

MEREDITH GIRLS DEVOTE SUMMER TO THEIR FAVORITE AMUSEMENTS

Vacation, with all its swimming, tennis, travel and numerous other enjoyments, was spent in a variety of ways by Meredith girls this year. Every corner of its great realm of fun was invaded by one or more of the students.

Virginia Garnett says the swimming at Ridgecrest was great as was everything else there. "Gennie" enjoyed the beauties of Ridgecrest the entire summer.

Marguerite Warren should be able to write a book on Travels after all the places she visited in N. C. during the vacation months.

Grace Carr spent most of the summer at her home in Washington, D. C., however, she came down to Ridgecrest for a short while. Grace seemed to enjoy the swimming there to the fullest.

Catherine Moseley spent most of her time playing golf. She did, however, manage to leave her game long enough to take an extended trip North.

Anne Bradsher spent the majority of the summer at her home in Roxboro. Her favorite pastime was tennis.

Amorette Byrd visited the beach, and from all we hear, she enjoyed it to the fullest.

Elizabeth Lee spent her vacation at her home in Florence, S. C., but took several short trips to the beach and Greenville, S. C.

Evelyn Barker "vacationed" at Ridgecrest, Wake Forest, Newton, and her home in Leaksville.

Emily Miller spent the summer at camp. Her favorite call was, "Come on in; the water's fine!"

Mary F. Cummings enjoyed a very interesting trip to New York.

The World's Fair at Chicago saw numbers of our Meredith students enjoying its vast, enchanting wonders. Among those who attended the Century of Progress were: Dixie Lee Bale, Willene Yost, Frances Alderman, Louise Correll and several others.

VACATION OF FACULTY MEMBERS VARIED

(Continued from page one) in Pennsylvania. Mr. Canady, Professor of Mathematics, took an extensive trip along the coast of the North Atlantic states, and also visited for awhile in New Haven, Conn. Miss Barber, Professor of Biology, was at her home in Adrian, Mich. Miss Ellen Brewer, Professor of Home Economics, enjoyed visits to Washington, Nag's Head, and Ridgecrest. Miss Price, Professor of Latin and Greek, drove with her mother to Oregon. Mr. Tyner, Professor of Education, taught at the Wake Forest College Summer School, as did Miss Mary Lynch Johnson, Associate Professor of English. Miss Porter, Associate Professor of Modern Languages, visited in Virginia, North Carolina, and South Carolina. Mrs. Wallace, Assistant Professor of History, taught in the State College Summer School. Miss Hoagland, Assistant Professor of Psychology, visited in New Hampshire.

Dr. Mercer, Assistant Professor of Religion, spent some time with his daughter in Winston-Salem. Miss Spruill, Assistant Professor of English, visited in Richmond and took a sight-seeing trip through Virginia and Maryland. Miss Doris Tillery, Instructor in Mathematics, was in Summer School at Duke University. Miss Peacock, Instructor in English, visited in East Northfield, Mass. and Asbury Park. Miss Day, Instructor in French, studied in the School of Languages at Middleburg College in Vermont. Miss Keith, Assistant Professor of History, studied at the University of Tennessee.

Mr. Spelman, head of the Music Department of the college, visited the World's Fair during the summer, and while he was there, was asked to play. It was here that he was made a Fellow of the American Guild of Organists.

Miss Nora Kelly spent the summer at Blue Ridge, N. C., where she was nurse. Miss May Crawford spent some time in New York where she conferred with Harold Bauer, a famous musician. Miss Nettie Herndon took work at Duke University and made a very enjoyable trip to Chicago. Miss Annie White was in San Antonio, Texas for the entire summer.

Miss Lattie Rhodes spent the entire summer at Meredith College. Miss Anne McCanness was here for the majority of the time but visited for a short while at her home in Asheville.

The following faculty members spent their vacations at their various

B. S. U. Notes

The drive for the Baptist Student Magazine is on, and this year the goal is set for 100 subscriptions! The Baptist Student is the official magazine of Baptist Students in the South. Each copy contains a variety of interesting and worthwhile material. A year's subscription costs only 75c and includes 9 copies.

B. S. U. workers will make a room-to-room canvass in order to obtain new subscriptions or to renew old ones.

There will be a general meeting of the B. Y. P. U. for the first time Wednesday evening at 6:45 in the auditorium.

Morning Watch is held each morning at 7:15 in the Blue Parlor. Everyone is invited to attend.

The B. S. U. Council for 1933-34 began its annual retreat Sunday, September 10 and closed Monday evening. The watchword for the council is: "Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight O Lord, my strength and my redeemer." "I Would Be True," is the Council's song. During the meeting the aims and ideals for the coming year were set forth and the B. S. U. calendar was planned. Some of the most important events of the year are: Church relationship day, October 8; Wake Forest-Meredith B. Y. P. U. social, October 14; the State B. S. U. Conference at Campbell College, October 27-29; the G. A. house party, November 3-5; Thanksgiving sunrise service, November 30; World Fellowship Week, first week in December. The Council is looking forward to one of the best years in the history of B. S. U. work.

VESPERS SUNDAY NIGHT

The first vesper service of the new school year was held Sunday night in the Phi Hall. Dixie Bale, president of the Y. W. A., presided. After a short devotional period a play was given in which the ideals of the Y. W. A. were introduced to the new girls. At the close of the services one hundred and twenty girls joined the Y. W. A.

homes: Miss English, Mrs. Sorrell, Miss Welch, Miss Hanyen, Miss Yarrow, Miss Poteat, Miss Mary Tillery, Miss Branch, Miss Armstrong, Miss Rosel, Mr. Riley, and Dr. Freeman.

:.SOCIETY:.

PARTIES FOR NEW GIRLS

Since arriving at college the freshmen have been entertained at a series of parties given by the various classes, each of which made its affair unique and enjoyable.

The Big Sister class of '35 entertained their Little Sisters at an "odd" party where those attending in conformity with that type of party were allowed to wear no two things alike. During the evening the freshmen were introduced to the traditional characteristic of the "odd" classes, and various stunts and features were presented on the program. Following this, refreshments were served and each freshman left the party with a sincere love of the "odd" classes.

Immediately after the formal opening last Thursday night the seniors, still dressed in their caps and gowns, entertained the freshmen at an informal get-together affair in the Astro Hall. At this time the seniors sang for the freshmen the various college songs, after which dancing was enjoyed. At the conclusion of this refreshments were served, and the party ended with the singing of the Alma Mater.

As a concluding party to the social affairs of the first week, the sophomores gave the freshmen a "Kid" party at which time the cares and troubles of college life were forgotten for the time or lost in this pleasant entertainment offered the "children." After games, music and dancing refreshments were served by sophomores. This party made the freshmen feel that although they should "fear the Sophs" they could also enjoy a most pleasant and happy evening as their guests.

S. G.-B. S. U. RECEPTION

On Saturday night, September 16, the Student Government Council and the Baptist Student Union were joint hostesses at an informal reception given in honor of the new students. Amorette Byrd, college marshal presented the girls to the receiving line composed of Dr. and Mrs. Brewer, several faculty members, and the major officers of each association, after which the guests were served punch in the Senior Parlor. Later in the evening ice cream was served by members of the S. G. and the B. S. U. Councils. Candlelight and soft music made the entire affair more impressive, and the evening was spent in an enjoyable manner.

RECENT VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. George Lay of Windsor visited friends at Meredith, Sunday. Mrs. Lay was formally Miss Anne Mitchell Brownlee, assistant professor of Biology at Meredith. Mr. Lay is assistant superintendent of the forestry division of the C. C. C. at Windsor.

YOU ARE WELCOME

We welcome back our old Meredith friends and extend a cordial welcome to the new Meredith students.

EXPERT WATCH REPAIRING

HAVE YOU NOTICED THE NEW BEAUTY SHOP?
IT IS THE NEW HOME OF CRANFORD'S BEAUTY SALON
NEXT DOOR TO THE WAKE THEATRE

Clothes

Make the Meredith Girl

THE COLLEGE SHOPPE

Takes This Opportunity of Extending You

WELCOME!

COATS
SWAGGER SUITS
EVENING WEAR
MILLINERY
DRESSES

● You'll find JEAN'S College Apparel the kind of apparel that takes a college girl to wear it. . . . So in the interest of all we welcome you back to Raleigh and invite you to shop at JEAN'S.

Everything for the College Girl

Jeans
A SMART SHOP FOR SMART WOMEN

Exclusive Yet Inexpensive

EXTENDING YOU WELCOME

May Your College Years at Meredith be Happy—Filled to overflowing with the enjoyment of active days

"Your Down Town Home"

Greets You and Invites You to Make This Store Shopping Headquarters

COATS - SUITS - FROCKS
EVENING WEAR - SHOES and ACCESSORIES

The Shop of Original Modes
LUCIELLE
112 Fayetteville Street