THERE
Wig wig	Colton English Club The Colton English Club met Friday evening, April 13, at 6:45. Those	· ·	As speedy as a disappearing box from home.
Published Bi-weekly as the Official Organ of the Student Body of Meredith College	present enjoyed a very interesting pro- gram. The guest speaker of the eve- ning was Professor Hudson of the	ignorant of every question on a test.	As well-read as a faculty member wishes an English major to be.
NANCYE VICCELLIO	<sup>1</sup> niversity of North Carolina and he read his story of "The Bell Witch of Tennessee." This story was doubly	As hopeless as a lawless student to the Student Council.	As unhappy as a Senior at Senior Vespers.
CORNELIA ATKINS	interesting since it had its origin among the mountain folk of North Carolina and it was compiled by a	fore exams.	As graying as a treasurer of an or- ganization.
MARGARET TILGHMAN	North Carolinian, Professor Hudson, who visited the various places and gathered first-hand information of this		As slow as a teacher to announce her grades to an anxious class.
PAULINE PERRY GENEVA BASS Reporters	startling and unusual traditional tale. International Relations Club The International Relations Club	As difficult as managing a date with	As empty as a student's purse near commencement.
HELEN DOBSON ELIZABETH AUSTIN HENRIETTA CASTLEBURY MARGARET DAVIS DOROTHY DOCKERY MARGARET CAUDLE NELL CHOATE KATE COVINGTON	met on Friday night, April 20 at 6:45. Members of the club discussed perti- nent national and international ques-	As grimy as a bath tub before one	As popular as a college girl who ropes in all her friends' men. As forced as a student's smile over
MARY ELIZABETH DOBSON Entered as second-class matter October 11, 1923, at Postoffice at	tions. The program directed by Grace Robbins was as follows: The Philippine		a teacher's joke.
Raleigh, N. C., under Act of March 3, 1879. Acceptance for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Section 1103, Act of October 3, 1917, authorized October 11, 1923.	Independence Bill by Catherine Farris; Italo-Austro-Hungarian Cooperation by Sarah Elizabeth Vernon; Limitation	dormitories.	over the council meeting.
Subscription Price$1.25 A SIGNING OFF	of Armaments by Irene Little; and Little Entente Conferences by Peg LeGrand. These talks were inter-	ing to graduate.	read this article.
This is the last issue of THE TWIG to be published by the present staff. The coöperation of all who have helped the staff in any way	spersed with voluntary contributions from the members of the club.	OFFICERS FOR COMING YEAR ELECTED BY STUDENT BODY
during the year is appreciated. A GIFT TO THE LIBRARY	B. S. U. Notes	Lois Morgan, President of Sunday	(Continued from page one) Mother by Peter Pelham, represented by Miss Lena Barber of the Meredith
A bound copy of all issues of THE TWIG for the past four years will be presented to the library at the end of this year as a gift.	officers of the B. S. U. were installed	Band.	Green Malbone, represented by Emily
Should the staff for the next two years see fit to follow this example, the back issues of THE TWIG could be bound, at this rate, after two more years.	with an impressive ceremony. Fol- lowing the processional of old and new officers, the entire audience sang "Day	The following girls were elected as officers of the various divisions of the B. S. U.	Miller of Raleigh, N. C.; Elizabeth Bardley by Gilbert Stuart, represented by Addie Belle Wilson of High Point;
A WISH	is Dying in the West." After an in- vocation by Dr. Mercer the old officers administered the pledge to the new	Pauline Perry, Associate Director.	Mrs. James Stuart by Gilbert Stuart, represented by Lillian Powell of Wal- lace; George Washington by Gilbert
THE TWIG is passing into capable hands. The present staff retires with the wish that next year's staff may profit by the mis- takes of this year, and realize the possibilities of better work and	officers. Following this service Miss		Stuart, represented by Miss Ethel English of the Meredith faculty. The last group was a showing of more genuine service to the school.   A RECOGNITION	benediction by Dr. Freeman and a recessional to "Follow the Gleam."	Sunday School Helen Melton, Associate Director. Margaret Caudle, Secretary.	the "Tanagra Figure" which prevailed in Greece during the fourth century B.C. The following girls participated
The consistent and efficient work of Margaret Tilghman, senior, and Norma Rose, sophomore, managing editors, of Margaret	At the Vesper service, Sunday eve- ning, the Missionary Study group of		in this: Elberta Foster, Faith Hite, and Mary Fort Carroll. Alma Lee rep- resented the Roman clown as a show-
Caudle and Mary Elizabeth Dobson, reporters, and of Pauline Perry and Geneva Bass, typists, on THE TWIG staff this year, deserves recognition.	and J. A. Stevens conducted the service.	Y. W. A. Doris Moon, Vice President.	ing of Roman art. Throughout the evening Dr. Edwin
A DISCLOSURE The writer of the humor column of THE TWIG, entitled	Council Banquet The old B. S. U. Council entertained the new Council at a "Mother Goose"	Mozelle Horton, Secretary. Martha Williams, Publicity Chair- man.	McNeil Poteat of Raleigh sang the following vocal selections with Miss Virginia Branch as accompanist:
Splinters From The Twig, Things We Can Do Without, Similes, and other contributions, is a non-staff member. To the majority	in the Astro Hall. The program was as follows:	by the student body as officers of the	three numbers from "A Beggar at Love's Gate" by Lily Strickland, four numbers from "San Nazaro's Garden" of the students, the identity of the writer is not as yet definitely known. The staff takes advantage of this last issue, therefore, to	"Come Out and Play" (Welcome)- Marguerite Warren.	Athletic Association: Louise Helsabeck, Vice President. Ruby Pearson, Secretary.	by Woodman, two songs from "Gar- den Song" by Löhn, "Old Heidelberg" by Jenson, "As We Part" by Hgenannounce Evelyn Barker as the writer of these articles, and to thank her for such contributions. Early in the year, some lines from Splinters in the Twig were quoted in the Agonistic , Agnes	cil)—Sarah Elizabeth Vernon. "Birds of a Feather" (Friends)—	Mary E. Dobson, Treasurer. Literary Societies The student body recently elected	franz, and "Casey the Fiddle" by Wood.
Scott newspaper.	Miss Cleo Mitchell responded to this toast. "Peter Pumpkins Love" (Miss	the following girls as officers of the Literary Societies:	FRESHMAN CLASS ENTERTAINS "BIG SISTERS" FRIDAY
The united efforts of several departments in the college are going	Brame)—Pearl Robertson.	Reba Parker, President.	(Continued from page one) and rolls. They were then served with

A COMING EVENT		Distanction
	"Peter Pumpkins Love" (Miss	Philarctian Reba Parker, President.	(Continued from page one)
The united efforts of several departments in the college are going	Brame)—Pearl Robertson.	Martha Ann Riley, Vice President.	and rolls. They were then served with into the production of the Greek drama, Iphigenia in Tauris, to	"Queen of Hearts" (Miss Branch)— Vara Lee Thornton.	Nancy Bunn, Secretary.	potato chips, doughnuts, coffee, and be presented here Saturday, May 12, on the dining hall steps and	"Bo-Peeps' Sheep" (Former Coun-	Emily Hoye, Treasurer.	apples. As they were leaving they were in the court.	aile) Bortha Mao Stroud	Sarah Coleman, Chief Marshal.	given striped sticks of candy in the
Dr. Florence M. Hoagland and Dr. Helen Price are giving	"Mary Had a Little Lamb" (Miss	Elizabeth Barker, Senior Marshal.	shape of a crook, to signify that the freely of their time in planning and directing the play. Mr.	Knight)—Ella Lee Yates.	Frances Jones, Junior Marshal.	classes are cooperating in the "crook"
Leslie P. Spelman is supervising the music. Mrs. Spelman, with		Olive Dame, Sophomore Marshal.	spirit.
the assistance of Elberta Foster, is supervising the dancing. Miss	(Southwide Organization) - Frances	Astrotekton	The Juniors cheered their Little
Ida Potest and Miss Many Tillow of the out dependence.	Calloway.	Charlotte Gammage, President.	Sisters and sang "These Bones."
Ida Poteat and Miss Mary Tillery of the art department are	"Plots in Mary's Garden" (Achieve-	Faye M. Shields, Vice President.
assisting by designing costumes and stage setting. Miss Ellen	ments)—Miriam Wilson.	Katherine Liles, Secretary.	Dr. C. E. Brewer Attends
Brewer and Miss Jennie Hanyen of the Home Economics Depart-	"The Great Man" (Speaker)-Dixie	Lucille Davis, Treasurer.	Meeting of Trustees
ment are supervising the making of the costumes. Miss Forgeus	Lee Bale.	Margaret Davis, Chief Marshal.
the librarian, has, after much difficulty, obtained the music for the	After his response to the last toast,		On the fourteenth and fifteenth of production. Dean Boomhour has arranged for a change in the	Mr. Winston Pearce, president of State		April, Dr. Brewer attended a meeting schedule for senior examinations, making it possible for all to attend.	B. S. U. last year and now pastor at	Pauline Davis, Sophomore Marshal.	of the trustees of the National Orphans
Emily Miller, Little Theatre president, is very fortunate in se-	Campbell College, made the speech of the evening. After the speech "Eve-	IPHIGENIA IN TAURIS	Homes of the Junior Order of United curing the coöperation and interest of so many departments in the	uing Bells" (Goodnight) onded the	TO BE PRESENTED SOON	American Mechanics in Ohio. Dr. Brewer has been on this board since school. She is attempting to secure the best possible facilities for	ning Dens (Goodinght) ended the	(Continued from page one)	1911.
the actual production Therefore the formaid		and Home Economics Department are the actual production. Therefore the financial success of the play		helping in the costuming. The Librais an important matter. Many people from neighboring places	Pocket Testament League	rian has communicated with several	two Orphanages were found most have planned to witness the production. Every Meredith student,	On Wednesday, April 18, Mrs. A. C.	other libraries to secure the music.	gratifying. One of these homes is in it is hoped, will attend.	Dixon gave a talk during chapel on	May the twelfth has been set for	Tiffin, Ohio; the other in Lexington.
It is interesting to note in the Randolph-Macon Woman's College	the Pocket Testament League. Mrs.	the date of presentation, to be given	N. C. There are 1.150 children in the Sun Dial (weekly newspaper) that a Greek play is given in the	Dixon is the wife of the late A.	in Greek style in the court with	orphanage at Tiffin, and 250 in the original each year. Prometheus Unbound will be presented there	Clarence Dixon who was a Baptist	the dining hall porch serving as the	one at Lexington. The Lexington unit in May. The Iphigenia to be given here will, of course, be given	minister both in the Onited States	stage and the walkway as orchestra.	was started six years ago and is being in the English translation.	and in England, and was the brother	Seats for spectators will be arranged	rapidly enlarged to meet the situation in the amendment of anotacion.	of Dr. Delia Dixon Carroll.	in the court.	for the Order.