

DR. TURNER
TO HOLD REVIVAL

THE TWIG

DR. TURNER
TO HOLD REVIVAL

DR. TURNER TO BE HERE NEXT WEEK

PASTOR OF FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF
GREENSBORO TO BE A
WELCOME VISITOR
REVIVAL SERVICES TO LAST A WEEK

The revival, which is held annually at Meredith, is to take place the week beginning February 12, as announced by Dr. Brewer, in chapel, Friday morning. Dr. J. Clyde Turner, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Greensboro, N. C., is to preach for us. Dr. Turner is known and recognized as one of the most powerful preachers in the state. He is a great favorite with the college girls of Greensboro, because he understands and sympathizes with young people. Meredith is fortunate in being able to secure Dr. Turner to speak throughout the week, and we are hoping, that the meeting will be a great one in every respect.

Student Volunteer Conference to meet at Duke Feb. 17-19

200 DELEGATES EXPECTED —PROMINENT SPEAKERS

Durham, N. C., Feb. 4—(CP) Plans are rapidly maturing for the Student Volunteer Conference which will be held at Duke University from 17-19 of February. At this conference it is expected that more than two hundred delegates will be present, representing every college and university in the state, as well as thirty colored delegates from the various institutions for the negroes in North Carolina.

Prominent speakers have been arranged as well as many promising social functions. Dr. Edmund D. Soper,

(Continued on page three)

HONOR SYSTEM HOLDS ITS OWN

509 TO 232 VOTE FOR HONOR SYSTEM TO REMAIN AT DUKE

Durham, N. C., Feb. 4—(CP)—In a referendum vote here the Honor System was upheld by a vote of 509 to 232. This ballot was rather surprising since many predicted that the Honor System would be voted out. During the examinations just passed eight cases were reported by students, something that is unprecedented here, and more cases than had been reported by students here in the past two years. The shortcomings of the system have been attributed to the lack of knowledge on the part of freshmen.

Already the committee is at work attempting to revise the Honor Code, and very soon officials expect to be able to report one of the most effective Honor Systems in the state.

Hanes, (CP) Editor.

"B-HIVE" THE NEW NAME OF "Y" STORE

ESTHER MCNEILL,
LUCILE GIBSON, AND
MARGARET TROTMAN
HAND IN WINNING NAME

PRIZES UNIQUELY AWARDED IN CHAPEL

When the "Y" store committee and the B. S. U. cabinet members met together Friday night for the purpose of deciding on a new name for the "Y" Store, they found themselves confronted by a monstrous task. Quite a number of girls had contributed attractive and original names to the contest which made the decision hard to render. However, after much deliberation, the B-Hive was finally selected as the most appropriate. This name had been entered by three people—Lucile Gibson, Esther McNeill and Margaret Trotman. Each of these three winners were presented with a box of Hershey's chocolate bars, at the chapel exercises Saturday morning, by Madeline Elliott, president of the B. S. U. Before presenting the prizes and revealing the new name of the store, Miss Elliott stated to the student body that these girls had done something which had never before been done in the history of the college.

The six names receiving the next highest votes from the committee were: The Hut, B Store, Campus Cabin, Maroon Cove and U Store. Some other name which held a clever significance were Eat 'em and Bust, Oasis and Callie Jr. Probably the most imagination was exerted by the contestant who suggested "Lucky Lindy, where we spendy." And yet again, such conventional names as Meredith Supply Store and The Student Store were submitted. Also, Pastime, Hunger Heaven and Cash Inn were names which appeal to those who know through experience. But B-Hive it is, and from now on, girls, let us give the B-Hive our hearty cooperation and patronage.

Winnie Rickett a Welcome Visitor

MAKES STRAIGHT TO THE HEART TALK

B. Y. P. U. ASSEMBLY VERY INTERESTING

Winnie Rickett was a welcome visitor at B. Y. P. U. Assembly Wednesday night, February 1. We had expected Mr. Ivey to be here also, but he found it necessary to postpone his visit until February 8. Winnie conducted the de-

(Continued on page four)

DOROTHY TURLINGTON GIVES GRADUATING RECITAL

Charming Program, Miss Turlington
Lovely and Self-Possessed

CAPTIVATES AUDIENCE

An unusually large audience greeted Miss Dorothy Turlington Friday evening, February 3, when she appeared for her graduation recital. Miss Turlington was lovely in a light blue taffeta, trimmed in flowers and silver lace. She carried pink roses at her first appearance.

Throughout the entire program, Miss Turlington was charmingly at ease and self-possessed. Miss Turlington shows unusual ability. Her program was as follows.

Air and Variations, op. 26—Beethoven.

Hark! Hark! the Lark—Schubert-Liszt.

Impromptu, op. 90, No. 4—Schubert.

In the Old Castle, op. 85, No. 3—Dvorak.

Romance—Arnold.

Valse—Friml.

Allegro Appassionato — Saint-Saëns.

(Continued on page four)

New B. Y. P. U. Union Named for Dr. Brewer

PERMANENT NAME IS THE CHARLES E.
BREWER UNION

YOUNGEST UNION GROWING RAPIDLY

The B. Y. P. U. which has heretofore been known as the "New Union" has chosen for its permanent name the "Charles E. Brewer Union." It has been interesting to see this, the newest and youngest, union grow to one strong enough and old enough to name itself. It is with a great deal of pride that this union announces its new name, and the hope in the heart of each member is that the Charles E. Brewer Union will live up to the name it bears.

DOROTHY GERTRUDE MERRITT AN UN- USUAL GIRL

A SENIOR AT HUGH
MORSON HIGH—NIECE
OF MISS ROYSTER
TO ATTEND MEREDITH
NEXT YEAR

We feel that Miss Dorothy Gertrude Merritt, niece of Miss Gertrude Royster, deserves the mention we are about to make of her, chiefly because she knows how to think and because she does think!

Miss Merritt is a Senior at the Hugh Morson High School of Raleigh, and will enter Meredith next year. She not only makes a splendid general average in all of her studies but she participates in a great many extra-curriculum activities. Dorothy is Publicity Chairman of the Girl Reserves, Secretary of the Morson Literary Society, Secretary and Treasurer of the Science Club, member of the Student Council, and associate editor and club editor of the high school

(Continued on page four)

NOTICE! NEW "Y" STORE MANAGER TO BE CHOSEN GIRLS APPLY NOW

Heretofore the manager of the "Y" Store has been nominated by the nominating committee of the college and voted on by the student body, but this year a new system has been introduced. Any girls who are interested in this work will be allowed to apply for the managership. The remuneration of this position is well worth while.

The applications must be turned in to the President of the "Y" Store Committee, Isabel McLeod, before Thursday, February 16.

FOUR MINUTE SPEAKERS ENJOY ANOTHER TRIP

GIRLS MEET WITH UNUSUAL SUCCESS

25 HAPPY ENTHUSIASTIC GIRLS
MAKE TRIP

JANIE BURNS BROADCASTS
HER SPEECH

Why were all those seats vacant on the twelve o'clock classes last Saturday? Some of the girls who never miss were conspicuously absent. Oh, yes, the missing were the four-minute speakers for the Centennial Campaign. Christmas holidays, reviews and Exams caused a cessation of trips for a time, but at last they have begun again, causing as much interest as before.

A bus left the college at 12:30 Saturday filled with 25 happy enthusiastic girls and bound for four associations—Liberty, South Yadkin, Rowan, and Mecklenburg-Cabarrus. Mrs. Maddy was the welcome chaperone. These girls spoke in and around Lexington, Thomasville, Statesville, Salisbury, Concord, Charlotte, etc., re-

(Continued on page four)

Miss Ellen Brewer Elected B. S. U. Faculty Adviser

B. S. U. FORTUNATE IN OBTAINING NEW ADVISER

The B. S. U. Council considers itself very fortunate in being able to announce that Miss Ellen D. Brewer, head of the Home Economics department, has agreed to assume the duties of Faculty Adviser to the Baptist Student Union.

Miss Mary Loomis Smith, of the English department, has held this position during the first year and a half of the B. S. U.'s existence at Meredith, and we regret very much that, on account of bad health, Miss Smith was unable to return to her academic and religious duties. As Faculty Adviser to the B. S. U. she proved to be of inestimable value, and was loved by all with whom she came in contact.

We feel that Miss Brewer, although she cannot fill the exact place in our hearts which Miss Smith fills, will soon make for herself a place peculiarly her own. The entire B. S. U. extends to her its heartiest and warmest welcome.

Frances Scarborough wins tickets to State for best article in last week's issue

Are You Reading Reflections By Matilda Holleman?
An Interesting, Fascinating, Lively Serial, Full Of Action, See Page Three!