WELCOME

DAVIE BELLE EATON

If you chance to be a new girl you no doubt have already realized that all Meredith College has joined hands in bidding you welcome. On behalf of THE TWIG staff we want to bid you doubly welcome. We're glad you're here. THE TWIG is your paper and we're here to serve you. We belong to the old order, and too soon our days here will be spent. We must move on to higher things and surrender our posts to those who will follow after us.

You have entered upon a new chapter in your life! How shall it be written? What degree of ambition do you have? Have you become discouraged already? Brace up! We all get blue now and then and even Seniors long to get home. You're fortunate to be here. Many girls are just outside of Meredith's doors and long to be here! Your opportunity is golden, but we beg you to remember it is fleeting too. If you can meet each day's trials and tribulations, that's about as much as one person can do. Don't borrow sorrow from tomorrow. Today is yours! Utilize it!

Meredith is your home for awhile and this is your paper. We hope that ere this year has ended we may discover several freshmen that are interested in the newspaper world. It's an old and fascinating game! But it has made a priceless contribution to this world of ours. So we bid you all welcome and hope some day you may all be followers of our trade!

JEAN'S IS PLEDGED TO THE LEADING SORORITY OF STYLE

Smarter than smart, neater than neat, these are Jean's Garments.

The season's first pledges to the sisterhood of fashion, Practicability and Economy—which are not Greek letter clubs, but just as important.

Like all good collegians our Garments go in for classes, athletics, and a dozen different social occasions.
