Social Given By College Department

The young people of the College Department of First Baptist Church were entertained from 8 until 10 o'clock on Saturday evening, February 25.

The Sunday School room where the social was given was attractively decorated in the color scheme of red, white, and blue. After partners were chosen by means of a grand march, games and written contests carrying out the George Washington idea were enjoyed. These were under the direction of Miss Lucille Knight. Stunts were also presented by each of the girls' classes in the department. An unusual feature of the program was the singing of familiar old songs, the words of which were flashed on a screen. Nancy Viccellio, new president of the department had charge of planning the party.

At the conclusion of the entertainment, refreshments in the color motif were served by the ladies of the church.

Emory Glee Club Guests of Juniors

The members of the Emory Glee Club, of Emory University, Atlanta, Ga., were dinner guests of the junior class Wednesday evening, February 22. After dinner, the hostesses and guests gathered in the parlor, where several of the freshmen members of the club were initiated, it being a custom of the club to initiate freshmen members on their first tour.

After the concert, given by the Emory Glee Club at 8:30, the club members were entertained by the Junior Class at a reception in the blue parlor. Punch was served.

Louise Thomas Entertains at Tea

On Saturday afternoon, February 18, at 4:00 o'clock, Louise Thomas entertained at tea. The guests amused themselves by working jig-saw puzzles. The following guests were present: Mary C. Shearin, Martha Viccellio, Helen Bennett, Amorette Byrd, Vara Lee Thornton, Ann Early, Katherine Blalock, and Mary Florence Cummings.

Tea Given For Dr. S. D. Gordon

The Meredith College Student Government and Baptist Student Union councils entertained Dr. S. D. Gordon at a tea Monday afternoon in the Blue Parlors from four to five-thirty.

Receiving the guests at the door was Miss Lucille Knight, Student Secretary, who she in turn introduced them to Dr. Gordon, Mary C. Shearin, president of the Student Government, and Melba Hunt, president of the B. S. U. after which the visitors were served Russian tea, sandwiches, and candies by the members of the B. S. U. and Student Government councils. Miss Ellen Brewer very graciously poured tea for the guests throughout the afternoon.

EMORY GLEE CLUB WELL RECEIVED BY LARGE CROWD

March," Daniel Protheroe; "A Spirit Flower," Campbell-Tipton; and a group of songs of the negro.

"Serenade in Trigane," by Valdez; a violin solo by Joseph Glazer and Prelude in A Minor—Debussy—a piano solo by Tom Brumly were special features of Part I.

The second part of the program was made up of individual performances—Chester Kitchings played a saxophone solo, accompanied by the orchestra. He also played selections on a musical saw, a rattler, a balloon, a set of bells, and a banjo. The last selection that Chester Kitchings gave was "Why Must I Remember You," the music to which he had written himself, and which he played on a guitar and sang.

Marion Brooke gave the Ojibway Scalp Dance in which he acted out the story of the achievements of the boastful warriors—the trailing—the listening—the stalking—the killing and the rejoicing.

The last part of the program was an opera in one act by Gilbert and Sullivan, Trial by Jury in which the entire club took part.

BASKETBALL NEWS

This week the basketball tournament play was begun with all the teams participating in two games. The Frosh still have not lost a game, and the Juniors still have not lost to anybody except the Frosh. It looks as if there might be a hard fight these next two weeks for the championship because the Juniors are not going to give up until the end and neither are the Sophomores and Seniors.

As the games stand now, it is:

	W	L
Frosh	2	0
Juniors	1	1
Sophs	1	1
Seniors	0	2

There will be two more weeks of tournament games, and then the cup goes to the class that has won the most games in the three weeks. The teams are showing some spirit, but there would be a good deal more fighting spirit shown if the members of the classes would come out to the games and support their teams. Let's show some class-spirit during the next two weeks of play!
