Who's Going to Win the Banner?

What class will have the highest percentage of active members this year?

The following figures reveal that 1914 is still head and shoulders ahead in this contest:

- 1914—52 per cent
- 1917—34 per cent
- 1907—29 per cent
- 1902—27 per cent
- 1921—23 per cent
- 1910—14 per cent

Photo Gallery

We've heard that some of the alumnae mothers are already getting snapshots of their families to have enlarged for the commencement exhibit. We hope many will do this so our gallery will be more interesting, bigger and better than last year's.

We extend deepest sympathy to Sarah Taylor, '21, and Mildred Taylor, '24, in the death of their mother, Mrs. J. Lloyd Taylor, on April 15, at Rutherfordton, N. C.

Durham Chapter Organized

A chapter of Meredith College Alumnae was organized Tuesday afternoon, April 15, at the home of Mrs. L. H. Barbour (Lucile Phillips, ex-'17) on Daciam street, Durham, when a number of former Meredith girls gathered to meet Mrs. Benjamin W. Parham, president of the General Alumnae Association, and Miss Mae Grimmer, Alumnae secretary.

Miss Grimmer spoke briefly on the need and work of local chapters and the assistance they can render their college. Then she presented Mrs. Parham, who made an interesting talk, pointing out that the alumnae still need the college as much as the college needs the alumnae.

The following officers were elected: Mrs. Chas. D. Faucette, president; Mrs. Frederick W. Isaacs, vice-president; Mrs. Clinton C. Cox, secretary-treasurer, and Miss Elizabeth Rogers, chairman of the program committee.

At the conclusion of the business session, Mrs. Barbour served dainty refreshments. Those present besides the hostess were: Mrs. Benjamin W. Parham (Kate Johnson), of Oxford; Miss Mae Grimmer, of Meredith College; Mrs. Charles D. Faucette (Elizabeth Kendrick), Mrs. Vance Massey (Addie Upchurch), Mrs. Clinton C. Cox (Johnnie Lou Davis), Elizabeth Rogers, Mrs. M. A. Ham (Louise Alderman), Mrs. Thos. W. Young (Nell Whitaker), Mrs. Carl P. Norris (Louise Wyatt), Mrs. J. M. Cheek (Maude Wall), Mrs. Frederick W. Isaacs (Inez M. C. Watkins), and Louise T. Watkins.

Wake County Chapter of Meredith Alumnae Hold Meeting

Mrs. M. A. Huggins, enthusiastic president of the Wake County Chapter of Meredith Alumnae, was hostess to the chapter at its regular meeting at her home on Mordecai Drive, Raleigh, Friday afternoon, April 25.

The social committee reported that a tea and golf tournament had been planned as an entertainment complimentary to the Meredith seniors for Tuesday afternoon, April 29. The chapter was also told of "hospitality week-end"—May 3-4—at which time Meredith students were inviting their high school junior and senior friends to be special guests of the college. All members having cars at their disposal were asked to bring them out to the college Saturday afternoon to help entertain these guests by taking them on a tour over the city.

Before disbanding refreshments consisting of ice-cream, cake and nuts were served.

Resolutions

The following resolutions were recommended by the undersigned committee as expressing the unanimous sentiment of the Wake County Chapter of the Meredith Alumnae Association:

Whereas it has pleased our Heavenly Father in His infinite wisdom to remove Mrs. Richard Tilman Vann, known and loved by a host of Meredith alumnae over the State as the wife of the revered former president of Meredith College; and

Whereas this chapter feels that it has lost a true and loyal friend, whose heart was kept young by the depth and sweetness of her sympathy, and who was genuinely interested in all that concerned Meredith:

Therefore, Be it resolved—

First, That while we have lost a highly esteemed friend, we are deeply grateful for what she has meant in the lives of Meredith students.

Second, That we hereby express to the family our heartfelt sympathy for them in their bereavement.

Third, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, a copy to THE TWIG, and a copy be spread upon the records of the chapter.

lems of modern youth, particularly the Honor Council as it is found in most colleges. The music for the banquet was through the courtesy of the N. C. C. P. A. The favors, which were little footstools for the ladies and two pairs of hose for the men, were given by the High Point Chamber of Commerce, Southern Chair Company, and Thomas Mills.

On Friday breakfast was served to the delegates at the George Washington Cafe through the courtesy of the Winston-Salem Sentinel and the Winston-Salem Journal.

At 10:30 the opening business session was held at the First M. P. Church. The secretary, Miss Eleanor Carrington of Meredith, read the minutes of the last meeting and called the roll by publications. The delegates responded with brief reports of their respective publications. Following this were the group discussions. The newspaper group was led by Holt McPherson, the annual group by C. M. Beck, and the magazine group by Miss E. Vera Idol. A group picture was taken in front of the church after the business meeting through the courtesy of Stephen's Studio.

At 12:30 p.m. the delegates were entertained at a lovely luncheon at Sedgfield Manor, given by Benson Printing Company. Transportation to Sedgfield was provided by the Piedmont Engraving Company. J. Clyde Pugh presided as toastmaster. Prof. T. C. Johnson of High Point College was the speaker of the occasion. The favors, which were small leather-back shopping lists and bill folders, were given by the Pilot Life Insurance Company.

At 2:30 a visit to the industrial plants and points of interest in the city was made possible through the courtesy of the High Point Chamber of Commerce.

At 4:30 p.m. a matinee party was given through the courtesy of Publix-Saenger at the Broadhurst Theater.

At 8 p.m. the Greensboro Daily News was host to a lovely dinner served in the banquet room of the Sheraton Hotel. There were no speakers, but the delegates were entertained with a clever Vitaphone act given by several students of H. P. C. The favors were carnations and leather notebooks.

Saturday at 9:30 breakfast was served at the Princess Cafe through the courtesy of Stephen's Studio.

At 10:30 the final business session was held at Roberts Hall, H. P. C. The officers of the association for 1930-31 were elected, as follows: President, Everett Couch of State; first vice-president, Betty Brow of N. C. C. W.; second vice-president, Clyde Pugh of H. P. C.; secretary, Evelyn Wright of E. C. T. C.; treasurer, Bob King of Davidson.

At 12:30 Edwards & Broughton Printing Company were hosts at a delicious luncheon at Elwood Hotel. Rev. T. A. Sykes of High Point spoke on "Journalism and Citizenship." The favors for the occasion were toy whistles for the men and toy mice for the ladies, and also lovely scrapbooks. The luncheon ended the convention.

High Point College left no detail unattended to for the comfort and enjoyment of the delegates, and the stay in High Point was enjoyable in every respect.

Meredith girls attending the conference were Misses Kitty Makepeace, Madeline May, Eleanor Covington, and Sarah Cummings.

First Deb: "He called me his pearl."

Second Deb: "Oh, yeah? He's trying to string you, I suppose."

Pretty Tourist (to irate farmer, whose pig she has just run over): "Sir, say no more about the affair. I shall do my best to replace the animal."

He: "Humph! You flatter yourself, Miss."

Teacher: "What is the meaning of 'A.D.,' Johnny?"

Johnny: "I don't know."

Teacher: "Oh, yes, you do. Just think, now. B.C. means Before Christ. Now, what does A.D. mean?"

Johnny (brightening): "After the devil."
