

This Week Dedicated to Memory of Schubert

AN INTERESTING PROGRAM IN HIS HONOR GIVEN BY MEMBERS OF MUSIC FACULTY

This week is being set aside over all the world in memory of the greatest romanticist in music that the world has ever known—Franz Schubert. Schubert was born in Vienna in 1797. He was the thirteenth child in a family of fourteen. The family, though not very wealthy, was intelligent and musical. All the children were given musical instruction at a very early age. Franz was given violin lessons by his father when he was eight years old. He was a very apt pupil.

Schubert had a voice of unusual ability and when he was eleven years old, he became a member of the Imperial chorus, and went to live in the chorus school. Often, while he was

The most valuable prize that may be won by college men this winter is the $25,000 prize offered to the citizen of the United States who will present the most practical plan for the efficient working and enforcement of the Volstead Act and the Eighteenth Amendment. The donor of this prize is Will C. Durant, automobile manufacturer, and one time chairman of the General Motors corporation.

Those who wish to compete for the Durant Enforcement prize must present their ideas in not more than two-thousand words and mail their essays to The Prize Committee on the 18th Amendment, Room 2401 Fisk Building, New York City, on or before December 1. N. C. Education Association Meets in Durham

SEVERAL MEMBERS OF MEREDITH FACULTY ATTEND

DR. HARRIS READS INTERESTING PAPER

The meeting of the North Central District of the North Carolina Education Association met in Durham, November 12, at the Durham High School. Several members of the Meredith College faculty attended this meeting, and one of the number, Dr. Harris, read a very interesting and most helpful paper before the Latin Teachers on "Dante's Use of Virgil in the Purgatorio." The introduction of this paper emphasized the interdependence of teachers of Latin and teachers of English. The paper, as a whole, developed the idea that Dante introduced Virgil in the poem to make the other world objective.

The Club had as its honor guests, Miss Margaret Nash, a former member and officer of this club, and Miss Ellen Brewer, head of the Home Economics Department.

After the program and discussions those present enjoyed delicious refreshments served by the refreshment committee.

BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION PERVADED BY SPIRIT OF CHEERFULNESS

PLEDGES TOWARD CENTENNIAL CAMPAIGN ARE STILL CONTINUING

MEREDITH TRUSTEES DECIDE THAT MEREDITH IS TO HAVE PAVED DRIVE AND SIDE-WALKS

The State Baptist Convention held its regular session at High Point last week. There was a large attendance, and we hear that Meredith was well-represented. Dr. Brewer brings back reports from the convention that sound good to anyone interested in State Baptist work.

A most encouraging feature was the vein of cheerfulness that pervaded when the Carnes question was discussed. The Baptists rallied loyally to the call to pay off the debt thus incurred and went about their usual convention proceedings without letting the slightest bit of gloom overshadow them.

In the report of the board to Dr. Maddy as to the progress of the Centennial Campaign, the statement was made that out of the $900,000 already pledged, $16,000 of this has been pledged since August the first. This shows that there is no lack of spirit in the campaign and among its workers $165,000 has been received in cash already, and much more—both in pledges and real cash—will be turned in soon. The report ended with a plea to press the campaign in the next two years so that its objective will be gloriously reached.

The Trustees' Meeting ended with a decision which appeals to the heart—as well as to the comfort—of every Meredith girl. At last we are to have a real "honest-to-goodness" paved avenue leading up to our main building and two real paved sidewalks! Instructions were given to the House and Grounds Committee to go ahead and make the contract for the job and have the work done as soon as possible. There is a hint of a "white-way" in the future, too. Let's give three cheers for the Convention and for the Meredith trustees!

SPIRIT OF ENGLAND CARRIED OUT IN REFRESHMENTS

On Friday afternoon, November sixteenth, the Colton English Club held its second monthly meeting of this year. The class presented a feature of the life of the people of Chaucer's time, a motion—the most usual variation of the puppet show. The puppets were made by members of the class and were

B. Y. P. U. Study Course Being Given This Week

BOOKS OFFERED PRACTICAL AND INTERESTING

SPLENDID CHOICE OF TEACHERS

On Monday evening, November the nineteenth the girls who were interested in taking one of the B. Y. P. U. study courses gathered in the chapel before going to their respective classes.

Several interesting courses are being given this year, among which are the following: "Pilgrim's Progress for B. Y. P. U.," taught by Dr. Turner, pastor of the Hayes-Barton Baptist Church; "The Senior B. Y. P. U. Manual," taught by Mr. Y. C. Elliott; "The Plan of Salvation," taught by Mrs. Ivey; "The General Organization of B. Y. P. U.," taught by Mr. Ivey; "The Junior and Intermediate Teacher's Manual," taught by Miss Winnie Rickett; and "The People Called Baptists," taught by Dr. Ellis, pastor of the Pullen Memorial Baptist Church.

The attendance at the classes has been unusually good, so far, but it is not yet too late to join one of them. They are all practical as well as interesting, and offer a good chance to improve the average of each union, if all B. Y. P. U. members will enlist.

Miss Herndon Talks at Meeting of International Relations Club

MEXICO SUBJECT OF AN INTERESTING DISCUSSION

The International Relations Club met Thursday night November 15, 1928. Miss Herndon gave an informal talk on Mexico. She told of the people, the cities, and the industries of this neighbor. She also pictured the problems and difficulties of this country. Mexico has a long coast line which makes foreign attack easy. It is a volcanic country. The most menacing situation, however, has been foreign control of her land. Steps toward the improvement of this situation have been taken. Outsiders, largely from the United States and Great Britain, own practically all of her oil wells.

GREAT EDUCATORS SPEAK AT SOUTHERN CONFERENCE ON EDUCATION

DR. CHASE PRESENTED PROBLEMS OF SOUTH WHILE DR. FREEMAN DISCUSSED PLACE OF NEWSPAPER IN EDUCATION

Dr. Harry W. Chase, president of the University of North Carolina, and Dr. Douglas Freeman, editor of the Richmond News Leader, were the chief speakers on the first day's program of the Southern Conference on Education. Dr. Chase presided and delivered the opening address of the conference at a dinner meeting at the Carolina Inn Thursday at noon. Dr. Freeman spoke at the session Thursday night.

"The progress of science and industry is casting the South into a new mold, and if this transition period is to be bridged successfully the educational institutions of this section must train young men and women to live in a world very different in many and fundamental ways from that of their forefathers," Dr. Chase declared in his address.

The speaker pointed out peculiar problems of the South in reference to the race question, the problem of agriculture, the peculiar features which distinguish Southern industry, its lack of concentration in a few great centers with city slums, its strong traditions and philosophy toward labor. He said
