N. C. State and Meredith College should henceforth graduate some ideal hosts and hostesses, if the saying "experience is the best teacher," is to be proved true. Whether the delegates to the N. C. Collegiate Press Association and the State Baptist Student Conference shall suffer as victims of the experimentation is a question, but certainly the two entertaining colleges are enjoying thoroughly the new experience. Another old adage, "The more the merrier," is also about to be proved or disproved, for Meredith's family is about to grow suddenly from 520 to approximately 825.

No more obvious expression of our joy at having both these conferences meet with Meredith can be cited than the smile on the face of our President. As every Meredith girl knows, nothing pleases Dr. Brewer more than for the people throughout the state, young people particularly, to make Meredith their Mecca. Therefore as the delegates come, they may be certain of receiving a broad smile and a hearty welcome from Dr. Brewer, if nothing further is done for them while they are here.

With apologies to Wake Forest College for the borrowing of their colors, we are printing this issue of The Twig on yellow paper, lest in the rush of attending conferences, banquets, and luncheons, the propinquity of Hallowe'en might be overlooked.

Hallowe'en at Meredith always means "good eats, good treats, and a good time for all," for never does our Dietitian forget when that specific day comes around, regardless of the "hurry and scurry" of college life. Since the very beginning of Meredith, Hallowe'en has been a red-letter day for us, particularly because of the Ghost which once was

SOCIAL NEWS

Dr. W. M. Vines, pastor First Baptist Church of Lynchburg, Va., who is holding a revival at Tabernacle Baptist Church, conducted chapel exercises Saturday morning. Dr. Vines has preached the baccalaureate sermon at Meredith commencement on two occasions and is greatly beloved by Meredith students. The main portion of his talk was based upon the three common place words sincerity, self-control and sympathy.

Dr. Vines was accompanied by Dr. Greaves, pastor of Tabernacle Church and a friend of the college.

We are glad to welcome back Miss Grace Lawrence, Dean of Women, who was called to her home in Salisbury on account of the illness of her father. She was accompanied back by Miss Cullins, who spent several days in the college as a guest of Miss Lawrence.

Dr. Chas. E. Maddry, Secretary of the North Carolina State Convention, was present at our chapel hour Friday morning. He made a few brief remarks in behalf of the Centennial Campaign and urged the entire student body to subscribe.

Miss Cleo Mitchell, Student Sec. at N. C. C. W., spent a short while in the college on last Sunday night.

At a recent meeting of the Honor Society, Martha Maynard of Raleigh, was elected President. A few days later, another member was added to the society: namely, Eloise Greenwood, of Statesville, member class of '28. An error in recording her grades last spring was responsible for the delay.

The Colton English Club held its regular monthly meeting on Monday afternoon at five o'clock.

Miss Jane Jones, instructor in piano at Peace Institute was a guest at the college on Monday afternoon.

an occasional visitor upon Meredith students.

With the use of yellow paper and black ink, of black cats and bats, and the talk of Meredith ghosts, it is not our purpose to frighten our guests to any extent, but merely to remind them that the Hallowe'en season is here, that it is recognized gladly by Meredith students, and to warn them that "The Goblins will get you if you don't watch out."

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Because the Sunday School department is the youngest organization on the campus, it may be termed the baby organization of the B. S. U. It is safe to say, however, that the baby is beginning to grow. In other colleges the Sunday School is an important part of the B. S. U. and renders a great service on the campus. At Meredith the Sunday School is expected to do the same great work. The purpose of this department is to unify the Meredith classes at Pullen, Tabernacle and First Baptist Churches and encourage their work.

The first thing that the Sunday school department has attempted to do since its organization is to establish the six point record system of keeping the class records. This system is necessary in order to have standard Sunday school classes. It has been tested in hundreds of Sunday schools and found to be the quickest and most efficient method of keeping class records.

There are two other reasons for having the six point record system besides the one mentioned above. The first is to train girls for work in their home Sunday Schools. All the progressive Baptist Sunday Schools of today are adopting this system, and the members of the North Carolina Baptist Sunday School board are anxious that the college students introduce this system into their home churches.

The second reason is to create a spirit of rivalry among the classes. The record of each class is to be posted on the bulletin board every Tuesday so that each class can see what the other classes are doing. It has been voted by the classes to try the six point record system for three months, and since it has been such a success at other colleges, it is sure to be a success at Meredith.

The Sunshine Work which for several years has been carried on separately by the different churches is now to be under the direction of the Sunday school department. It has been arranged that the girls from Pullen and Tabernacle churches go out every second Sunday in the month and the girls from First Baptist go every fourth Sunday. In this way there will be two Sundays in the month in which the Meredith girls go out on Sunshine Work. Arrangements are to be made so that each girl who wishes may go several times during the year.

Though the baby department of the B. S. U. is still in its tender years, it is hoped that it will do a great service to Meredith.
