Bible Thought.

James 1:22-23. But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deluding your own selves. For if any one is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a mirror.

We have dedicated our last issue to the class of '28, our dear Seniors, to whom we are all wishing a long life full of happiness. We are bidding them goodbye with a heart full of love and want them to visit their Alma Mater as often as possible in the future. We beg of you to remember THE TWIG and our Alumnae Column; all of your contributions will be greatly appreciated. Class of '28 it is with sincere regret that we say bon voyage! Don't forget we love you.

Of course our Seniors finished their exams last week but it is with real joy that the rest of us finish today. The only regret that we have is that we have one year less to spend at Meredith.

THE TWIG Staff wishes to extend their best wishes to the rest of the Meredith girls for a happy and enjoyable summer.

THE IMPORTANT THINGS IN LIFE

This is just a thought which is sometimes forgotten in the hurry and excitement of exams and commencement. We should do our very best in our school work but we should not put ourselves first. If there is some poor little girl beside you who needs your help on some difficult exam, stop and help her! Service to others is more important to you than an A on any exam. It is hard for us to remember the important things in life in the busy hum of everyday affairs. The chief thing is to remember that we should help others and then help ourselves.

QUESTION OF ASSIMILATION OF FRESHMEN

N. C. C. W. GIRLS DISCUSS BIG SISTER IDEA

The question of what part the upperclassmen shall take in the assimilation of the freshmen has been a vital one on the N. C. C. W. campus for the last week or so. A feeling had been prevalent for some time that the former Big Sister idea has proved a failure, due to its lack of organization.

A mass meeting was held, after several preliminary meetings concerning the subject, in which several plans were presented to the student body as substitutes for the present system. At this meeting it was voted that the entire matter be left up to the incoming junior class, but that the name of Big Sister be continued.

The plan, as finally evolved by the incoming junior class, is not radically different from the old plan. The main points of difference are that the girls who are to act as big sisters under the new system must meet certain qualifications and will be appointed from the president's office. The big sisters will have no choice as to their little sisters as in former years. The new system will have a definite organization with a chief big sister at its head. The big sisters will not live in freshmen hall with the freshmen, although this was suggested.

This plan is not to be considered as final until it has been through the president's office and has secured the approval of the administration.

CAROLINIAN.

AUF WIEDERSEHEN

MATILDA HOLLEMAN, '31

Twilight shades are falling across the path of gold.

The starry curtain is dropp'd and the story has been told.

Evening echoes ring o'er the distant hill and dell.

Your praises now, dear seniors, the whippoorwills do tell.

Your mother, alma mater, casts her shadows long

We who are left sing to you our farewell song.

Aurora lifts the curtain of tomorrow
And you step lightly into fields so free of sorrow

The daisies bow their dainty heads both left and right

May Alma Mater always be your guiding light

May cherubim of luck and love follow you

May you always, dear seniors, to Meredith be true.

BON VOYAGE

SARAH BRIGGS, '31

The ship Success is at the pier
With sails of white all set.

Beyond the far horizon's rim
Wait trials to be met.

And you, dear Seniors, who have held
Through gains and losses too,

Are standing now upon the deck
With larger hearts and true.

For you will make that voyage far,
And sail the sea of life
With that same spirit you have shown,
Staunch sailors in the strife.

And so to you who leave us now
To sail an unknown sea,
We wish success and hopes fulfilled
And the best of all there be!

The English servant said: "Shall I press your pants, sir?"

Miss Barker: Mabel, define bacteria.
Mabel: Bacteria?—Oh yes, it's the rear entrance to a cafeteria.

Jimmie: Have you heard the Halitosis song?

Melson: No; what is it?

Jimmie: Moonbeam, Kiss Her for Me.
