

Rev. Forest Feezor to Conduct Baccalaureate Sermon Sunday

'The Preeminence of Christ' to be Subject of Morning Message

Rev. Forest C. Feezor, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist Church of this city, will preach the baccalaureate and missionary sermons to the Meredith graduates, Sunday, May 29. The topic of the morning sermon will be "The Preeminence of Christ," with the text from Colossians 1:8, "That in all things Christ might have the preeminence." That of the evening will be: "Can We Still Believe in World Missions?"

Mr. Feezor is a native of North Carolina, being born in Davidson County and reared in Lexington. He was graduated from Wake Forest College in 1920, after having received many of the highest honors of the school. He was one of Wake Forest's most distinguished debaters and orators, representing the college on anniversaries and commencement occasions, and engaging in a number of intercollegiate debates throughout the South. He was a leader of the ministerial students of the college. He starred in athletics, being one of their leading football players and captain of the

(Please turn to page two)

Class Day to Feature Monday Program

The annual class-day exercises of the Senior class will be held on Monday afternoon, May 30, at 5 o'clock. The friends and relatives of the members of the graduating class will assemble in the grove, where the exercises will take place. The Sophomore class will carry the daisy-chain, singing the traditional class-day song of the even classes and the Seniors will march down to their places.

The program will consist of songs by the Sophomore class, the class of '30, and the Senior class; the reading of the class history, poem, and prophecy, and the presentation of the gift to the college from the Senior class. Annette Donovan, president of the incoming Senior class, will receive the cap and gown from the Senior president, Edwina Martin, and also the traditional shepherd's crook, which will this year still be wearing the Senior colors.

As a conclusion to the program the Seniors will march back through the daisy-chain aisle,

(Please turn to page three)

Sunday Speaker

REV. FOREST C. FEEZOR

Elizabeth Byrd Gives Last Recital of Year

Elizabeth Sue Byrd, of Hamlet, pupil of Miss Rebeka Mae Crawford, was heard, Friday evening, May 6, in her graduating recital in piano.

An appreciative audience followed Elizabeth through a varied program which she rendered with fine technique and charm.

Of her first group, "The Gigue" from the Fifth French Suite by Bach, and the "Pastorale Variee," by Mozart, were received with enthusiasm. Both composers require a clearness of touch and a delicacy of feeling which Elizabeth met creditably. The rendition of Concertstüke, op. 79, by Weber, showed strength and clearness of technical skill. In the third group, the Etude, op. 25, No. 7, by Chopin, was interesting and

(Please turn to page two)

Dr. Poteat Lecturer of Kappa Nu Sigma Society

"The kingdom of education is as adventurous as mountain climbing," said Dr. W. L. Poteat, President Emeritus of Wake Forest College, Monday evening, May 19, in the annual address sponsored by the Kappa Nu Sigma Honor Society. Lillian Aldridge, president of the society, presented the speaker.

Dr. Poteat gave as his subject, "Scholarship Horizons." In the course of his lecture he said, "No horizon, spiritual or mental, is extensive unless it includes God." He stressed the fact that many, during the four

(Please turn to page two)

MEDALS PRESENTED SATURDAY NIGHT

The annual Society Night, which was held tonight in the Meredith College Auditorium, proved to be one of the most impressive services ever held at Meredith. The auditorium was decorated in the two society colors—gold and white, and purple and white.

The program was started with the processional of the members of the Astrotekon Literary Society singing the society song, and the Philaretian Literary Society members followed the Astros singing their song. Gaynelle Hinton, president of the Astrotekon Literary Society, gave the opening welcome address, giving a special welcome to the alumnae and the visitors. Lottie Bell Myers, president of the Philaretian Literary Society, introduced the speaker of the evening, Dr. C. M. Green, pastor of the Watts Baptist Church in Durham, after which Dr. Green gave a very interesting address.

Dr. James B. Wright, a local physician of Raleigh, presented the Astrotekon essay medal to Mary Henley, and Mrs. C. O. Abernethy of Raleigh awarded Elva Burgess with the Philaretian Literary Society essay medal.

Velma Webb presented the Sophomore class with the athletic trophy. This is the second successive year the class has had the trophy, having won it their freshman year.

The girls winning recognition for independent reading were announced by Dr. Julia Harris,

(Please turn to page two)

I. R. C. ENTERTAINS NEW MEMBERS

The International Relations Club of Meredith College entertained at a tea in honor of the newly elected members Thursday afternoon, May 27, at 4:45 o'clock, in the Senior parlor.

Antoinette Charles, president of the club for this year, was at the head of the receiving line. With her were Miss Nettie Herndon, adviser of the club, and the officers for next year, Martha Catebury, Mae Campbell, and Margaret Olmstead, and Harriet Mardre, vice president of this year.

The new members of the club who were selected on the basis of scholarship and interest in international affairs were: Martha Salisbury, Lula Belle Highsmith, Jean Simpson, Eliza Briggs, Emily Miller, Sara Elizabeth Vernon, Evelyn Barber, Erma Fisher, Virginia Farris, and Charlotte Gammage.

Commencement Address Again To Be Made By Dr. B. C. Clausen

Commencement Speaker

DR. B. C. CLAUSEN

Shakespeare Play Is Presented by Seniors

One of the most popular of Shakespeare's comedies, "Much Ado About Nothing," was presented by the Senior class Friday night, May 27, at 8 o'clock. The play, under the direction of Dr. Horton, was presented in a truly Shakespearean manner. The costumes, as well as the scenery and dialogue, carried the spirit of the age.

The chief actors of the story were Hero, played by Margaret Peacock, and Claudio, played by Lina Lee Spence. Beatrice Vogel and Lottie Belle Myers were especially good as Beatrice and Benedick in the war of wit which was carried on between them. Ethel Swanson, as Don John, portrayed well the character of the villain. Prue Choate as the stupid Dogberry opposite Sarah Elizabeth Jenkins as Verages proved a most humorous couple.

(Please turn to page two)

Head of Music Department to Study in Austria

I. L. Battin, head of the Music Department of Meredith College will leave on the Majestic June 3 for Salzburg, Austria where he will study choral music until August 3.

Mr. Battin will stop in Paris for a day to visit Charles Marie Wider, organist and composer. While in Salzburg Mr. Battin will study under Bernard Paumgartner, Clemens Krauss, and Bruno Walter.

Mrs. Battin, and the children, Billie and I. L. Jr., will also make the trip. Billie will not have any trouble making friends as he already knows German.

Syracuse Minister to Return to Meredith Campus

Returning for the fourth time since 1927, Dr. Bernard Chancellor Clausen of Syracuse, New York, will again address Meredith's graduating class. He made the first address in 1927 on the "Art of Anger"; in 1930 he returned, using three popular songs as the "texts" for his talk. Last year he told the Seniors "How to Get What You Want." This year will make his third successive appearance, and he warned every one last year that according to the "tenure of office" custom in the North his third successive appearance would give the college a claim on him as long as it wished.

Dr. Clausen is pastor of the First Baptist Church in Syracuse and has been since July, 1920. He offers his resignation every year, presenting a complete report of the past year and a complete program of objectives for the next.

Dr. Clausen, who was born in Hoboken in 1892, is a graduate of Colgate University, where he received his A.B. in 1915 and his M.A. in 1916; of Union

(Please turn to page two)

Annual Commencement Concert Given Monday

The annual commencement concert will be given Monday evening at 8:30 in the auditorium. The concert, which features students from the different branches of the music department, is one of the "high lights" of the commencement exercises, and is always enjoyed greatly by those who hear it. This year the program promises to be one of unusual variety and beauty, consisting of two piano numbers, piano, voice, violin and organ solos, selections by the entire glee club and a trio from the glee club. The following program will be presented:

Two pianos, Polichinelle, Rachmaninoff, Gaynelle Hinton, Christine Johnson.

Voice, Ave Maria, Luzzi, Josephine Arnette.

Organ, In Summer, Stebbins, Ruth Winslow.

Piano, Moonlight, Debussy, Mary Lee.

Trio, Highland Love, Forsyth; Down in the Glen, Warren; Josephine Arnette, Hazel Martin, Mary Lucile Broughton.

(Please turn to page two)