BARBER BIOLOGY CLUB

The Barber Biology Club, under the leadership of Helen Sears, has planned a very practical program for the year.

At the last monthly meeting the life and works of Madame Curie was discussed. The topic of the program was "Camouflaging in Nature"—parts taken by Mary Roselle Sears, Christine Adams, Mary Chandler, and Susan Rudisill.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

The International Relations Club met Tuesday night, November 6th. The Topic for discussion was "The Pertinent Topics in Germany and Russia."

THE COLTON ENGLISH CLUB

The Colton English Club met Friday, November 9th, with Professor I. V. Ladu of the English Department at State College as speaker for the evening.

THE CLASSICAL CLUB

The Classical Club will meet Monday, November 11th, in the Social Room of B Dormitory, at 4:30. The features for the afternoon will be snatches of the lives of Socrates and Plato, and a Socratic Dialogue in Modern Language.

Imagine the embarrassment of two Oklahoma students who were signaling in class by means of the sign language when the professor used the same means to tell them, "Don't do that any more."—Technique.

held during the convention, on Friday at 2:30 o'clock and Saturday at 11 o'clock. The superintendents and principals held one dinner meeting and the classroom teachers another on Friday evening.

Miss Brewer Entertains Faculty at House Warming

Saturday night, October 27, Miss Ellen Brewer entertained in honor of the faculty with a house warming at her newly built cabin, "The Cedar Chest," situated just off the Lassiter's Mill Road.

The faculty enjoyed a delicious outdoor supper cooked on a large stone stove built in the yard. Miss Welch aided Miss Brewer in the preparation.

After supper, Miss Carolyn Peacock told an original story in which the name of each member of the faculty was cleverly worded in. She ended with a suggestion of a shower which, to the complete surprise of Miss Brewer, was given her.

B. S. U. Notes

Beginning Monday, November 5th, and ending Saturday, November 17th, the delegates of the Baptist Student Conference are speaking at morning watch on "Echoes from Memphis."

For the second time the students of each hall gathered Sunday Night in their own social rooms for Vespers. A large number of girls were present at each unit meeting and fine programs were given.

Join the Service Band! "Lift up your eyes and look on the field." On November 2 at 6:45, "Italy" was the subject presented by Virginia Lambert.

The Girls' Auxiliary House Party held annually at Meredith is now in progress. The general theme for the entire meeting is "The Girlhood of Every Nation for the Girlhood of the Students taking a history examination at the Los Angeles Junior College were asked to state the Monroe Doctrine briefly. One paper read, "Scram, foreigners."—Blue Stocking.

Olivet College has instituted this fall a new system which does away with oral and written quizzes, text-book learning, stereotyped recitations in classrooms and final examinations. Under the new system the student will be allowed to pursue his studies in practically any way he sees fit, under the guidance of a faculty tutor. Private study, attendance at group discussions and individual conferences with the tutor will replace the old system.—The American Campus.
