CLUB ENTERTAINS CHARMINGLY OUR CLUB HAS AS GUESTS OTHER FORMER MARS HILL STUDENTS

On Friday evening, October 15, the Mars Hill Club of Meredith College entertained in the Astro Hall the former students of Mars Hill College who are now at Wake Forest, State, Carolina and Duke. After the guests had assembled, our president, Lenna Gambell welcomed them.

The evening was divided into five dates, each of which lasted for about fifteen minutes. Pauline Huff was the very capable Mistress of Ceremonies, and upon her signal each date began. The first date was called the "Soup line," an expression near and dear to the heart of each M. H. C. student. A bowl of punch in one corner of the room represented the "spring under the beechnut tree" where, down through the ages couples have stopped to quench their thirst on their way home from a walk to the Cascades.

During the second date the couples were seated, and were entertained by an inverted quartette composed of Dorothy Satterfield, Blanche Horton, Mozelle Wall and Bessie Snyder. Once again the signal was given and the third date began. At this time Howard Mumford proved herself a capable teacher when she taught a group the Siamese language. During the fourth date Ruth Brookshire, Bulah Lisk, Lois Ross and Virginia Holtzelaw gave a stunt, after which they sang "I'd Rather be a Mars Hill Girl Than a Multi-Multi Millionaire," a song often heard on the M. H. C. campus and one which never fails to thrill a Mars Hill girl or boy. All too soon the time came for the fifth and last date. At this time the crowd was delightfully entertained by Henry Clay Edwards of Wake Forest, who sang "Sorter Miss You," after which refreshments were served.

The remainder of the evening was spent in recognizing representatives from each of the different schools, and other guests, among them Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Morgan (Mrs. Morgan was formerly Miss Faye Johnson), Misses Gladys Johnson and Jessie Huff, also Messrs. Joe Medlin and Marsh Myers, all of whom were formerly Mars Hill students, and G. B. Murphy at present a Mars Hill boy.

The evening was brought to a close with the singing of the M. H. C. Alma Mater.

CANVASSERS REPORT ON CENTENNIAL CAMPAIGN GRAND TOTAL $57,981; TO MEET AGAIN FRIDAY

On Friday evening, October 14, 1927, a host of Baptists gathered at Meredith. At this time the various teams that have been canvassing this district made their report. This district is divided into three associations: The Raleigh Association, the Civic Association and the Central Association. The reports from these associations were as follows: Raleigh, $20,309; Civic, $4,340; and Central, $33,312; making a grand total of $57,981.

As Meredith students our hearts and prayers are with this campaign. This report is the first report that has been made. Let us take into consideration that so many churches could make no report at all. Some of our people have given most liberally to this great cause. We are proud of the way our own faculty responded to the call. But how many more are there who are able to give more than they have given!

Pullen Memorial was the only church to exceed its quota at the first call. Dr. Ellis, the pastor, was called on to tell how Pullen accomplished this. Dr. Ellis explained that there was no secret about it—Pullen just did it. Before a man is able to sell anything to those around him, he has to be sold on his own proposition. That was the key to their success.

On Friday evening, October 21, 1927, the canvassers will meet again and make still further reports. As the campaign widens in scope we will grow even more interested. As a student you can do much for our campaign. When you go home talk about it and show the folks that you're interested in the campaign. Great things are wrought by prayer. As students let's do our bit to put the campaign over. When the final report is made for this district every dollar of the quota will have been raised because the Baptists of North Carolina have never failed to meet their obligations and they never will.

SOCIALS

Miss Frances Fulghum spent the week-end at her home in Wilson.

Miss Virginia Lang spent the past week-end with her parents in Walstonburg.

Miss Margaret Craig was the week-end guest of Dr. and Mrs. Hubert Poate of Wake Forest, N. C.

Miss Mary Rodwell Hunter spent the week-end at her home in Kinston.

MRS. STEVENSON SPEAKS MISS MATHERS A GUEST HERE THIS WEEK

The vesper service last Sunday evening was one of the most interesting and impressive services of the year. The Y. W. C. A. conducted the program.

Our much loved friend, Miss Kellam, introduced Miss Juliette Mathers. Miss Mathers is teaching one of the Y. W. A. study courses, and is a guest of the Meredith girls this week. The book which she is teaching is "Only a Missionary."

Mrs. Gilbert Stevenson spoke to us on a supremely important topic, that of faith. She emphasized the fact that faith is composed of two fundamental elements: Belief and trust. She made us realize that God is both intellectual and personal, and that he wants us to think of him not as one aloof, to whom we go when in dire trouble, but as a constant companion. Mrs. Stevenson closed this talk with a poem entitled "Others." In this poem we were assured that real happiness comes solely through living for others.

We enjoyed two musical selections: a violin solo rendered by Mary Brockwell, followed by a vocal solo by Dorothy Turlington. We were then dismissed by Miss Biggers.

NOTICE

The time is drawing nearer and nearer! Girls, let's boost stunt night and have a large crowd here for that occasion. We are expecting this stunt night to be the most successful and best ever at Meredith College. We want it to be the best ever, but without the cooperation of each member of the individual classes we can not make it as good as we would like it to be. So, class presidents and members of each class, we are depending on you for a fine and wholesome entertainment on the night of November 5, 1927.

Signed:

PRES. OF WOMAN'S ATHLETIC ASSO.
