

THE TWIG

"Son's" Picture Presented At the Chapel Exercises

Fitting Tribute Paid To Faithful Service To Meredith By Mrs. Norwood

The chapel service Friday morning, May 2, was one which interested every person on Meredith campus; in fact, it would have been interesting to every girl who has ever been to Meredith. It was "Son's Day," and that made it a day of importance. The occasion was the presentation to the college of a portrait of Mrs. Norwood, painted by Miss Mary Tillery. Miss Ida Poteat planned the services and wrote to many former Meredith students and invited them to the service, some of whom came to pay their tribute to "Son."

Dr. R. T. Vann, former president of Meredith, was one of the principal speakers. He could not, he said, say what he wanted to about Mrs. Norwood. He recalled the faithful work she had done, how she had labored unceasingly for Meredith, and how

Wake Forest Glee Club Gives Concert May 5th

The Wake Forest Glee Club and Orchestra, appearing at Meredith on Monday evening, May 5, met with a very enthusiastic audience. The Glee Club sang perhaps best of all their numbers Schumann's "The Two Grenadiers." The quartet amused the audience with the singing of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup"—"allays all pain," "cures the freshmen." The "Intermezzo" from "Cavalleria Rusticana" was one of the best numbers rendered by the orchestra.

The Music Department of Meredith, which sponsored the concert, entertained with an informal reception in the college parlors immediately afterward.

The program was as follows: Where'er You Walk (Handel)—Glee Club.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup; Drink To Me Only—Quartet: Messrs. J. K. Blackburn, F. U. Fletcher, S. W. Hughes, E. T. Harrell.

Many Guests Come for Hospitality Week-End

Hospitality Week-end, May 3 and 4, was a great success. Approximately sixty high school senior girls from various parts of the State accepted the invitations which had been extended by Meredith students. The week-end seemed to be a pleasure to both guests and hostesses.

An interesting round of entertainment had been arranged by the hospitality committee, of which Miss Mae Grimmer, Alumnae Secretary, was chairman. The track meet Saturday afternoon, which was held on the athletic field and in which all four classes participated, started the week-end's program. Immediately following it Meredith alumnae and other friends of the college took the visitors on a tour around the city.

At 6 o'clock Saturday evening the visitors and the Meredith granddaughters, daughters of Meredith alumnae, were honor guests at a formal dinner. The Meredith granddaughters sang a song to the visitors; then the whole student body joined in singing Meredith songs and giving cheers for the visitors and for Alma Mater.

Mrs. McKimmon Talks In Meredith Auditorium

The second of the series of vocational lectures was given in Chapel on Wednesday morning, April 30, by Mrs. Jane S. McKimmon. Her talk was about home demonstration work. Her enthusiasm and evident love of the work were the strongest arguments she could have used to impress the girls with the good points of that kind of work.

One of the first points Mrs. McKimmon emphasized was the fact that it takes hard work and a great deal of self-sacrifice to do anything well, but especially to be a good home demonstration agent. She told about the kind of work it is and the many things a woman must be and know to be able to do it. A woman must be at least 27 years of age before she can have had the experience necessary to make her able to cope with the circumstances that might arise in her work. She must have a good education, with special emphasis on Home Economics—at least two years are required. She must have a practical knowledge of many things besides what is included in her work. She must know enough psychology to be able to approach people in the right way and give their suggestions that will be accepted and used. She must be able to speak

FIFTH ANNUAL MAY-DAY IS HELD AT MEREDITH

Miss Glennie Paul Is Crowned Queen of the May At May Day Fete

With Glennie Paul, senior class president, as this year's queen, Meredith observed its fifth May Day on Tuesday, May 6, at 4:45 in the grove.

May Day is an annual presentation of the Physical Education Department, of which Miss Royster is director. The festival begins with a grand entry and general procession of all dancers and attendants. The two heralds, Marguerite Mason and Margaret Craig, led this. The dancers followed and formed an aisle through which the attendants and queen passed. The two attendants, in order as they appeared from each class, were: Mary Price and Elizabeth Price, freshmen; Mary Talton and Gaynelle Hinton, sophomores; Ruth Phillips and Louise Mumford, juniors; Blanche Obenshain and Margaret Whittemore, seniors. The maid of honor, Edith Buchanan, came next, followed by Eleanor Lamm, crown bearer. The procession ended with the queen and her train bearer, Margaret Ann Cooper. Ruth Langford was the jester and cut caps as jesters do, following the procession as she chose.

Club of Women Voters Holds Meeting Here

The Meredith College League of Women Voters held its first meeting Tuesday evening, April 28. The main feature of the program was a most interesting and enlightening talk by Miss Elsie G. Riddick, who is the president of the North Carolina League of Women Voters. Miss Riddick explained the program of work adopted by the League for North Carolina. The emphasis was placed on the welfare of the working child in this State. The goals set are:

First, a stright eight-hour day, six-day forty-eight-hour week for children under sixteen.

Second, a sixth-grade education before a child under sixteen may stop school to work.

Third, prohibition of children under sixteen from a specified list of dangerous employments, such as cleaning machinery in motion, working around exposed electric wires, running elevators, etc.

Miss Riddick told how these goals may be attained and the part each member of the League can play in the support and interest of child welfare in her own community. After her talk Miss Riddick answered questions asked by the girls and described the method of voting by the Australian ballot.

The Field Day Victory Is Won By Senior Class

Successful Play Given By Little Theater Club

On Saturday night, May 3, the Little Theater Dramatic Club presented their annual play. The play this year was a celebrated one of Oscar Wilde's called "Lady Windermere's Fan." This play is an interesting tragi-comedy concerning a sophisticated set of members of London society.

Lady Windermere becomes exceedingly jealous of Mrs. Erlynne, to whom Lord Windermere has been giving large sums of money. Mrs. Erlynne is really the mother of Lady Windermere, whose father she had left when her daughter was a mere infant. Lady Windermere never finds out who Mrs. Erlynne really is, but she and her husband are reconciled through the clever planning of Mrs. Erlynne, to whom Lay Windermere becomes very much attached.

Seniors Entertained By Little Sister Class

At 5 o'clock on Friday afternoon, May 2, the sophomores entertained their sister class with an informal party in the grove. The seniors were met by a group of their little sisters, singing a song of welcome, and were taken by their little sisters to where chairs were arranged in a semi-circle about an impromptu stage, back of which was a large numeral, '30, of flowers and green vines.

Mary Lucile Broughton and Ruth Winslow sang several popular songs, which furnished much pleasure to the group. Then about 14 sophomores came upon the scene, each of whom represented some particular senior whom they took off as far as possible in dress and actions. The conversations between them were very characteristic of the seniors whom they represented, and afforded much amusement.

Sophomores wearing white and green served the supper, during which the 14 sophomores returned, this time representing the seniors ten years hence. Their conversation took the form of prophecies, which were naturally of much interest to the seniors concerned.

At the close of the program a chorus of sophomores dressed in sport suits sang a song of welcome to the seniors, which they followed by an attractive chorus dance. Leaving the stage for a moment, they returned carrying corsages which they distributed among the seniors, as tokens of their love for the sister class.

The party broke up with enthusiastic songs and cheers from both sophomores and seniors.

Freshman Class Follows With Close Score, Capturing Second Place

On Saturday, May 3, at 2 p.m., the annual track meet took place on the athletic field. It was an exciting race from start to finish. From the time the opening whistle signaled for the 50-yard dash to the final running broad jump there was the keenest kind of competition. Each class put up a good fight, but the seniors captured the meet with 30 points. The freshmen ran them a close second with 27½ points; sophomores third with 22½ points, and juniors last with 22 points. In individual honors Elizabeth Ayscue, junior, won first place with 18 points, and Virginia Green, freshman, came second with 17 points. Roxie Collie, sophomore, and Jessie Raiford, senior, tied for third place with 15 points each.

At the close of the meet Miss Anderson awarded stars to E. Ayscue and J. Raiford, and letters to V. Green and R. Collie.

The order of events was as follows:

50-yard dash: Ayscue, first; V. Green, second; E. Thornton, third; J. Raiford, fourth. Time, 8½ seconds.

Baseball throw: Collie, first; Abernethy, second; Raiford, third; Hough, fourth. Distance, 162 feet 11 inches.

Excellent Recital Is Given By Dr. Poteat

One of the most splendid and enjoyable concerts given at Meredith College under the auspices of the music faculty of the college was the organ recital given by Dr. Hubert M. Poteat, of Wake Forest, Sunday, May 4, at 5 o'clock.

Since he was requested to play some orchestral transcriptions, Dr. Poteat gave an entire program of them, forming a beautifully balanced recital.

Dr. Poteat showed great mastery of expression and skill in each selection and the audience was most enthusiastic and appreciative.

The program consisted of the following numbers: "Overture to Rienzi," Wagner; "In the Morning," Grieg; "Marche Slave," Tschaiakowsky; "Ase's Death," Grieg; "Les Preludes," Liszt; "Andante Cantabile," Tschaiakowsky; "Entrance of the Gods into Valhalla," Wagner; "Largo" from "New World Symphony," Dvorak.
