence makes the tongue go faster.

A kiss in time saves nine—efforts.

Bill: Joe, how do you tell if it's a college town?

Poe: Because the girls won't speak to you if you wear a hat.

There are two kinds of women: those who shut their eyes when kissing and those who look to see if you do.

Early to bed—early to rise,
Keeps your roommate from using your ties.
