

VOGUE'S THIRD PRIX DE PARIS CONTEST IS ON

First Prize is Year's Employment on Fashion Magazine and Six Months in Paris

New York.—For the third successive year, the editors of Vogue are announcing a career competition open to members of the senior classes of accredited colleges and universities throughout the country.

As in the past two years, there will be two major prizes, each offering a position, with salary, on the staff of Vogue magazine. The winner of the first prize will be awarded one full year's employment with Vogue, six months of which will be spent in the New York office, the remaining six months in Vogue's Paris office. A second prize of six months on Vogue's New York editorial staff will be awarded the runner-up. Both the first prize winner and runner-up will be eligible for permanent positions on Vogue's staff after completion of their trial periods.

Last year's Prix de Paris was awarded to Miss Virginia Van Brunt, of Hixson, Wisconsin, a senior at the University of Wisconsin. Second prize went to Miss Alice Schultz, of Wellesley, Mass., a senior at Smith. Besides the two announced awards, one contestant, Miss Rosemary Farr, of Concord, was placed in Vogue's social department and another, Elizabeth Winspear, of the University of North Carolina, in Vogue's Merchandising Department.

Executives of leading stores, manufacturing firms, advertising agencies and newspapers continue to show great interest in this contest. At least ten of the ranking participants in last year's Prix de Paris found positions with these organizations. For further information as to rules of the contest, see the editor of your paper.

HIKES SPONSORED BY ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

About twenty girls went on a hike and wicker roast in the woods back of Meredith on Friday, October 1. This was the first in the series of weekly outdoor trips planned for this fall by Kilton Peele, hiking manager.

The girls met at the B-hive at five o'clock, and set out as soon as all had arrived with Mildred Ann Critcher, Helen Edwards and Betty Vernon acting as guides.

As soon as the clearing was reached a fire was built and the roasting of wickers begun. Coffee, made by Ella Eddins and Harriet Rose before leaving Meredith, was used as a drink.

The girls returned to school by seven-thirty, all declaring that they were anxious to repeat the trip soon.

Between Classes Visit Meredith's Nearest Drug Store Sinclair's

Get Your MIDNITE SNACKS and PARTY SUPPLIES at ALLEN'S MARKET "Buy while you wait for the bus"

Always Remember to VISIT THE Cally "Where the Elite Meet and Eat"

ATHLETES CONDUCT CHAPEL EXERCISES

(Meredith News Bureau) Prior to launching the fall sports program at Meredith College, the Athletic Association took charge of the assembly hour recently to present a prospectus of the year's athletic activities to the new students. This is the first year that Meredith is initiating a program of sports in the accredited physical education classes. In addition the Athletic Association will sponsor a full schedule of intramural competition in major sports.

Harriet Rose of Wadesboro, president of the Athletic Association, introduced to the audience Miss Betty Adkerson, new athletic director, who will supervise the sports program. Wilba Mills of Apex, president of the Monogram Club, recognized other letterwomen, and in turn explained the point system upon which the award of monograms is based. Describing the sports they represent and inviting try-outs for class teams from the new girls were the following managers of the campus sports: Eleanor Rodwell of Norlina, for hockey; Dorothy Crawford of Goldsboro, for tennis; Dorothy Willson of Athens, Tenn., for basketball; Sada Louise Clark of Severn, for baseball; Aileen Snow of Maplewood, N. J., for soccer; Betty Vernon of Brooklyn, N. Y., for recreational sports; Kilton Peele of Goldsboro, for hiking; Minnie Anna Forney of Lawndale, for archery; Iris Rose Gibson of High Point, for swimming; Alta Critcher of Williamson, for golf; and Lester Bailey of Fort Bragg, for riding.

Other officers of the Athletic Association introduced were Betty Lyon of Elkin, vice-president; Ella Eddins of Jackson Heights, N. Y., secretary; Rebecca Helsbeck of King, treasurer; Dorothy Greene of Danville, Va., publicity chairman, and Mary Herring of Kinston, social director.

MURALS

Effie Raye Calhoun of Dover, a member of the class of '37, last spring painted the murals in the senior parlor. The plans for them, which depict college traditions, are original with Miss Calhoun. As a part of the traditional gift of the senior class to the college, the graduating class furnished the paint used in the work.

The first panel portrays for the most part lines in the Alma Mater written by Dr. R. T. Vann, former president of Meredith. The lines represented in the painting are as follows:

"At thy feet our loyal hearts their tribute lay . . .
"In the midland where the wild deer love to roam,
"Where the water-lily stumbers while the cypress guards its rest . . .

"Where the sons of Carolina taught a Nation to be free . . .
"O'er a land of peaceful plenty, from the highlands to the sea . . ."

The buildings represent the part played by Meredith girls in the building of a nation in the future, and the airplane symbolizes the hopes and aspirations for the future.

The second panel is equally representative of college traditions and activities on the campus. There is a senior holding the Crook and a diploma; the girls seated holding the green scroll symbolizes the Philareian society. Sophomores may be seen picking the daisies for the daisy chain to be used in the class day exercises. The college is noted in the background, and the college flower, the iris, is also shown in the painting.

The rock in the third mural represents the solid foundation on which Meredith is built; Mother Astro and the goat are emblems of the Astrotekon Society.

Don't forget that your budget fee is due Monday, October 11. Cooperate with us and pay this fee right way.

Hockey Season Begins

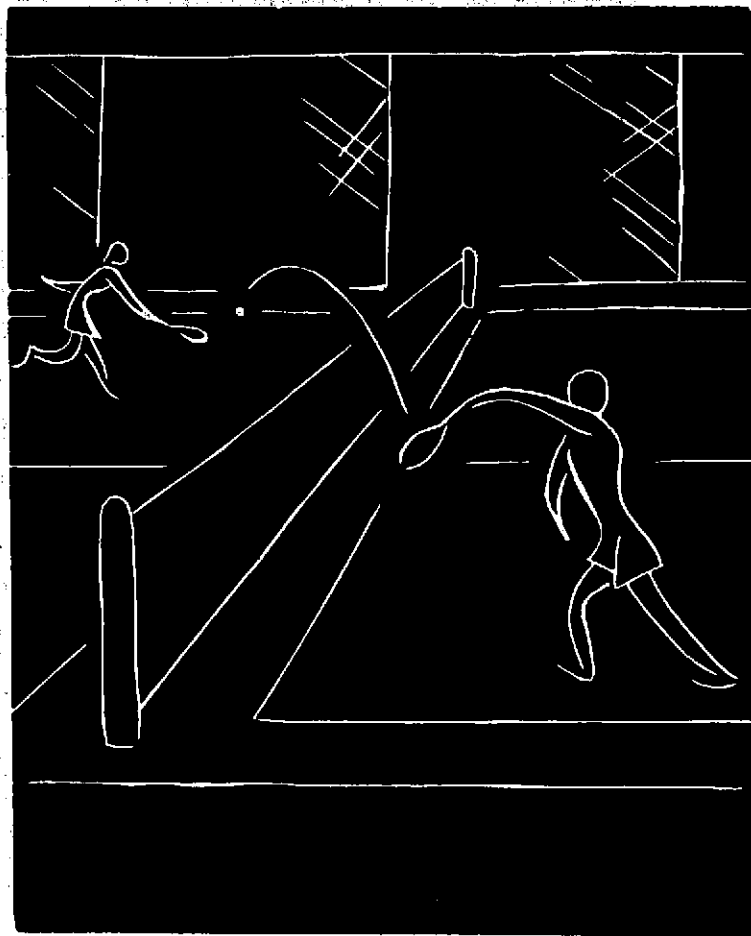

With much enthusiasm and fine turn outs for practice, the hockey season has started, plans having been made for the freshman and junior teams to practice on Monday at 4:30 and the sophomore and senior teams on Wednesday at the same time. All classes are to practice on Friday afternoon.

The freshmen have shown an unusually good response with forty-five of the new girls coming out for the first practice. Although Manager Eleanor Rodwell has spent some time on the field demonstrating the uses to which "old crooked sticks" may be put, she has found that an unusually large number of girls are already familiar with the game.

The captain of the freshman team elected at the last practice is Pauline Karl of Ohio.

IT'S THE "RACQUET," GIRLS

By HARRIET ROSE

FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

Davidson
Oct. 9.	V. M. I. Lexington, Va.	Nov. 6.	North Carolina Davidson
Oct. 16.	South Carolina Columbia	Nov. 13.	Harvard Cambridge
Oct. 23.	Centre Danville, Ky.	Nov. 20.	Wake Forest Charlotte
Oct. 30.	Furman Charlotte
Duke
Oct. 9.	Tennessee Durham	Nov. 6.	Wake Forest Durham
Oct. 16.	Ga. Tech Atlanta	Nov. 13.	N. Carolina Durham
Oct. 23.	Colgate Hamilton	Nov. 20.	N. C. State Raleigh
Oct. 30.	Wash. & Lee Richmond	Nov. 25.
North Carolina
Oct. 9.	N. Y. U. New York City	Nov. 6.	Davidson Davidson
Oct. 16.	Wake Forest Wake Forest	Nov. 13.	Duke Durham
Oct. 23.	Tulane Chapel Hill	Nov. 20.
Oct. 30.	Fordham Chapel Hill	Nov. 25.	Virginia Chapel Hill
N. C. State
Oct. 9.	Furman Greenville	Nov. 6.	Citadel Raleigh
Oct. 16.	V. P. I. Raleigh	Nov. 13.	Manhattan New York
Oct. 23.	Wake Forest Wake Forest	Nov. 20.	Duke Raleigh
Oct. 30.	Boston College Boston	Nov. 25.
Wake Forest
Oct. 9.	Erskine Wake Forest	Nov. 6.	Duke Durham
Oct. 16.	N. Carolina Wake Forest	Nov. 12.	Wofford Wake Forest
Oct. 23.	N. C. State Wake Forest	Nov. 20.
Oct. 30.	Clemson Clemson	Nov. 25.	Davidson Charlotte

.. IN OUR LIBRARY ..

By IRIS ROSE GIBSON

The library has recently added around thirty-five new books making the total of books catalogued 20,179. Dealing with all fields of literature and written in all varieties of style, they afford one an interesting sidelight into the type of book in demand by our college students.

Among the most discussed books we find that, surprisingly, best seller Hohen's Mathematics for Millions. This book tells in a different way from your mathematics teacher all about the subject. Hohen deals with the origin and application today of all forms of mathematics. Another unusual book is Murdon's biography, A Woman Surgeon. This book will be especially interesting to medical students but all will find it fascinating. The two most beautifully illustrated books are Roberts' Inside 100 Homes and Wild Flowers by House. The former is filled with photographs of the homes of such famous moderns as Lily Pons, Laurence Tibbett and Fannie Hurst. Not much larger than a magazine, this is a book that no one will want to miss seeing. Wild Flowers is page after page of lovely color plates. Even if you are not interested in botany, take a look at the wild orchids. A book invoking a great deal of comment is Bauer's Twentieth Century Music. Find out how jazz stands with classical music. Clark and Quigley's, Etiquette Jr. will tell you a great many things you never knew before about the much discussed subject of etiquette.

Books on present day topics of interest include Coronation Commentary, Geoffrey Dennis' explanation on what the coronation was all about with the addition of the two chapters necessitated by Edward's abdication; McKelvey's American Prisons; Craven's Modern Art; Morse and MacNair's Far Eastern International Relations; North's Social Problems and Social Planning; Weissman's Problems of Modern Music; Parry's Style in Musical Art and Becker's Reading Menus. Books of help along commercial lines are: How to Illustrate for Money, by Hydeman; Houghton, Writer's Handbook, and Bryan, The School Cafeteria.

Richard Crooks Will Appear In Winston-Salem

Many noted artists are to appear under the auspices of the Civic Music Association in Winston-Salem this year. The program is as follows: November 3, Cornelia Otis Skinner; November 22, Salzburg Opera Guild; January 15, Heber Japson, soprano; February 2, National Symphony Orchestra; March 2, Richard Crooks, tenor; April, Luboshutz and Nemenoff, duo pianists.

Raleigh Little Theatre Announces Fall Production

"East Lynne" by Ellen Wood will open the 1937-38 season of the Raleigh Little Theatre. Tentative dates for production of the melodrama are November 3, 4, and 5. Scenery and costumes of the period of 1850 will be revived in the performance.

Wilbur Dorsett, director of the Little Theatre, has just returned from two weeks in New York City studying current productions.

HISTORY ATTRACTS TAR HEEL SCRIBES

Twenty-seven Volumes Arranged For Mayflower Cup Competition

The (Raleigh News and Observer)—North Carolina writers are interested chiefly in history, biography and poetry. It was indicated by a preliminary list of volumes eligible for Mayflower Cup competition, made public last month by Dr. C. C. Crittenden, secretary of the State Literary and Historical Association.

The list included 10 titles of history and biography, five of poetry, four of science, two of religion, two of fiction, one of drama, and one compilation—a total of 27. The final list, to be published within a few weeks, will include late additions.

The Mayflower Cup contest covers the 12 months ending August 31 and is open only to resident North Carolinians. The judges are the president of the Association, and the heads of the history and English departments of Duke University and the Women's College of the University of North Carolina. The award will be announced at the annual session of the Association, Friday evening, December 3.

A list of eligible works includes: History and biography—"Cloude Kitchen and the Wilson War Policies" by Alex Matthews Arnett, "The Clergy of Connecticut in Revolutionary Days" by Alice Mary Baldwin, "Marshall Neys A Dual Life" by Legett Blythe, "The Ancient World" by Wallace Everett Caldwell, "John Carlisle Kitgos President of Trinity College, 1897-1910" by Paul Neff Garber, "Dictionary of the Writers of Thirteenth Century England" by Josiah Cox Russell, "The Glittering Century" by Phillips Russell, "The Development of Modern Medicine" by Richard H. Shryock, "The Education of Horace Williams" by Henry Horace Williams and "It's A Far Cry" by Robert W. Winston. Poetry—"Bowl of Petunias" and "Wicks in Earthenware" by Clare Burt, "Songs of Summer Nights" by Andrew J. Howell, "A Star Shines" by Elizabeth Simonton Thomas and "River Acres" by Ruth Vail.

Science—"Alcohol and Habit-forming Drugs" by Grant L. Donnelly, "Trees of North Carolina" by Charlotte Hilton Green, "Feeding Our Children" by Frank Howard Richardson and "Medical Morals and Manners" by H. A. Royster.

Religion—"The Social Manifesto of Jesus" by Edwin McNeill Potat and "Living Religions and Modern Thought" by Allan G. Widgery.

Education—"Are American Teachers Free?" by Howard K. Beale and "The High School Science Teacher and His Work," by Carleton E. Preston.

Fiction—"Call It Freedom" by Marian Sims and "Acres of Beauty" by Louise Jennings Tuttle.

Drama—"The Lost Colony" by Paul Green.

Miscellaneous—"Facts to Know North Carolina" by John M. Mullen, compiler.

CLASS TENNIS TEAMS CHOSEN BY MANAGER

Dorothy Crawford, tennis manager, has swung the tennis season off to a good start, having rounded up the school's best players for the class teams.

The teams are as follows: Freshman: Anne Mills (captain), Martha Whitted, Mable Saunders, Sarah Haworth, Juanita Stainback, Elfrida Barker. Substitutes: Catherine Scott, Rosanna Barnes, Demi Chandler, Virginia Morgan, and Portia Tatum.

Sophomore: Ella Eddins (captain), Aileen Snow, Frances Spillman, Sarah Pope, Hannah Reece, Carolyn Critcher. Substitutes: Virginia Slenter, Ellen Trogden, and Minetta Bartlett.

Junior: Doris De Vault (captain), Dorothy De Vault, Dorothy Willson, Dorothy Crawford, Barbara Behrman, Sada Clark. Substitutes: Alta Critcher and Alice Shelley.

Senior: Kate Mills Suiter, Wilba Mills, Anne Potat, Harriet Rose, Frances Tatum, Eleanor Rodwell, and Iris Massey.

Visit Raleigh's Most Popular College Drug Store Boon-Iseley's

TOWN STUDENTS

Marion Wallace, class of '37, last year's Town Girls' president, is spending a few days in Raleigh with her mother, Mrs. Lillian Parker Wallace. Marion has been studying for the past few months at Columbia University and is now taking a technician's course.

The Town Girls' Club is pleased to welcome in its group Mary Lee Oliver, a resident student of last year, and her sister, Aylett Oliver.

MANY SPEAKERS TO ADDRESS TEACHERS

Humorists Added to Program of N. C. Education Association as Entertainers

The North Carolina Education Association will hold six district meetings between October 15 and November 20 for a program of "good teaching." Jule B. Warren, secretary of the association, predicted that the session would attract 10,400 school teachers.

Educators of the nation have been engaged for the program, as well as two humorists who will add an entertainment feature to the meetings.

Among the speakers will be: Dr. Frank M. Hickman, Duke University; Dr. Maycie Southall, George Peabody College professor; Dr. Elbert K. Fretwell, of Columbia University; Dr. Francis P. Gaines, president of Washington and Lee University of Lexington, Va.; Dr. Willis Sutton, superintendent of Atlantic City schools; Dr. Clare Zye, New York University; and Dr. Burton Fowler, principal of Towler Hill School at Wilmington.

Schedule of Little Theatre Announced

Margaret Love Clarke, president of the Little Theatre, and Mrs. Harold List, director, announce the traditional freshman play will follow Stunt Night this year, as preparation for stunts leaves little time for practice. The major production of the fall will be given some time in December. The plays have not yet been selected. The regular meetings of the Little Theatre will be held on the second Thursday of each month.

STUDENTS . . .

You owe your family a really good photograph of yourself.

Include it in your budget and make an appointment with

SIDDELL STUDIO

126 1/2 Fayetteville St. Tel. 2449 Raleigh, N. C.

Taylor's

FOR

24 YEARS HAS BEEN

The Leading Store In Raleigh

BE SURE AND SEE OUR MANY

IMPROVEMENTS SINCE

LAST YEAR

TAYLOR'S

The Show Place of the Carolinas