

Published Bi-weekly as the Official Organ of the Student Body of Meredith College

MAE CAMPBELL.....Editor
DOROTHY MERRITT.....Associate Editor
SALLIE COUNCIL.....Associate Editor
ELZA BRIGGS.....Business Manager
EMILY MILLER.....Managing Editor
MARY FLORENCE CUMMINGS
NANCY VICCELLIO.....Managing Editor
MARY LOIS PARKER.....Asst. Bus. Mgr.
CORNELIA ATKINS.....Asst. Bus. Mgr.

REPORTERS

JANE PARKER MARY LAURA VAUGHAN
VIRGINIA SCOTT ELBERTA FOSTER
LOUISE CORRELL MARY ALLEN LEWIS

Entered as second-class matter October 11,
1923, at Postoffice at Raleigh, N. C., under
Act of March 3, 1879.
Acceptance for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Section 1103, Act of October 3, 1917, authorized October 11, 1923.

Subscription Price.....$1.25

Mr. M. A. Huggins

We wish to congratulate Mr. M. A. Huggins, former head of the education department of Meredith College upon being elected general secretary of the Baptist State Convention at the recent meeting of the Convention in Charlotte.

Mr. Huggins was appointed to act as temporary secretary when Dr. Charles E. Maddy resigned to become executive secretary of the Promotion Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention and later was elected secretary of the Foreign Mission Board.

Mr. Huggins had won the esteem and appreciation of both the faculty and student body by his untiring work for the school and interest in the students. We shall miss having him on the campus but we are sure that he will continue to be interested in our work. We know that Mr. Huggins' new work will be characterized by the usual good manner in which he accomplishes tasks. We wish to offer best wishes for success in this new work which he is undertaking.

Freshman Play

"The Romancers" which will be given by the Freshmen and sponsored by the Little Theatre Club tonight promises to be one of the best productions of the year. The cast as well as those directing, have spent much time in preparation on the play so that it will be a very finished product.

Part of the final success of the play, however, rests on the faculty and student body. The greatest success will be achieved through the support of the entire school at the play tonight.

The Student Government is to be commended for the splendid beginning which it made in

KRYPTIC KOMMENT

The Morning After . . .

"I burned my candle at both ends.

And now have neither foes nor friends.

For all the comely light begotten,

I'm paying now in feeling rotten."

The person who wrote that certainly must have known something about the "let-down" feeling after the holidays.

Is This Education?

I can solve a quadratic equation, but I cannot keep my bank balance straight.

I know the economic theories of Mathus and Adam Smith, but I cannot live without income.

I can read the plays of Moliere in the original, but I cannot order a meal in French.

I found that somewhere and thought I'd pass it on—you make your own Komments.

If Such There Be

Saw in an exchange that Co-eds at Millsaps College, Jackson, Mississippi, have decided that the ideal college man must be:

A man who shoots a flattering line—without laughing.

A man who tells funny jokes—only once.

A man who won't believe just anything—unless you want him to.

A man who keeps you guessing—for a time.

A man who sings love songs in your ear—and can carry a tune.

A man who is totally indifferent toward girls—except you.—Los Angeles Collegian.

I had more to tell you—but a column must be only so long, you know.

FACULTY TRIO RENDERS FIRST RECITAL OF YEAR

(Continued from page one) with the audience.

"On Wings of Song" by Mendelssohn, was rendered in such a manner as to bring out all its beauty of tonality and theme.

The last number on the program, "Syncopation" by Kreisler, was in marked contrast to the rest of the program. It was unusually attractive because of its modern use of harmony and its lilting, catchy melody.

increasing the social life of the college by the Carnival sponsored by the association. Monthly entertainments in which the faculty, the entire student body and their friends may participate will add much to the social life on the campus.

New Plans For Peace

The New History Society, following out a suggestion made by students all over the country, has outlined ideals and action for a League known as the "Green International," composed of "students from among the schools, colleges, and universities of the world, intent on War Resistance."

Last winter the New History Society offered a prize competition to American students on the subject of World Peace. At that time many of the contestants suggested that the Colleges could promote peace through an international Students League against war. The New History Society promptly wrote all who had taken part in the contest, and then, assured of their cooperation, visited students in London, Paris, Cologne, Hamburg, Berlin, Vienna and Geneva, before finally organizing the "Green International." Since the idea originally came from the students, the New History Society is anxious that they initiate it themselves on the campus, with the History Society serving as a temporary connecting link. It will also, however, as soon as additional groups are formed, issue a "Green International Review," containing news and information of progress.

The symbol of the League will be the "Green International" Shirt—"the outward symbol of War Resistance, the visual expression of world patriotism."

The "Green International" requires from its members a personal pledge to refuse to take part in or to support any kind of war, either directly or indirectly. Its provisional headquarters are 132 East 32nd, New York City.

Barber Biology Club Discusses Birds

The Barber Biology Club met October 20, at 6:45 o'clock in Stringfield hall. A very interesting program was given under the leadership of Evelyn Byrd. Since birds are of especial interest this time of year the program was made up of topics concerning their activities. The program was as follows: Bird Migration, by Cornelia Atkins; How Clever Birds and Beasts Fool Their Enemies, by Eleanor Rozar; Bird Poems, by Evelyn Byrd; Ornamental Birds, by Helen Sears; and Birds That Sing at Night, by Evelyn Crutchfield.

After the program there was a business meeting, the purpose of which was the election of new members.

MABEL YARBOROUGH GIVES PIANO RECITAL

(Continued from page one) Perpetua, and Polonaise, proved a favorite with the audience.

The last group was made up of three of Chopin's compositions, two short preludes, C Major and E Major; Nocturne, Op. 9, No. 1 and Etude, Op. 10, No. 9. Romance, Op. 28, No. 2 by Schumann, and Rondo Brilliant by Weber.

Following the recital, a reception was held in the college parlors. Those in the receiving line were: Miss Mabel Yarborough; Mrs. Yarborough, mother of the young pianist; Miss May Crawford, Prof. Leslie P. Spelman, and Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Brewer.

Marshals for the recital were: Misses Hazel Martin, Marguerite Warren, Jamye Martin, Willie O'Quinn, and Mary Florence Cummings.

FACULTY "TAKE-OFFS" BENEFIT LIBRARY

(Continued from page one) the assistants, who have been realizing more and more, the need for more books of popular new fiction. Although there are many new books in the library this year, the majority of them are in use all the time and there are long waiting lists of students who are eager to read them. It is thought, that by maintaining a rental collection, which may be added to from time to time, the students will be able to read the best of new publications just off the press, and that, while doing so, each person, by paying the small fee which will be charged, will be helping the collection to grow and keep up to date.

The University of Kentucky will publish pictures of the ten professors receiving the most student votes in the space usually given to popular co-eds in the forthcoming edition of their annual.—Swarthmore Poemist.

"I deplore the lack of intelligence as compared with the over-production of intellect in America," says Dr. Edward O. Sisson, professor of philosophy at Reed College and former president of the University of Montana.—Idaho Argonaut.

"The craving for superiority and its attendant disappointments are the bases for most of our mental problems," says Dr. Andrew Woods, head of the Psychopathic Hospital at the University of Iowa.—Iowa State Student.

In the future the Freshmen at Agnes Scott will be required to wear caps for several weeks. Are our Sophomores at Meredith in favor of adopting Agnes Scott customs?

B. S. U. NOTES

STUDY COURSE WEEK

Today winds up a week of study course which has been most successful in every aspect. The same plan was used this year that was used last year—that of combining the Y. W. A. and B. Y. P. U. study courses into one week. The teachers, coming from different places, were exceptionally good, and they did much for the students with whom they came in contact. During the chapel period Mrs. Jones, of Charlotte, who is a returned missionary from Brazil, gave many very interesting experiences she had while down there and a new conception of Brazil was given. There were three B. Y. P. U. courses given at night and they were: "Soul Winning," by Rev. Norfleet Gardner, of Dunn; "Doctrines," by Miss Cleo Mitchell, of N. C. C. W., and "B. Y. P. U. Administration," by Miss Winnie Rickett.

SPEAKER AT VESPERS

We are very fortunate in having one whose name is very familiar to every one at Meredith, speak at Vespers Sunday night, Miss Alva Lawrence, who is young people's leader of the Woman's Missionary Union. We are always glad to welcome Miss Lawrence to Meredith.

COMING MUSIC EVENTS PROGRAMS ON THE AIR

(Continued from page one) concert will be able to enjoy it from a distance.

Professor Leslie P. Spelman, director of the choir, has arranged a program of variation, one of the groups consisting of carols from France, Russia, England, Germany, and Bohemia. Soloists who will render numbers, assisted by the choir, are: Miss Ethel Rowland, professor of voice, and Misses Hazel Martin, Louise Martin, and Josephine Arnette, members of the choir. The Meredith Trio will also assist in the program, accompanying some of the selections.

Professor Leslie P. Spelman and Miss Charlotte Armstrong will broadcast a joint organ and violin program from the college auditorium, Sunday afternoon, December 18, at 3:00 o'clock.

The Lenoir-Rhynean contends that the saying "Whoopee girls, Elon's got the ball!" should be changed to "Lenoir-Rhyne's got the ball!" But custom is strong.

The faculty and student body wish to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Leslie P. Spelman on the birth of a son, Leslie P., Jr. on Sunday, November 27.