

REV. FOREST C. FEEZOR CONDUCTS ANNUAL REVIVAL SERVICES

Mr. Feezor Speaks on Jesus and Life and Mrs. Feezor Conducts Morning Watch

A most interesting series of revival services conducted by Mr. Forest Feezor, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist church of Raleigh, were held at Meredith College from February 8 to February 13.

Mr. Feezor spoke on the main topic "Jesus and Life"; and delivered a series of inspirational messages, at both, the morning and the evening services on "The Philosophy of Life," "Jesus and Higher Ground," "Humanity of Christ," "Is a Christ a Failure?"

The morning services were held at the regular chapel period and at night the services began at 6:45 o'clock. Mrs. Feezor, who is a graduate of the Baptist Training School in Louisville, led the devotional thoughts at the morning watch services. Her main topic was "Open Thou Mine Eyes," and the individual messages were: "Open Thou Mine Eyes to My Own Faults," "Open Thou Mine Eyes to the Beauty in Others," and "Open

(Please turn to page four)

Meredith Girls Attend Golden Bough Banquet

Several of the Meredith girls attended the Golden Bough banquet held in the Beuna Vista ball room of the Carolina Hotel on Saturday evening, February 20. This banquet of the honor society of Wake Forest College is one of the main social features of the year.

The principal address of the evening was made by Dr. George C. Mackie of the Medical school faculty while President Thurman D. Kitchin served as toastmaster.

Those present, including the faculty membership and visiting Alumni were: I. B. Lake, Herman Lancker, Jimmie Harrell, J. P. Morgan, S. L. Morgan, Jr., Graham Denton, Paul Hutchins, Hugh Stroup, E. L. Smith, Robert Morehead, Harold Deaton, Pitt Allen, George Snuggs, C. M. McCracken, Jr., Paul Cooper, Roy Kinsey, I. O. Brady, Fleming Fuller, Maurice Crec, Dr. T. D. Kitchin, Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Poteat, Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Aycock, Dr. G. C. Mackie, Mary Elizabeth Elam, Lois Sawyer, Mary Lois Parker, Barbara Moore, Anna Deaton, Zona Wells, Mildred Weinstein, Margaret Craig, Rachel Marshburn,

(Please turn to page two)

REV. FOREST C. FEEZOR who conducted Revival Services on the campus last week

George Boyle Gives Concert at Meredith Monday Night

George F. Boyle, distinguished composer and great pianist appeared in a piano recital in the Meredith College auditorium Monday evening, February 22 at 8:15 o'clock.

Mr. Boyle was brought to America in 1910 to become a member of the faculty of the Peabody Conservatory of Baltimore. He taught there for 11 years, resigning to join the faculties of the Institute of Musical art of the Julliard Foundation and of the Curtis Institute of Music. He served on the staff of the latter institution two years and is now in his seventh at the former. Mr. Boyle has gathered around him a group of students and admirers whose enthusiasm recalls the vivid stories of the followers of Liszt.

As a composer Mr. Boyle is of striking individuality, with a subtle harmonic sense and a

(Please turn to page two)

I. R. C. Receives Annual Gift of Carnegie Books

The International Relations Club of Meredith College has received the books and pamphlets which are given to the club each year under the auspices of the Carnegie endowment for International Peace. The books have been placed in the International Alcove in the library and may be taken out by signing for them at the desk.

The books received were written during the year 1931 by noted professors and other men of international reputation who are thoroughly acquainted with the subjects about which they

(Please turn to page two)

Alice in Wonderland Will be Given on Feb. 29

Monday, February 29, is quite appropriately the night of nights for Meredith students. In honor of Lewis Carroll's centennial many colleges and literary organizations all over America and England are having special feature programs. Meredith can combine observance of his centennial with her tradition of the presentation every college generation of Alice in Wonderland by the faculty. The invitation is extended to all students at 8:00 Monday night.

"Come back to childhood with Alice and her queer comrades in Wonderland—the faculty! If you will but let the graceful (?) and gracious fairies wave the wand of make-believe over you, you, too, may enter a wood in Wonderland. In this country of contraries you will see and hear many strange things—an English instructor who smashes the rules of grammar; a learned Ph.D. who forgets her dignity and wears a "purr-petual" grin; a mere assistant who dares to lay an audacious hand upon the academic countenance of the dignified Dean; the classicist who conjugates in pepper cruets; the chief of the mathematicians who cannot count the time correctly; a popular English teacher who snores not in poetical rhythm, but in plain loud American prose! Here, also, in delightful confusion, are to be found stately personages of the court and amusing animals—sights not otherwise to be seen on our campus.

"Come to Wonderland with

(Please turn to page two)

Juniors Accept Challenge in Soap Coupon Contest

To make the Octagon soap coupon contest more successful the sophomore class has extended a challenge to any class in school which was accepted by the junior class. According to the conditions of the contest, coupons may be collected from any one except members of another class and must be in by spring holidays. The winning class will be entertained by the losers at a party. The sophomores have begun publicity with their usual "bang." Posters all over the campus announce the progress of the class, the most striking poster being one with four cars, one for each class, in which the sophomore car leads with 1,200, while the other cars have a "?" Sophomore campaign plans are at work which cover the entire state.

FIRST GRADUATING RECITAL GIVEN BY MARY LEE, FRIDAY

DR. A. R. NEWSOME the principal speaker at the bicentennial celebration of Washington's birthday at Meredith College

Dr. Newsome Speaks at Tree Planting Exercises

Addressing the Meredith student body Tuesday morning, February 23, in celebration of the bicentennial anniversary of Washington's birthday, Dr. A. R. Newsome, secretary of the North Carolina Historical Commission, declared that although George Washington stands pre-eminent among the founders of the republic, it is a paradoxical fact that there are few so misunderstood as he.

"Probably none of his historians portray him satisfactorially, the speaker continued. The real Washington has been distorted in the public mind and misrepresented by propagandists and moralists who have laid unholy hands on him in order to give prestige to the cause in which they were interested. Though solving the problems of his day with keen penetration, Washington did not go back 150 years to John Smith's ideas as a

(Please turn to page four)

Barber Biology Club Elects New Officers

At a call meeting of the Barber Biology Club Tuesday evening, February 23, Evelyn Byrd was elected vice president to take the place of Sallie Council who assumed the duties of the retiring president, Helen Middleton. As this was strictly a business meeting, there was no program and plans for the spring were discussed and the following committees appointed:

Program Committee—Evelyn Byrd, chairman; Elizabeth Barnes, Cornelia Atkins.

Membership Committee—Alberta Foster, chairman; Janie Parker, Esther Barham.

Five Piano Recitals and One Voice Recital to Follow Later in Year

The first graduation recital in piano to be presented at Meredith College this year, was given by Mary Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Lee of Florence, S. C., Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock in the college auditorium. Mary is a pupil of Miss May Crawford, professor of piano at Meredith, and proved herself in her performance to be well accomplished as a young artist. Her assurance at her instrument and her charming personality on the stage won and held her audience from the time she came on the stage until the last number had been rendered.

The program which was presented was made up of compositions of both the old and modern masters and was one of great interest and variety.

The first number was Mozart's Concerto in C Minor, a brilliant two piano composition. The second piano arrangement by Grieg was played by Miss Crawford.

Papillons by Schumann was a number of unusual variety and

(Please turn to page two)

Indian Program Given at Sunday Vesper Service

The senior parlor was transformed into an Indian forest Sunday evening for Y. W. A. Vesper Service. The room was very dark with the exception of the light from the fire in the center of the room. Around this the members gathered and listened to an Indian program.

Day is Dying in the West was sung softly; after this, the devotional was continued by Mae Campbell who read from the 19th Psalm praising the outdoors and the beauty of nature.

Eleanor Hunt played Pale Moon on the violin. Then Minwal Cates told of the Indians who have had the advantage of Christian missionary work.

Elizabeth Stevens followed this with a very interesting account of life among the Navajo Indians showing the needs and possibilities of Mission work among them.

Miserere Hetterick told an Indian legend, Ignacia Tends His Sheep, illustrating the effect of Mission work in one particular family.

Anne McCanless sang, in closing, By the Waters of Minnetonka.