Games were played throughout the evening. An interesting program consisting of vocal solos by Josephine Arnette, a stunt directed by Elizabeth Austin, and a Valentine dance by Zellah Washburn and Peg LeGrand was carried out under the direction of Dixie Lee Bale, new president of the class.

An enterprising Carnegie Tech engineering student, who spends his idle hours tinkering with a short wave set, received a calculus problem which was too difficult. Exasperated, he finally appealed for help over the air waves. The solution promptly came back, dictated by a student at the University of Texas.—Michigan Daily.

proved, the compositions increased in the intricate detail and beauty which reached their height in the inimitable Bach. Compositions by such composers as Andrea Gabrieli, John Bull, Jean Titelouze, the famous Frescobaldi, Samuel Scheidt, Johann Forberger, and Dietrich Buxtehude were rendered.

Although the program was on organ music before the time of Bach, Prof. Spelman concluded the recital by playing the difficult and well-known Fugue in D Major by Bach. This, he said, was "to leave a good taste in the mouths of his audience."

HOW LONG SHOULD A WIFE LIVE?

was the subject of a talk by Bruce Barton, well-known author and advertising man.

The answer, in the old days, was "not very long."

Of interest to every woman is the following taken from his talk:

"Do you know what happened to the Pilgrim Mothers? I will tell you. They died. They died young. It took two or three of them to bring up one family. The fathers were tough and lived long, but work and hardship made short work of the wives."

It has been truly said that you can measure the height of any civilization by the plane on which its women live. By that standard, we have made great progress in the United States, but we have not made enough.

An electric motor which runs a washing machine or a vacuum cleaner works for a few cents an hour. There are still millions of women doing this work which motors can do—selling their time at coolie wages.
