OUR LAST EDITION

Since it is the custom for the new staff to go into office for the last six weeks of school, this is, perhaps, the last issue of THE TWIG our staff will publish.

The present staff has enjoyed its journalistic career. Some of the finest girls in school are on our staff and they have worked together in a wonderful way. Coöperation has been the keynote of our labors together. Whenever a member of THE TWIG Staff was asked to serve, she did, willingly, efficiently, and splendidly.

We feel that we cannot do better than offer you a B. S. U. Edition as our final contribution. Through the efforts of Miss Madaline Elliott and Ruth Truesdell, as well as others of the staff, we hope we are giving you an interesting paper, which is truly representative of Meredith.

The new staff is very fortunate in being composed of an unusually talented and capable group of girls. We are expecting big things from them next year and we know that they are going to do the best "Twigging" which has ever been done. We wish them the best luck and success!

THE N. C. COLLEGIATE PRESS ASSOCIATION

The N. C. Collegiate Press Association was organized in the interest of the publications of the colleges of N. C. Its purpose is to promote better journalism, and in order to do so the members of the association must be brought together in order to talk over their problems.

Those of us who have attended the meetings of the Press Association feel that we have really gained and grown from them. When we go to a Press Association gathering, we usually meet people who are worth knowing. Through them we find out what others think about certain aspects of journalistic work. It helps a lot to know that you are not the only one who is struggling with various problems.

NEWS ITEMS

The State Teachers' meeting, which recently met in Raleigh, was responsible for bringing "home" (Meredith) a great many of our alumnae. We were glad to welcome them and hope they will come again soon—commencement. Among those who stayed at the college either all or a part of the time were: Eula Hodges and Annie Belle Noel of High Point; Pauline Patton of Mars Hill; Lois Johnson of Thomasville; Ella Thompson of E. C. T. C.; Clara Newton of Bladenboro; Lena Winberry of Richlands; Beulah Stroud of Kinston; Annie V. Horner of Orrum; Estelle Wilkins of Bahama, Elma and Thelma Fleetwood of Jackson; Margaret Eagles of China Grove; Moella Aske of Windsor; and Elizabeth Larkens of Wilmington.

Mary Jane Carroll, who is teaching in Elizabeth City and Madge Daniels, who is teaching in Greenville, visited the college March 22.

We were glad to see Lillian Draughan, '10, of Dunn, N. C., who called on us the latter part of March.

Carmen Rogers, '18, of Coker College, paid us a brief visit on March 28.

Dorothy Turlington, '28, spent March 18 and 19 with Miss Virginia Branch, of the music department.

Martha McCullen, ex-'28, spent the week-end of March 16 here with her sister, Nell McCullen, '29.

Mabel Oldham, '24, of Wendell, N. C., spent the past week-end at the college with her sister, Katherine Oldham.

Change of address—Mary McCullers, '12, is now residing at the Southmoor Hotel, Chicago, Ill., instead of the Broadview Hotel.

Change of address—Mrs. J. F. Oliver (Laviece Chambliss, '15) is now living in Mount Olive, N. C., having moved from Raleigh several weeks ago.

Birth—Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Covington (Bess Gwynn-ex) of Danville, Va., a son, John A. Covington, Jr., on March 22.

Marriage—Margaret Garvey, '17, and Mr. D. Lewis Campbell were married December 24, 1928. They now live in Birmingham, Ala. P. O. Box 2425.

ON OUR CAMPUS

ANNE SIMMS

On our campus is a union
That is full of life and fun,
Always ready, ever willing
When there's work that must be done.

Ever cheerful are its leaders,
Seekers of the sacred guest,
Watching, hoping, working, praying,
Striving towards that which is best.

Organized, they work together
Bound by ties of holy love.
Tithers of their hours, they find
Time to think of things above.

Such a union gives us courage,
Give us lots of pleasure too.
Surely, we are very happy
To have such a B. S. U.

MEREDITH GIRLS TO GIVE COMEDY

"Little Theatre" Group Will Present
Play Next Saturday Night

"She Stoops to Conquer," by Oliver Goldsmith will be presented Saturday night at 8:30 o'clock, April 13 by the "Little Theatre" of Meredith College. Miss Lois Hartness, of Raleigh, will take the leading man's role as "Charles Marlow" and Miss Gwyn Lenoir, of Lenoir will take the leading woman's role as "Miss Hardcastle."

This classic comedy of manners gives an accurate picture of the life of the eighteenth century, and its beautiful costumes add much to its attractiveness. The plot is concerned with a young man who is so afraid of ladies that he dares not even look at the lady whom his father has selected for his wife, when they first meet, yet he is gay and bold enough with the barmaids. How the girl meets the situation and solves it, by stooping to conquer his shyness and his affections as well, makes an entertaining and clever plot, which is enhanced by the sparkling dialogue.

This is the second large production of the "Little Theatre," which was organized last year at Meredith. A bill of three one-act plays was presented last Spring. The club is divided into three groups: play, reading, staging, costuming, and the members of these groups select, stage and costume the plays which the "Little Theatre" produces.

Preparations for May Day are in Full Swing

Sarah Cook has Been Elected Queen of the Annual Festival

Anyone who visited one of the gym classes almost any day now would see various dances and drills being practiced over and over. And Meredith girls know that this means that May Day is not very far off. Everyone is looking forward to this occasion this year for it promises to be a big success under Miss Royster's skillful management. Sarah Cook is to be the May Queen, and a most charming one too. Her attendants from the freshman class will be Josephine Lyles and Eleanor Tyson; from the sophomore class, Irene Thomas and Mary Barber; from the junior class, Margaret Craig and Margaret Trotman, and from the senior class Frances Barnhill and Hesta Kitchin. According to present arrangements, May Day will be held May 7.
