DOCTOR ADAMS OF RICHMOND WILL DELIVER COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

Ninety-five Seniors to Receive Their Diplomas May Thirty-first

(Meredith News Bureau)

Dr. Theodore F. Adams, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Richmond, Va., will deliver the commencement address Monday morning, May 31, at Meredith College when degrees will be awarded to 95 seniors. Dr. Adams will come to Meredith on the invitation of the senior class and the board of trustees. Last year's commencement speaker was Dr. Bernard C. Clausen, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Pittsburg, Pa., who had delivered eight previous commencement addresses at Meredith.

The commencement program will begin Friday evening, May 28, when the music department will give its annual concert and on the Saturday following, May 29, the annual Class Day exercises will be held in the afternoon and society night will be observed that evening. Society night will be observed in the usual manner, with the presentation of a speaker by the two literary societies. This speaker has not yet been chosen. At this time the various literary awards will be made and new members for Kappa Nu Sigma and Silver Shield announced. The baccalaureate sermon will be preached Sunday morning, May 30 in the college auditorium by Dr. Luther Little, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Charlotte and Dr. Olin T. Binkley of the Chapel Hill Baptist Church will preach the annual missionary sermon Sunday evening. The exhibit of the work of the seniors in the art department will be on display the same day.

PLANS FOR WAKE FOREST-MEREDITH SUMMER SCHOOL COMPLETED

Sessions at Mars Hill and Wake Forest to Last Nine Weeks

Plans for the 1937 session of the Wake Forest-Meredith Summer School have been completed and the new catalogue is now available. The central unit is, as usual, at Wake Forest College, and the western unit at Mars Hill College. There are two sessions, the nine-weeks session from June 9 to August 7 and the six-weeks session from June 9 to July 21. Credits may be earned not only on all state certificates, teachers', principals' and superintendents', but also on degrees awarded by the colleges including the M.A. degree at Wake Forest. Part of the credits toward the M.A. degree may be earned at Mars Hill.

A faculty of seventy for the two divisions offers courses in biology, chemistry, commercial education, dramatics, education, English, geography, history, government, economics, mathematics, modern languages, Latin, physics, psychology and philosophy, religion, school arts, physical education, music, drawing, industrial arts, and penmanship. Pre-medical courses are offered in both divisions, and law courses are offered for credit on a degree at Wake Forest. This year a demonstration school

"SOPH DAY OFF" OBSERVED ON SATURDAY, APRIL 3

The Program for Annual Party Is Furnished by Freshmen

On Saturday, April 3, the sophomore class had its customary "Soph Day Off," followed by a party in the Phi Hall that evening.

Activities of the day began at 6:00 a.m. when freshmen were summoned to inspection by a bugle call. This was followed by roll call in the court. From that time 'til 7:30 various antics, stunts, and forms of homage were exacted from the freshmen. They furnished abundant amusement in the dining room at breakfast time. Throughout the day the freshmen were required to perform any service that the sophomores asked of them. The activities in this realm came to a climax at five o'clock in the afternoon, when Alice La Rogue, acting as judge, called "Goat Court" to order and sentenced offenders of the day to various penalties and indignities.

Social festivities began at 7:00 in the evening; Wake Forest sophomores were honor guests, in view of their having painted the class numerals on the water tank. Chaperones were Miss Mary Susan Steele, and Miss Hazel Clark. Music was furnished throughout the evening by "Bubbles" Becker and his orchestra.

Aside from this entertainment, a program was presented by members of the freshman class. Janet Aikman, after welcoming all guests, introduced Sarah Olive who acted as mistress of ceremonies. The program followed the order of a rainy April day in harmony with colorful decorative arrangements. Umbrellas and raindrops were profuse and a rainbow encircling the stage was reinforced by an array of rainbow colored balloons. Favors were tiny colored umbrellas. The program consisted of a number of vocal renditions, a pantomime, and a chorus.

Throughout the evening, guests enjoyed refreshments. Peanuts, punch, ice cream, and cake were served by a group of freshmen, dressed in maid's costumes.

ELIJAH PRESENTED BY WAKE FOREST - MEREDITH CHOIRS

The Meredith College Choir together with the Wake Forest Glee Club presented Mendelssohn's "Elijah" in the Meredith Auditorium Sunday afternoon, March 21 at 4:15. The presentation was under the direction of Mr. Leslie P. Spelman, head of the Meredith Music Department.

Soloists who took part were Miss Ragna Otterson and Miss Hazel Martin, sopranos; Miss Ethel Rowland, contralto; Mr. John Toms, tenor; and Mr. A. J. Fletcher, baritone.

The chorus was accompanied by an orchestra made up of the following: First violin: Charlotte Houston, Genevieve Frifey and Edgar Alden; Second violin: Dorothy Alden and Olive Hamrick; Viola: Mary Jo Holtz and Major C. D. Kutchinski; Cello: Pauline Wagar, Catherine Kenard and Charles Freeman. Others taking part were Miss Aileen McMillan, Miss Virginia Branch and Mr. Lyman Seymour, pianists and Mrs. Catherine Miller, organist.

FRANCES TATUM, ADELAIDE HARRIS HONORED BY KNS

Doctor Royster Delivers Annual Honor Society Lecture

On Monday evening, March 11, in the college auditorium the Kappa Nu Sigma Honor Society presented Dr. Herbert Royster of Raleigh, as guest speaker for the annual lecture sponsored by the society. Dr. Royster, who chose as his subject "Education and Its Counterparts," examined the relative value of a universal, compulsory system of education with that of a more selective system. Immediately preceding the introduction of the speaker announcement was made of the two new members elected to the society, Frances Tatum of Fayetteville, and Adelaide Harris of Norwood. The choice was made upon the basis of scholarship.

The annual banquet for the society was held at the Old Rose Inn, covers being laid for Dr. and Mrs. Brewer, Dr. Herbert Royster, Mr. and Mrs. Boomhour, Miss Mary Steele, Mrs. Ella Price, and the students and faculty alumnae members of the organization. Presiding at the banquet was Eleanor Edwards, president of the society. A toast to the new members was made by Margaret Kramer.

The lecture was followed by an informal reception in the parlors honoring the speaker and the new member. Serving at the reception were Catherine Johnson and Helen Jones, the two girls having maintained the highest scholastic average in the sophomore class.

Wester and Sewell Win in "Oak Leaves" and "Acorn" Elections

Student elections for major campus offices have continued with the elections of the society presidents, the president of the Athletic Association, the editors of the publications, the presidents of the incoming senior and junior classes, and the chief college marshal.

Kate Mills Suiter and Carolyn Parker were elected presidents of the Astrotekton and Philaretian societies respectively. Harriet Rose was elected president of the Athletic Association. For the editors Frances Tatum was elected editor of the Twig, Charlotte Wester, of the Oak Leaves, and June Fay Sewell of the Acorn.

Friday morning, April 9, Hazel Bass of Farmville was victorious over Margaret O'Brian for the office of college marshal.

Anne Potat was elected incoming Senior Class president and Barbara Behrman the incoming Junior class president.

The president of the Astro Society, Kate Mills Suiter, of Scotland Neck, was victorious over Margaret O'Brian of Asheboro. Kate Mills was president of her freshman class, has been marshal of the Astro Society and has this year been business manager of the Twig. Margaret is the present junior class president and has taken prominent part in other campus activities.

For Philaretian president, Carolyn Parker, of Florence, South Carolina, was elected over Hazel Bass of Farmville and Lillian Poe of Oxford. Carolyn has been active in society and religious work on the campus, and has taken leads in several of the Little Theater productions. Hazel has been a society marshal and has taken a prominent part in other college activities. Lillian has also distinguished herself on the campus in various student organizations.

Harriet Rose of Wadesboro was unanimously elected president of the Athletic Association in an uncontested election on March 13. Harriet has been vice president this year and has been exceptionally prominent in
