Editorial

When the sound of dead dreary voices comes stealing forth from the direction of our Chapel we have a feeling of fear and trembling; what does the sad song portend? Is something dreadful going to happen? No! It is only us, singing our Alma Mater.

COOPERATION AND CONFLICT

It is instinctive with the majority of people to cooperate, although there are some of us who will always be ready to differ with and oppose the rest of us. A certain amount of conflict is a good thing because it stimulates us to do our best. On the other hand too much conflict is destructive and ruinous to progress. It is only through cooperation that progress is made.

OUR ALUMNAE FRIENDS

If your eye should happen to glance over the Alumnae Column of THE TWIG this week you will see there an unheard of thing. No, do not "take a peck" now because we will tell you here what we want you to know. THE TWIG is hardly making expenses, although we have as many ads as the size of the paper will permit. Because of this we are asking the Alumnae to contribute and consequently we are asking you to use your influence over your Alumnae kin and friends. If you have a sister or friend who is receiving THE TWIG as an Alumna, be sure to speak a good word for us!

Warm Coats—Proof
Against Winter's Winds

Crisp days for motoring
—for walking—for general enjoyment of the great outdoors. Calling for a coat that will keep you warm—but that will be comfortable throughout a long hike. For this we offer coats of fine woolens — imported and domestic — whose lightness belies their warmth —and whose smartness is paramount. With fur collars and cuffs, or plain— of such fine quality that they will serve you many seasons—at but everyday prices.
