

ALUMNAE COLUMN

OFFICERS

President: Bertha L. Carroll, '13, Chowan College, Murfreesboro, N. C.
 Vice President: Mrs. Eugene I. Olive, '13, Chapel Hill, N. C.
 Recording Secretary: Ruby Davis, '27, Meredith College, Raleigh, N. C.
 Commencement Speaker: Mary O'Kelly, '26, 521 E. Jones St., Raleigh, N. C.
 Alternate Speaker: Laura Cox, '04, Kenansville, N. C.
 Alumnae Secretary: Mae Grimmer, '14, Meredith College, Raleigh, N. C.

TO THE ALUMNAE:

I wish to apologize to the Alumnae Association for a mistake which I made, in a note that I wrote the Association in a past issue of THE TWIG. I said that THE TWIG was sending our Alumnae their issues of our paper, but that is a mistake because the college is sending them. I am sorry that I made that mistake.

In behalf of the Staff I wish to thank those members of the Association, who have sent us the subscription price of $2.50 or a contribution. On account of a new ruling of The Merchants Association of Raleigh it has been exceedingly difficult to finance THE TWIG this year.

We would appreciate very much any further contributions which the Alumnae might like to send us. Although the College is sending the Alumnae THE TWIG, our paper is not getting the benefit of our Alumnae subscription list, which many college papers have the advantage of.

THE EDITOR.

REUNION CLASSES—TAKE NOTICE!

Those of you who have read the Handbook know that the reunion classes for this year are '04, '05, '06, '19, '22, '23, '24, '25, and '27. Of course we are counting on each of you to be on hand for the big celebration—Commencement. Look down this column and read the admonitions from five Class Secretaries.

CLASS OF '04

Greetings to the Girls of '04:

Although scattered far and wide, I'm sure each heart often turns to the "good old days" spent in our Alma Mater's halls. Come back this commencement for our twenty-fifth reunion and see the beautiful new home she now has. You'll be proud of it. Let us be sure to keep the "home fires burning" and do all we can to help her grow. Won't you do your part in putting 1904 on the alumnae treasurer's honor roll this commencement by sending in your $2 dues before May? "Do it now."

With love to each one,

VIRGINIA EDGERTON SIMMS.

CLASS OF '22

To the Class of '22:

From our Handbook you have probably found this is our reunion year. Begin making your plans now to come to commencement. With five members of our class already in Raleigh, we should not have any trouble getting the other twenty-six to come. Let's make an earnest effort to appear with full ranks.

ANN ELIZA BREWER.

CLASS OF '23

Dear Class of '23:

Last year our reunion was not "official," so we are going to have it again this year with the other reunion classes. Sometime soon you will get a note reminding you of that fact—with an R. S. V. P. attached. There will be a notice of alumnae dues, too! Let me urge you to send your check for

$2 to Miss Grimmer today; and write me that you are coming to commencement whatever else you do!

LILLIAN HORTON AMMONS.

CLASS OF '24

To the Class of '24:

Three cheers for commencement of 1929—the long-looked for year! Since none of the famous fifty-seven are willing that "auld acquaintance be forgot," we are counting the days until May. Wherever you are, whatever you're doing, make your plans for Meredith Commencement this spring.

Belated best wishes for the New Year from

Your secretaries,
 JOYNER BEAMAN.
 SUSIE HERRING JEFFERIES.

CLASS OF '27

Dear Class of 1927:

I know that you feel that "Dese bones gonna rise again" when Commencement time comes around. I'm counting on seeing every one of you at Meredith then—an ideal time to hear of the rich and rare experiences of the girls you used to know. Make your plans to come right now!

MARY AYSOUE, Secretary.

NEWS ITEMS

In a recent issue of THE TWIG a list of missionaries was given, in which the following names should have appeared:

Mrs. L. B. Olive (Nell Blake Fowler, '17), Chinkiang, China, and Marjorie Spence, '20, Santiago, Chile. The former, after a furlough, returned to China last November; the latter is serving her fourth year in Chile.

Mrs. J. D. Carroll (Mary Pruetto, '16), and little daughter, Dorothy, of Charlotte, were welcome visitors at the college Friday afternoon, March 1.

Lois Jacobs, '28, and Frances Fulghum, ex-'30, spent the week-end of February 23 with friends at the college.

Lina Gough, '14, of Lumberton, was the week-end guest of Miss Mae Grimmer.

Janie Parker, ex-'14, who is associated with Mrs. J. W. Ferrell's school of music, Raleigh, was a guest at the college Sunday.

The following spent last week-end here: Lucile Martin, ex-'29, Madaline Moore, '28, Mildred Allen, '28, Mary Willis, '28, and Jessie Brooks, '26.

We are glad to report that Mrs. J. F. Oliver (Laviece Chambliss, '15), who is at Rex Hospital, Raleigh, is improving satisfactorily after an operation.

We extend deepest sympathy:

To Mrs. J. C. Brantley (Mattie Castlebury), in the death of her brother, Dr. F. D. Castlebury, on February 20, Raleigh.

To Leonita Denmark, '11, in the death of her mother, Mrs. J. W. Denmark, on February 25, Raleigh.

GRANDCHILDREN'S SMART SAYINGS

The second grade was studying "The Wing" by R. L. Stevenson. A child reading:

"I saw you toss the kites on high
 And blow the birds about the sky;
 And all around I heard you pass,
 Like ladies' skirts across the grass."

The Teacher: Children there is one part that would be different today.

Walter McKinnon (aged six): I know, the grass wouldn't be tall enough now!

EMILY HUNTLEY MCKINNON, '11.
