ALUMNAE ENTERTAIN HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS
On Monday afternoon, March 28, the home of Mrs. Agnes Cree Deane, on South Randolph Street, Rockingham, was the scene of a lovely tea given by the Meredith Alumnae Chapter of Rockingham County in honor of the high school senior girls of Rockingham and Hamlet.

The guests as they arrived were led to the dining room where a "Meredith Exhibit" was arranged. The exhibit included interesting Meredith Annuals, dating from 1904 to the most recent ones. There were also scrap books containing records of unique college experiences, as well as many interesting pictures of the schools.

The guests were then ushered to the living room, where tea, cakes and mints were served; and where they were entertained by piano selections given by Dolly Byrd of Hamlet, senior at the college. Various college songs were sung by the alumnae. Favors were miniature Meredith pennants and diminutive corsages.

About fifty seniors called during the afternoon.

NEW CHAPTER

The former and present students of Meredith College who reside in Garner met Thursday evening, March 24, at the home of Mrs. N. L. Broughton, and organized a branch of the Wake County Chapter of Meredith Alumnae. Mrs. Elizabeth Purnell Rand, '26, was elected president, and Clarice Holder, '32, secretary, of this club, which will hold meetings, the last Thursday of each month.

'CHARLOTTE ALUMNAE DINNER

Many of the alumnae who attended the State Teachers' meeting in Charlotte met members of the local chapter, of which Mrs. Carrie Alice Wolf Baxter is president, at dinner at the Hearthstone Tea Room, on Friday evening, March 18. The alumnae were particularly glad to have present Misses Hanen, English, Brewer, and Mr. Huggins, of the Meredith faculty, and Mrs. F. D. Lethco, of Charlotte, trustee of the college.

PROSPECTIVE STUDENTS

About three hundred names of prospective students have been sent in by alumnae in response to the letter mailed out March 12 by the alumnae secretary. Already faculty members and alumnae have begun making visits to communities from which lists of names of these high school girls have been received. If you know of any prospects and have not sent in their names, will you not do so at once? This will greatly assist those who have the work of securing students in charge.

COUPON DRIVE

We did not reach our goal of 100,000 Octagon coupons by March 31. So we'll have to work extra hard and secure 200,000 by the end of April. The count at twelve o'clock Thursday evening, March 31, was 51,782. The coupons were received from the following sources:

NEWS ITEMS

The third annual "Hospitality" weekend, April 2-3, was a success in every way. The weather was propitious; the crowd was large; the entertainment program was interesting; the enthusiasm was great; and everyone had a good time.

We wish to thank the alumnae of Dunn, Henderson, Kinston, Madison, Pinehurst, Warrenton, and Woodsdale for bringing in their cars high school girls to attend the "Hospitality" weekend party.

The Henderson-Warrenton Chapter met with Mrs. Mary Harris Gardner, Warrenton, on Thursday afternoon, March 24.

We received a birthday check for the college from the "Land of the Sky" chapter too late to report in the last issue of the Twig. We wish to acknowledge this gift now.

body, after which the following program was given:

Soprano solo "Sylvia," Josephine Arnette.

Piano duo, Mary Akers and Mary L. Smith.

Two selections by the band.

The exercises closed with the singing of the Alma Mater.

At two-thirty Saturday afternoon a carnival was held. After a performance in the Phi Hall by such well-known celebrities as Mary L. Parker, Pat Abernethy, Elberta Foster, Emily Miller, Margaret Newbern, Mary Bess VanLandingham, and Catherine Hicks, the guests proceeded to the "Chamber of Mysteries."

Here such horrible and fascinating figures as Dracula, the living sword fish, the Siamese twins, and the most loving couple in the world were seen. The carnival ended in the social room of Jones Hall where popcorn and punch were served.

The most exciting feature of the whole party occurred in the gymnasium at 6:45 when a close battle in basketball was waged between the Sophs and the Juniors. The final score was 18-17 in favor of the Sophomores.

At eight-thirty the Glee Club presented the operetta "Gitana" which proved to be very enjoyable. The settings were a gypsy camp, at the fountain, and in the court of the king and queen. Leading rôles were taken by Cile Broughton, Josephine Arnette, Louise Martin, Hazel Martin, Pat Abernethy, Hilda Fuller, and Ruth Winslow. The operetta was under the direction of Miss Ethel Rowland.

Following the operetta an informal reception was held in the parlors.

Sunday morning at 7:15 a special morning watch service with Miss Knight as the speaker was held in the parlors. At nine o'clock the guests went with their hostesses to the various churches.
