

STAR PLAYERS CHOSEN FOR VARSITY SQUAD

Frosh Have Four Represent- atives on Varsity Team

The varsity basketball team was selected Monday, February 16, following the championship game Thursday, February 12.

Martha Davis, Virginia Garnett and Virginia Green were selected as guards while Alice Stratton, Katherine Davis and Elmer Currin were selected as forwards. Martha and Katherine Davis and Alice Stratton will receive stars, as they were given letters in hockey.

The Freshmen are represented by four on the varsity while the Sophomores and Juniors have one each on the squad.

Stratton, the left-handed forward of the Freshman team, made 48 of the 89 points, which was the total score for the season. She is an excellent player, moving about quickly and smoothly with her eyes always on the ball.

Katherine Davis of the Freshman team was a good all 'round player. She is able to take up any position and hold it with force. Her good shooting proved quite an asset to the Freshman team.

Virginia Garnett was all over the court. She was noticeable for her long balance passes. Even though she got rather excited and inquired about the score frequently she proved to be a steady player.

Martha Davis, manager of the Freshman team, intercepted

Honor Society Revises Group's Constitution

Revision of the constitution was the chief feature of the semi-annual meeting of the Kappa Nu Sigma Honor Society on Friday, February 13. Two new offices were created: one, faculty; one, student. One faculty adviser shall be correspondent in working for the Phi Beta Kappa, and general advisership shall be the duty of the other faculty member. The office of press reporter is that created for the student membership. This will go into effect with the election of officers for next year. The basis for membership is to be scholarship only, and leadership and person-

Two Meredith Girls Are Elected Sponsors

Margaret Briggs, popular Sophomore Class president, has recently been unanimously named sponsor of the Sophomore Class at Wake Forest. Margaret is a reporter on THE TWIG staff, Phi marshal, and well known Meredith student.

Elizabeth Stevens, one of the most popular members of the Junior Class, has been made sponsor of the Kappa Phi Kappa fraternity at Wake Forest. Elizabeth has taken a leading part in student activities on the campus; and the offices which she holds and the many friends which are hers attest her popularity.

Class Spirit Shown In Basketball Games

The Annual Basketball Tournament of the College took place in the gymnasium the first four evenings of last week, February 9-12.

The opening game of the season was fought between the Freshmen and Sophomores with a result that the Freshmen won 27-12. Stratton of the Fresh-

FRESHMAN TEAM WINS BASKETBALL TOURNEY

It seems that the Freshmen must have a jinx on the other classes. They won the championship in Hockey, came second in stunt night, and at the last game of the basketball season Thursday evening, February 12, were made basketball champions by their score of 30-8 over the Sophomores.

Stratton was again high scorer for the Freshmen with 17 points to her credit. Sawyer and Harris divided the score for the Sophomores. This was a fighting game even though the score sounds as if the Sophomores were completely swamped. The guarding was particularly good in this game. Even though the Sophs did their best they could not cope with the excellent teamwork of the Freshmen.

The line-up was as follows:

Freshmen	Sophomores
Stratton	Abernethy
Forward

REVIVAL SERVICES HELD BY DR. ALFRED PORTER

A most enthusiastic and successful revival, conducted by Dr. Alfred Porter, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Charlottesville, Virginia, was held at Meredith College from February 16 to February 20.

Dr. Porter delivered a series of inspirational messages, at the night services, on "The Glory of the Church," "The Glory of Youth," "The Glory of Personality," "The Glory of Marriage," and last, "The Glory of Religion."

The morning services were held at the regular chapel period and at night the services began at 6:45 o'clock.

We were indeed glad to have Dr. Porter hold our meeting again this year as all who heard him last year were greatly impressed with his splendid messages.

J. M. Broughton Speaks On Baptist Emergency

Speaking in behalf of the emergency campaign to raise $75,000 for the Baptist State Convention in order to meet a note, Mr. J. M. Broughton, prominent Raleigh lawyer and Baptist, made a talk at the chapel exercises on Wednesday, February 11, to the student body, faculty, and all employees on the college payroll. He stated that "all North Carolina Baptists are looking to Meredith for its answer in this emergency." He referred to the meeting at Wake Forest for the same purpose and said that the State Convention is "worth a million dollars but hasn't a cent," which is, naturally, a serious and grave matter. The question of saving the colleges and other Baptist institutions is, of course, important, but the greater issue is that of preserving the integrity of the denomination which is far more important than the loss of college

Sympathy to Margaret Wells

The faculty and student body of Meredith College extend their deepest sympathy to Margaret Wells on the death of her mother.

New B-Hive Manager

A new B-Hive manager has recently been selected; because of Pearl Hodge's illness the choice was made in order that someone might be responsible for the management of the B-Hive other than the committee. Elma Currin and Eleanor Hunt were the two applicants, Elmer being appointed by the committee, of which Vida Miller is chairman, as the new manager. It is probable that a head clerk will be appointed within the next few weeks. Any of the regular clerks may apply for this position.

Chamber of Commerce Banquet at Meredith

On Thursday evening, February 12, the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce held its annual banquet at Meredith College which marked the close of the administration of N. E. Edgerton and the beginning of that of J. C. Allison as president.

Governor O. Max Gardner presented Mr. Alexander Legge

OLIVE HAMRICK PLAYS IN STUDENT RECITAL

One of the most interesting recitals of the year was given last Thursday afternoon, February 12, in the college auditorium. Olive Hamrick showed talent and skill not often found in a child so young in her violin solo, "Fifth Air Varié."

Lucile Hamby played three piano solos, which were interesting and displayed good technique and interpretive ability. The Grieg Sonata, Op. 7, was played especially well.

The numbers were as follows:

Violin—Fifth Air Varié (Dancel), Olive Hamrick.

Piano—Sonata, Op. 7 (Grieg); Allegro Moderato, Allegro Molto, Lucile Hamby.

Piano—Moto Perpetua (MacDowell), Mabel Yarborough.

Piano—Nocturne, Op. 15, No. 1 (Chopin); Maiden's Wish (Chopin-Liszt), Lucile Hamby.

Piano—Waltz, C Sharp Minor (Chopin), Blondie Morse.

Faculty, Students and Em- ployees Contribute to Emergency Fund

A campaign to raise contributions to the North Carolina Baptist Emergency Fund was conducted here during the chapel hour Wednesday morning, February 11. The total fund raised amounted to $2,335.55, and there are still some more contributions to be made.

At this time J. M. Broughton, secretary of the Convention Advisory Debt Commission, spoke to the assembled faculty, students and employees, and stressed the importance of Meredith's taking a lead in this critical move.

When the contributions were made, practically every member of the college, from janitors to president, made some donation. Some of these amounts will go through the home churches of the students, as designated.

In the Baptist Centennial Campaign, which was conducted in the fall of 1927, Meredith pledged $10,016, practically all of which has been paid. The college is anxious for the Baptists throughout the State to know how vitally interested it is in raising this emergency fund.

The following are the amounts contributed by the different groups Wednesday morning:

Senior Class, $115.70; Junior Class, $88.00; Sophomore Class, $93.25; Freshman Class, $102.60; Faculty, $1,902.00; Help, $34.00.

It will be remembered that the

Westminster Choir Gives Superb Recital

Perhaps the finest singing ever heard by a Raleigh audience was that done by the Westminster Choir, presented in concert at Hugh Morson High School on February 13, under the auspices of the Raleigh Music Club. The singing of this noted choir genuinely thrilled the throng of music lovers that almost filled the auditorium, a gathering that applauded with such enthusiasm and sincerity that members of the choir said they had rarely received such a warm appreciation.

Arranged in four tiers, and in vestments of white and scarlet, the choir itself, composed of
