INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB HOLDS MEETING

The International Relations Club held its first regular meeting on Tuesday evening, October 3. After a brief business session, Mr. Riley, head of the Department of History and Economics at the college, talked on the "Strike Situation in the State." The talk was both interesting and informing. Mr. Riley discussed the various phases of the organization of business in society and causes for friction among them. He laid particular emphasis on the place of public opinion in labor disputes and the responsibility of each member of society, not merely laborites and capitalists, for seeing that no faction was given unfair advantage over the others.

hitch her wagon to this star of the college firmament—the Astrotekton Society.

The events of the past and the outlook for the future is such as to make every Astro proud. The standard of work as a literary society is ever climbing higher. Already numbers of its members have gone out over the State, doing credit to their Alma Mater because of having been among us and having worked with the motto, so dear to every Astrotekton: "He builds too low who builds beneath the stars."

B.S.U. NOTES

Friday, October 4, was set aside by southern Baptist college leaders as Student Relationship Day. As all our denominational schools of the south, Meredith observed Student Relationship Day. The purpose of the day was to impress upon college young people the necessity of uniting with a local church by coming under the watch-care or moving their church letter.

Chapel services Friday were held under the auspices of the B. S. U. Miss Elliott conducted the devotional; then Mrs. Charles E. Maddry, representing the churches of Raleigh, extended to each girl a cordial invitation to join the Raleigh churches. Attractive leaflets containing a list of reasons for church affiliation were distributed among the girls.

"Conquering the Campus With Christ" was the subject discussed at the first regular meeting of the Home Service Band Friday night, October 4.

The Scripture reading was taken from Luke 10: Two Kinds of Service. Grace Jolley had prepared an inspirational and helpful program. Vida Miller spoke on the importance of the mental side in conquering the campus for and with Christ. The moral phase was discussed by Charlotte Tedder, and the spiritual by Annette Donovan. Although the mental and moral are important, the spiritual outweighs them, for they are attributes of the spiritual.

Both old and new members gave brief synopses of their religious activities during the summer.

"That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God," was the theme of the meeting.

The Sunday evening vester service, October 6, was a preliminary meeting for the Y. W. A. Study Course week, starting October 7 and ending October 11. After the devotional, led by Miss Elliott, Miss Alva Lawrence, one of the faculty of the Y. W. A. Study School, introduced Miss Pearl Bourne, the speaker for the evening. Miss Bourne spoke on "Campus Geography." Her message was a plea for college girls to create a constant source of inspiration, to "lift up your eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh help."

This vesper service was a fitting start for an entire week of study and inspiration with the religious leaders selected.

The Y. W. A. Council has completed plans for the Study Course Week, October 7-11. The teachers are to be Miss Pearl Bourne, Miss Inabelle Coleman, and Miss Alva Lawrence. Miss Bourne will teach a book on Missions, Miss Coleman one on Soul-winning, and Miss Lawrence one on Stewardship. Classes are to be held from 6:45 to 7:45 each evening.

With the present enrollment of the B. Y. P. U. around the two hundred mark, the Pearl Johnson Union found that it had more than forty-five members. Division was necessary, so a new union whose spirit rivaled that of the older Pearl Johnson was formed. By unanimous vote it was named the Madaline Elliott Union, after Madaline Elliott, the student secretary here at Meredith.

The following officers were appointed:

- President—Orlon Bostic.
- Vice-President—Margaret Briggs.
- Secretary—Sarah Briggs.
- Treasurer—Rachael Marshburn.
- Bible Readers Leader—Mary Currin.
- Chorister—Annie McCanliss.
- Group Leaders—Ruth Wright, "Pat" Abernethy, Lelia Nolen.

OY, OY, OYE!
 One oyster met one oyster,
 And they were oysters two.
 Two oysters met two oysters,
 And they were oysters, too.
 Four oysters met a pint of milk,
 And they were oyster stew.

Tell me, said the girl flyer as she prepared to hop from the plane, is my parachute on straight?

Singer: And for Bonnie Annie Laurie I'd lay me down and die!
 Listener (rising): Is Miss Laurie in the audience?

Teacher: "What did Juliet say when she met Romeo in the balcony?"
 Pupil: "Couldn't you get seats in the orchestra?"

Freshie: Which end of the car must I get off?
 Conductor: Take your choice, lady; both ends stop!
