

Perfect Attendance in Physical Education

The Physical Education department has completed the year with an unusually large perfect attendance record, with thirty freshmen, twelve sophomores, and four juniors, making a total of forty-six out of a department of approximately three hundred. One junior, Helen Bennett, has made a perfect record for the entire three years. Letters were presented in chapel Tuesday morning by Mrs. Gertrude Royster Sorrell, head of the department, to those who has made perfect attendance for this year. Stars were awarded those who had perfect attendance records for the past two years.

The Methods class which was started last year for those planning to teach and wishing work in the teaching of physical education, has also had a successful year, contributing one of the most striking features at May Day their chariot dance. Twelve of the class were dressed very realistically as horses and three were drivers, being dressed in Roman style.

The following is the perfect attendance list.

JUNIORS — Helen Bennett, Mae Campbell, Melba Hunt, Agnes Moore.

B. S. U. NOTES

FAREWELL

We, and I speak for the entire B. S. U. Council, have enjoyed working with each one of you this year. It is with a great deal of remorse that I write for the last time the B. S. U. Notes. However, I'm hoping you will be right with us again next fall, and help share our B. S. U. activities.

Alumnae and Faculty Talk for New Students

The alumnae and faculty are cooperating in order to present to the high school seniors of the state the advantages of Meredith College. Four or five of the alumnae members are spending a large amount of their time in different sections of the state, and about thirty members of the faculty are making short trips to the high schools in this vicinity, giving talks in chapel exercises and at senior class meetings.

Irene Thomas, Student Government president in 1930-31, Veda Miller, Honor Society and Classical Club president in 1930-31, and Mrs. Gordon (Mabel Claire Hoggard, '28) are among the alumnae who are doing campaign work. Mrs. Wallace, Miss Grimmer, Miss Yarborough, Miss English, Miss Herndon, Miss Kitchin are among the faculty members who have been speaking.

Installation of New Society Officers

The society officers for the year 1932-1933 were formally installed Wednesday evening, May 18. Pauline Barnes, business manager of the Twig, is the new Phi president, and Rachel Biggs, Junior class president, will preside over the Astros.

Other new Phi officers are: Nancye Viccellio, vice president; Jessie King Martin, secretary; and Elizabeth Lee, treasurer. Isabel Kinsey will be chief marshal, assisted by Sue Hester, Gwennie Crowder, and Louise Martin.

Completing the list of Astro officers are: Katherine Davis, vice president; Frances McNeil, secretary; Grace Carr, treasurer; Mary Akers, chief marshal; Elizabeth Hood, senior marshal; Mary Bess Van Landingham, junior marshal; and Stuart Wetherspoon, sophomore marshal.

Following the installation, a joint reception was held in the library rotunda.

Freshmen Entertain Big Sisters at Dinner

The little sisters showed their appreciation of the kindnesses which their big sisters have shown them, by taking them in to dinner Wednesday, May 17. They met in the parlors and marched through the dormitories to the dining room, where special tables had been arranged for them. The rainbow colors of the Juniors were used in decorating. During the dinner toasts were made by the Junior president, Rachel Biggs, and by the Freshman president, Jane Parker. At the end of the dinner the big sisters sang the Odd Spirit song.
