SOPHOMORES ENJOY EARLY MORNING FEAST

Last week all Sophomores eagerly searched through the student mail box to get their "blackhand" which was "An Odd Invitation" to the breakfast which the Seniors were giving them Friday, April 19, at $7: 15$ each Sophomore was welcomed into the grove by her big sister. It was a cheering scene to behold-the sun shining through the trees on the girls in their gaily colored dresses.The breakfast served consisted of oranges, wienies, bacon, rolls, potato chips, and coffee. Soon were heard the cheers and songs of both classes, each toasting the other. As the Seniors sang "These Bones Gonna Rise Again," each little sister was given a basket of candied chicken bones. Each Sophomore left fully convinced that their big sister class was certainly the best.

OFFICERS FOR 1930

INSTALLED BEFORE

LARGE AUDIENCE

Sunday night, April 21 in the college auditorium one of the most impressive services of the college year was held, when the officers which have been elected by the Student Body to lead the religious organizations on the campus for the next year were formally installed in office. A large crowd consisting of many town people and the Y. M. C. A. Cabinet from State College witnessed this ceremony. It was at twilight and candle light furnisher a soft glow for the scene. The stage was decorated with dog-wood, green vines with white candelabra. During an organ prelude played pifly the chief marshal led the circle aders of the Y. W. A. Presidents classes and all the officers of the unit organizgations to their seats in the front of the auditorium. They were all dressled in white. Then Rev. E. Gibson Dlavis of the Tabernacle Baptist Chureih, Raleigh, pronounced the invocation, after which the whole audience joined in singing "All Hail The Power of Jesus' Name."
The general officers of the B. S. U. and the general officers of the unit organizations of the $B$.S. U. marched in wearing white, the ald officers in wearing white, the old officers coming down one aisle carrying lighted candles, the new officers loming down an opposite aisle carry'ing their candles unlighted. They took their places on the stage. After a Scripture reading by Dr. Chas. E. Brewer and a prayer by Dr. J. B. Turner of the HayesBarton Baptist Church, Miss Madaline

Greensboro College, Greensboro, N. C. proved to be a most delightful hostess to the seventeenth semi-annual North Carolina Collegiate Press Asso which met April 18, 19, and 20.
The guests were honored with a tea given by the Students Association on Thursday afternoon. Thursday night the members of the association were guests at a banquet given at the King Cotton Hotel. At this occasion Mr of the High Point Schools was the chief speaker.
On Friday morning representatives from the college publications of the state met for the first regular business session at Odell Memorial Hall. Dr. Turrentine, president of Greensboro College, made the official welcome address. His subject was, "Religion, Education and Patriotism." After this address reports from all the publications were made. At 10:00 o'clock Dean Addison Hibbard of the University of North Carolina spoke to the assembled group on the subject of "Criticism on the College Campus." In this address he plead for the education of critics in order that there might

A dangerous precedent you establish when you ask an alumna of twenty five years' standing to write for The Twig since that much perspective is apt to foster loquacity. Such a state I am prone to assume when I glance back upon the happy days spent at Meredith.
I had the opportunity of entering the Baptist Female University the flrst year her doors were opened for admission, and many are the interesting as well as pleasing experiences $I$ recall in connection therewith. We were told that first year that all the students, teachers, janitors, maids and cooks were all Baptists with the exception of myself and one other Methodist. The Baptists were chaperoned in groups to Sunday School and Church, whereas my Methodist comrade and I were al. lowed the rare privilege of attending Church unchaperoned. During the

flature program presented IN AUDITORIUM AFTER DINNER; gala occasion

Thursday evening, April 25 at 6:45, about eight gundred, Rotarlans asr sembled at Meredith College for their Ladies Night Dinner. This was another one of the delightful evenings when Meredith has been given the pleasure to assist in the entertainment of visitors from all over the State. The college dining hall was gaily decorated with Rotary flags and banners, and Mr . George Butler of Clinton, N. C., who is president of the fifty-seventh district, presided. There were several informal entertalnments given during the course of the dinner, and at the close of it, the Rotarians and their wives assembled in the college audi torium where a feature program was presented. The auditorium, too, was gay with streamers and flags of many colors.
The Rotary Club is one of the largest organizations of its kind in the world. It is an international club and is proud of having chapters in almos very important city on the globe. In the last few years, especially, the Ro tarians have greatly increased in numin last July, there were 2,932 clubs in 44 countries, and on the first of Febru ary, 1929, there were 3,047 clubs in 45

Seniors Honored With Banquet by Dr. andMrs. Brewer

CLASS OF '29 ENJOYS
ANNUAL AFFAIR GIVEN BY PRESIDENT AND WIFE
Last Friday evening at 6:00 o'clock almost eighty smiling Seniors were graciously met in the parlors by Dr. and Mrs. Brewer. The time will suggest the occasion. It was the annual Senior banquet given by our president and his wife. Others who contributed to the pleasure of the evening were Misses Ellen and Anne Eliza Brewer day. After a few minutes of pleasant waiting, the group, led by its host and hostess, marched two abreast through the court to the dining hall.
The large table was beautifully decorated with flowers and well laden with food. The dainty place cards, bearing words appropriate for each Senior, will no doubt be preserved in memory books for long years to come. Soon the group was seated and the conversation and eating began. The lelightful menu consisted of fruit cocktail, chicken, potatoes, carrots muffins, salad, ollves, tea and straw berry short-cake.
When every one had finished, the

Attend Meeting of Student Government Association  SOPHIE NEWCOMBE IS HOSTESS TO GIRLS FROM MANY COLLEGES

Frances Barnhill and Margaret Craig have just returned from the Fourteenth Annual Meeting of the Southern Intercollegiate Association of Student Government, which was held at Sophie Newcombe College in New Orleans, La.
There were delegates from all of the important girls' colleges of the southern states. These girls had gathered together for the purpose of discussing student problems and how to remedy them. Several eminent speakers gave some very interesting talks on such topics as "The Realms of Student Government," "Executive Problems," and "Public Opinion." These were followed by Open Forum in which any girl might ask any question she chose. Separate discussion groups were also held for the discussion of minor problems.

The Newcombe girls proved to be most charming hostesses. When there were no meetings, the guests were entertained with teas, banquets, and sight seeing trips; Sophie Newcombe College and New Orleans furnished a delightful setting for the conference.

S. S. Class Has Backward Party

BACKWARD GAMES FURNISH ENTERTAINMENT AND REFRESHMENTS

SERVED IN RE-VERSE ORDER

The Second Mile Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church enjoyed an hour of fun Tuesday evening April 9, in the form of a backward party. Everything that was done during the evening was done in the re verse order from what it should be. Cach girl was met at the door with a arewell handshake and each one, catching the spirit of the party as sured the hostess that she had had a most pleasant evening. The entertain ment of the evening was in the form of various contests such as Mother Goose rhymes said in reverse order walking backward with peanuts on blade of a knife, and guessing titles of various advertisements which were turned up-side-down. The winner in the peanut contest was Miss Bonnie Lee Fox, and of the advertisement contest Miss Eunice Rushing.
In a few minutes after our arrival Misses M. Ferebee, Gladys Fverett, and Annie Marie Jackson with aprons worn in the back passed paper doilies nd plates. Of course we all expected efreshments such as ice cream or salad and tea when, behold, Black (Continued on page two)
