"All-of-a-Sudden Peggy" to be Presented Saturday Night

Interesting Cast of Characters Take
Part in Astro Society Play

GRADY AND HARTNESS TAKE LEADING ROLES

"All-of-a-Sudden-Peggy" to be given by the Astrotekton Literary Society Saturday night, December 8, promises to be one of the best amateur performances ever given at Meredith College. When you learn of the characters which compose the cast of this play, you will surely have to see "All-of-a-Sudden-Peggy."

Edith Rowe Grady, yes mischievous "Rhody" who is always just the same "Rhody" is still herself as the star player, Peggy, and her ardent lover is none other than Lois Hartness. Lois is indeed a sheik as we shall see her.

Those who saw Lily Varser in the stunt will come back to see her at her best in this performance. Miriam

Daughtry has many capabilities, some of which have never been realized until they are displayed through the action of her part. And did you know that Margaret Trotman has lately been connected with the "Society of the Intellectuals?" Come and find out just how all of this has been arranged. After seeing Blanche Obenshain, broken-hearted lovers, and all who are in trouble of any kind will find great comfort in pouring out their sorrows to her, and will be benefitted by her good advice. But talking of "snooties," you should see Margaret Barfoot. This part is carried out to such perfection until a doubt arises whether

Opportunity to Travel Given Meredith Girls

EUROPEAN AND AMERICAN
TOURS GREATLY URGED

SPIRIT OF EXPLORATION STILL PREVAILS

"Land ho!" was the cry that went up from Columbus and his companions when they first sighted the new world. Those were days of great adventure and discovery. The spirit of exploration seemed to pervade the minds of all the people. And, if you'll glance at our bulletin boards some time, you'll see that that same spirit still prevails. Why, there are letters coming in to Meredith students on every mail urging them to travel, travel, travel. If you haven't yet received a personal letter from Roy Z. Thomas, you've missed almost a whole trip

There will be candy and all good things to eat and the Rotunda will be full of pretty things to sell, so everybody come and patronize the Y. W. A. Bazaar. The money raised will go as the Y. W. A. The students, faculty and alumnae of Meredith are greatly bereaved in the loss of their former classmate and friend, Constance Ellis. Constance was a faithful member of the class of '30, and at the end of the School term last year was elected class treasurer. All of her friends were sorry, yet glad when she had the opportunity to attend the University of North Carolina this year.

Sorry that she must needs leave Meredith, but glad that the opportunity of study at the University was hers. The news of her illness and death came as a shock to all who knew Constance, and we extend our heartiest sympathy to her family.

Basket Ball Season Opens December 11

JUNIORS AND FRESHMEN
FIRST TEAMS TO CLASH

CUP TO BE AWARDED BEFORE
CHRISTMAS

The Basketball season is in full swing. The four teams have been practicing for several weeks and are now getting the finishing touches for the final try-outs. The games are to be played next week. The first one is to be between the Juniors and Freshmen Tuesday, December 11, at 4:30. The other games will follow during the week. The winner of the cup will be decided before Christmas.

The game Tuesday—Juniors vs. Freshmen—is a most important one. It promises to be a good game and a close one. Of course the teams haven't been picked, but the officials are doing their best to pick out the right ones in the remaining practices.

The captain of the Junior team is Margaret Peele, the manager, Blanche Obenshain. Blanche is a new member of the team, but a promising one. She is one of the best forwards. Watch her shoot goals! "Lib" Apple, "Dot" Rowland, Ruth Presler, Margaret Craig, and Marion Harris are A-1 forwards. They can roll them in! As guards, the Juniors have Mary Morgan, "Lib" James, Glennie Paul, Jessie Raeford, Margaret Peele and Victoria Boney. All of these played last year except Jessie, so it is not necessary to tell you of their ability. You remember their past record. They still uphold it with improvement. Jessie is a grand guard.

Watch the Freshmen team! The captain is "Lib" Thornton; the manager, Lottie Belle Myers. You should see Lottie Belle, "Lib," and "Joe" Higdon shoot goals. Team work! If, you've never seen it, you'll see it when you see the Freshmen play—"Joe" Higdon is a real athlete. "Dot" Lindsey, as guard, is as quick as lightning. Roxie Collie, Mabel Gordon, Velma Webb, Ila Person and Ganelle Hinton are all excellent Thanksgiving Service Held by B. Y. P. U.

DR. JACK ELLIS BRINGS
THANKSGIVING MESSAGE

Thursday morning November 29 at 8:45 a Thanksgiving service in charge of the B. S. U. was held for students and teachers in the Chapel. Ruth Truesdell was in charge of the program. The Devotional was conducted by Lucy Bennett, who showed that the real Thanksgiving must consist of two parts—thanks and giving. Dr. Brewer offered the prayer of Thanksgiving. Josephine Lyles sang "Give Praise and Thanks." Dr. Ellis of Pullen Memorial Church was the speaker of the morning. He emphasized the fact that Thanksgiving must be thanksgiving, showing the things for which hearts should be thankful and giving practical suggestions for living to prove that thankfulness.
