Dr. Vann's Founders' Day Message

With hearty greetings and felicitations, let me express the hope that we all may recall and ever remember the supreme purpose of Meredith's founders—the ultimate purpose, including all subsidiary objects, or every religious enterprise of whatever kind...

Founders' Day

The messages, coin cards, checks and bills poured in the alumnae office last week. So interesting were these messages, whether by telegram, letter, or coin card that they were displayed over the weekend in the administration building.

Hill; Mrs. M. R. Cox, Staley; Katherine Knorr, Kneer; Elizabeth Edgerton, Statesville; Mabel Bean, Hattiesburg...

Chicago, Ill.

Hearty greetings to my Alma Mater from me and the "windy city."

MARY McCULLERS, '12.

Waterloo, Iowa

Congratulations on your thirty-ninth birthday! My wish for the future is that you will continue to render even more excellent service for our Savior by sending out each year more consecrated and educated young women...

MAUD BROOK, '26.

Jackson, Miss.

I should love to be at Meredith today. Hope it has been her happiest birthday and that her future holds many fine things for her.

LOUISE CHAVEN GODWIN, '29.

Teaneck, New Jersey

May there be an endless procession of happy and prosperous birthdays for Meredith.

BESSIE GRAY GILL HOLMAN, '30.

Cincinnati, Ohio

Thirty-nine steps up! Best wishes for Alma Mater and her friends from an ambulant but loyal alumna.

BARRE PRITCHETT, '23.

Shawnee, Oklahoma

Greetings and congratulations to Meredith on her thirty-ninth birthday!

MAUD MEMORY WATKINS, '12.

Chambersburg, Pa.

Though I may sing other Alma Mater's now, still in my thoughts I always bow to the Alma Mater, queen of my heart—Meredith.

SARAH BIRGGS, '31.

Jenkintown, Pa.

Today we are one in thought. Rich memories of the past bind us to the present and give us dreams of our future Meredith. As we lustily sing our grand old song let's honor its author, also our president and his approaching silver anniversary.

CARMEN ROGERS, '18.

Anderson, S. C.

Happy birthday and best wishes to our Alma Mater! Although miles away and very busy—just keeping house—we shall remember you with loving thoughts.

MARGARET GREGORY SADLER, '10.

Anderson, S. C.

(This message was read on the radio program Founders' Day.) Founders' Day, along with Washington's birthday and Valentine's day, makes February outstanding for Meredith alumnae.

ROSA PASCHAL, '02.

Pasadena, Texas

From far away Texas I send my felicitations to you on this auspicious day. May the years to come bring all those things which we who love you wish for you.

EMMA MOTTE MURPHY, '30.

Staunton, Virginia

You are only a young girl now, Meredith, but remember, "life begins at forty!"

EDWINA MARTIN CROWTHER, '32.

Cavendish, Vermont

I am sending every good wish for Meredith on her thirty-ninth birthday and for the years to come.

CAROLYN PEACOCK POOLE, '27.

Other Messages

The Class of 1933 On Founders' Day the Class of '33, which claims the mystic three as its very own, wishes for Alma Mater a three-fold blessing: Long life, an ever-increasing field of service, and (like the old-woman-who-lived-in-a-shoe) many daughters.

PAT ABERNETHY, President.

Aulander

With a grateful heart I greet you, dear Alma Mater, on your thirty-ninth birthday. I shall always be indebted to you for what you have meant to me.

MIMIE ELIZABETH COX JENKINS, '09.

Boonville

May each succeeding birthday find a better college plant, a more interested student body, and more loyal alumnae.

PIERRE DAY, '24.

Clayton

I know no better reason for robbing my "dime bank" than to help fill the swimming pool!

VIRGINIA CRAWFORD HENDERSON, '31.

Burlington

A penny for each birthday passed and one to make you grow. Your daughters send you, Mother, dear From out their hard-earned dough.

MARGARET WHEELER KELLEY, '26.

Durham

May every good thing come to Alma Mater, dear! Especially a swimming pool before another year!

MARGUERITE MASON WILKINS, '30.

Hingham, Mass.

From the wintry coast of Massachusetts come greetings to our alumnae and students. Meredith's history makes us thankful for her founders and justly proud of her attainment.

MILDRED MCINTYRE STACK, '15.

Edenton

Each year, Alma Mater, adds to your beauty and your charms for us, your children.

EMMA BYRUM HOBBS, '11.

Fayetteville

Greetings to Mother Meredith as she completes another memorable year.

RUTH PRIVOTT, '37.

Fayetteville

Alma Mater, at your birthday party, an alumna would be very naughty. Her respects not to pay.

EDITH HALL, '09.

Mount Airy

To the very best school I know—May you live long, prosper much, and make all your children as happy as you've made me.

ALMA REID, '36.

Milton

I am so glad that some one planned it so that I can have a small part in Alma Mater's birthday gift.

MARY MCGAIDEN SATTERFIELD, '31.

Chalybeate Springs

Four dimes and four coupons I send now to you, with a hearty greeting for Founders' Day, too.

NELLIE PAGE SMITH, '17.

Wadesboro

With my sincerest best wishes for the best college in the world. I'll be listening-in Friday.

EMILY HUNTLEY MCKINNON, '11.

Woodsdale

As a proof of my love for Meredith I have two daughters there now, and feel they could be at no better place.

ANNIE JONES HALL, ex-10.

Winterville

Again the candle power of your birthday cake has increased. But it is a joyous satisfaction to know that your "Luz" is also steadily increasing.

Wake Forest

Greetings and gratitude to our Alma Mater from my three girls—Evelyn, Ruanie, Hildreth—and their mother.

ETHEL CARROLL SQUIRES, '07.
