

VOTE RIGHT!

THE TWIG

Published Biweekly as the Official Organ of the Student Body of Meredith College

RALEIGH, N. C.

Buy From the Twig Advertisers

Volume XVII

MEREDITH COLLEGE, RALEIGH, N. C., MARCH 19, 1938

Number 8

Dr. Graham Is Guest Of Scholastic Society; Speaks To Students

Juniors C. Johnson and K. Midgett Received As New Members By Kappa Nu Sigma; Organization to Award Scholarship to Freshman Making Highest Scholastic Average.

PRESENTS MISS LOWDERMILK IN PIANO RECITAL

Works of Chopin, Mozart and Brahms on Program

MISS CRAWFORD PLAYS PIANO ACCOMPANIMENT

Miss May Crawford will present Dorothy Lowdermilk in her graduating recital Friday evening, March 25, at 8:15 o'clock.

The recital program will consist of:

Sonata, A Major, Mozart.

Intermezzo op. 76 No. 3, Brahms.

Hungarian Dance No. 7, Brahms.

Rhapsody, G Minor, Brahms.

Nocturne op. 9 No. 2, Chopin.

Iaick, Mokrejs.

Waltz from "Coppelia," Delibes.

Dohnanyi.

Concerto, F Sharp Minor, Hiller.

Orchestra accompaniment for the last number will be played on a second piano by Miss May Crawford.

Ushers for the recital will be Jaunita Lowdermilk of Valdese, Frances Morris of Marshall, Rachel Leonard Smith of Winston-Salem, Mary Elizabeth Ferrell of Elkin, Hilda Earp and Emily Bethune, Meredith.

After the recital a reception will be held in the college parlors to which everyone is cordially invited. May Marshbanks of Campbell will preside at the punch bowl. Those serving will be Miriam Barker of Valdese, Evelyn Britt, Mary Leigh Parnell, Katherine Covington, Jocelyn House and Mary Gavin, Meredith.

Addresses Students

DR. FRANK P. GRAHAM

MEREDITH GLEE CLUB SINGS OVER RADIO

Novelty Number Completes Program; Evelyn Britt Accompanist

The Meredith Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Ethel Rowland, voice professor, broadcast a program of vocal music over Station WPTF Tuesday night, March 15th.

On Thursday, March 10th, prior to this broadcast, the glee club gave its annual concert in the college auditorium. Miss Evelyn Britt, St. Pauls, was the accompanist for the occasion. She also played two piano selections—“The Stars,” by Schubert, arranged by Guy Moier, and “Etude Opus 10, No. 8,” by Chopin.

A trio composed of Pauline Stroud, Margaret Liles and Catherine Johnson, accompanied by Dorothy Lowdermilk, sang a group of songs which included “Twas April,” Nevin, and “To a Wild Rose,” by MacDowell.

Other numbers on the program which were sung by the entire club included “Dedication,” Franz, “Nocturne,” Noble Cain, “Open Thy Blue Eyes,” by Massenet, “On the Steppes,” by Gretchaninoff, a Czechoslovakian folk song arranged by Deems Taylor, and “A Violin is Singing in the Street,” a Ukrainian folk song arranged by Koschett.—Continued on page 3.

Elliot.

LITTLE THEATRE BEGINS WORK ON FRESHMAN PLAY

Two Society Plays Are Also Cast; To Be Fantasies

SPRING PRODUCTION TO BE “SMILING THROUGH”

Two Society Plays To Be Sequels To Each Other; Astro Play Entitled “Maker of Dreams”; Phi Play Called “Hearts to Mend.”

Under supervision of Miss Frances Bailey, head of spoken English department, the Little Theatre has already begun work on three plays for the spring semester. These include the two society plays and the freshman play. Preparations have been made to begin work on the major spring production, “Smiling Through,” also. Try-outs have been held and committees appointed for the staging of this play.

The freshman play, to be given March 29, is an Irish comedy, “Spreading the News.” The cast of characters include the following: Bartley Fallon, Juanita Stainback; Mrs. Fallon, Ernestine Hobgood; Jack Smith, Ida Howell; Mrs. Tarpey, Mina Lou Rustin; Shawn Early, Willena Schoene; Magistrate, Frances Snow; Joe Muldoon, Dorothy Perry; James Ryan, Betty Fleischmann; Mrs. Tully, Rachel Lewis.

The two society plays, which are fantasies and sequels to one another, will be given at the same time as the freshman play. The title of the Astro play is “Maker of Dreams,” and the cast of characters include the following: Pierrette, Geraldine Tuttle; Pierrot, Rebecca Vaughan; Maker of Dreams, Kathleen Jackson.

The Phi play follows the Astro play and the title is “Hearts to Mend,” with the following girls as the players: Pierrette, Anne Long Bradsher; Pierrot, Dorothy Haywood; “Tins-to-mend” Man, Betty Elliot.

Ben L. Smith of Greensboro, was nominated for the office of president of the convention for the coming year. Balloting took place Friday for the offices of vice president, the nominees being Dr. J. Henry Highsmith, State Director of Instructional Service, and Dr. William A. Brownell of Duke University.

On March 19, the freshman class will gather in the Philharmonic Society Hall for an English garden party. Mary Tilson Edwards, president of the freshman class, who is in charge of the program, said the orchestra for the occasion has not yet been secured.

The sophomore class party will be held on March 26, in the Philharmonic Society Hall as a climax to “soph-day-off.” The program and decorations are under the direction of Aileen Snow.

DEANS AT MEREDITH ENTERTAIN FRESHMEN

Stringfield Hall Residents Guests at Tea In Vann Hall

(Raleigh News and Observer)

Miss Anna May Baker, dean of women at Meredith College, and Mrs. Vera Tart Marsh, assistant dean, entertained the freshmen who reside on the second floor of Stringfield Hall at a formal tea yesterday afternoon in the social room of Vann Hall. Around 40 guests called between 4:30 and 5:30 o'clock.

Guests were welcomed by Miss Baker, who wore a formal afternoon dress of floral crepe and Mrs. Marsh who was dressed in a black and gold hostess gown. Others invited to receive with the deans were Miss Ethel English, adviser to the freshmen; Dr. Mary Lynch Johnson, and Miss Janet Aikman of Maplewood, N. J., vice president of the Stringfield Hall.

A low silver bowl of pastel hyacinths decorated the tea table which was spread with a madeline cloth, and tea was poured by Miss Anne Huffman of Morganton and Miss Margaret Gattton of Statesville. Narcissus and baskets of spirea were used in other parts of the room. Serving sandwiches in decorated motif were Misses Helen.

Margaret O'Brian, president of the society, announced that at an early date two new members from the senior class are to be tapped for membership in the Silver Shield.

Continued on page 8.

Mildred Ann Critcher Is Elected Student Government President; Barbara Behrman Heads B.S.U.

SENIORS LOSE CHAMPIONSHIP TO FRESHMEN

Manager Announces Members of Varsity Ball Squad

FACULTY-SENIOR GAME ONE OF MAJOR INTEREST

The members of the freshman basketball team were declared champions after a series of intramural games, having defeated the senior team by one point in the fastest and most exciting game of the season. This was the first time the seniors had been defeated in basketball during their college career.

The results of the games played are as follows: freshmen 28, sophomores 10; seniors 24, sophomores 11; freshmen 22, juniors 13; and freshmen 22, seniors 21.

The captains of the class teams were: Margaret Seymour, senior; Charlotte Peebles, junior; Jane Washburn, sophomore; and Ellen McIntyre, freshman.

One of the major attractions of the basketball season is the game between the faculty and members of the senior class. The date will be announced in the near future by the B. S. U., which sponsors this contest each year.

Dorothy Willson, manager of basketball, has announced the names of the players selected for the varsity, as follows: First varsity, Margaret Seymour, Ellen McIntyre, Ida Howell, Wilma Mills, forwards; Jeanette Olive, Rebecca Halsbeck, Charlotte Peebles Dorothy Haywood, guards. Second varsity, Doris DeVault, Dot Willson, Harriet Rose, Ruth Hicks, forwards; Frances Tatum, Juanita Stainback, Iris Massey and Annie Lee Tarleton, guards. In a game played between the second and first varsity teams, the latter won by a wide margin.

PARTIES TO BE GIVEN FOR UNDERCLASSMEN

It is customary for the freshmen and sophomore classes to entertain at a party each spring. Plans are now well under way for these two events.

On March 19, the freshman class will gather in the Philharmonic Society Hall for an English garden party. Mary Tilson Edwards, president of the freshman class, who is in charge of the program, said the orchestra for the occasion has not yet been secured.

The sophomore class party will be held on March 26, in the Philharmonic Society Hall as a climax to “soph-day-off.” The program and decorations are under the direction of Aileen Snow.

New Field Secretary To Represent College

The Rev. Mr. J. M. Hayes has been engaged as field secretary for Meredith College as announced by Dr. Charles E. Brewer, president. The Rev. Mr. Hayes has already begun work, representing the college in the high schools of this and adjoining states. He has been in the Baptist ministry for the past fifteen years, holding the pastorate of the Baptist Church of Beckley, West Virginia, prior to coming to North Carolina eight months ago. Since that time he has been actively engaged in evangelistic work in this State, with headquarters in Winston-Salem.

A piano recital, one of the season's regular entertainments provided for the students by the trustees of Meredith College, was presented by Miss Alice Caldwell, pianist, on Friday, March 18, at 8:15 p.m. in the Meredith auditorium.

An enthusiastic reception was given her throughout the program, which opened with Bach's Partita in B flat, and continued with selections from Brahms, Schumann, and Chopin.

Miss Caldwell was born of American parents in Smyrna, Turkey, making her first visit to America when she was seven years of age. Always deeply interested in the piano, Miss Caldwell studied music in Greece and the Orient, perfecting a touch and interpretation which critics proclaim exceptionally exquisite. Wherever she has played, she has received unstinted praise and appreciation. Miss Caldwell has presented concerts with unqualified success in London, Berlin, Munich, Athens, Sofia, Constantinople, and Smyrna.

The program at Meredith was as follows:

Partita in B flat—Bach; Prae-ludium, Allemande, Corrente, Sarabande, Minuet I, Minuet II, Gigue.

Concerto in D minor—Brahms; Adagio; Rondo, Allegro non troppo, John Winston Fontaine at the second piano.

Papillons, Op. 2, Schumann; Mazurka Op. 33, No. 3 C major; Chopin; Mazurka, Op. 68, No. 2 A minor, Chopin; Scherzo in B minor Op. 20, Chopin.

Two Major Officers Win in Elections by Slight Majority Over Other Candidates; Head of Athletic Association to be Chosen Next Week.

Miss Critcher Miss Behrman

Mildred Ann Critcher, Lexington, has been chosen head of the student body, and Barbara Behrman, Greensboro, has been selected president of the Baptist Student Union in the recent student elections.

These girls won by a slight majority over the other candidates nominated for the positions by a committee composed of the major officers on the campus and three members of the faculty.

Mildred Ann Critcher has been a very active participant in school affairs. The confidence which has been placed in her is evidenced by the honors which she has received during her college career previous to the election as president of the student body. She is at present secretary of the student government, associate editor of the school annual, and associate member of the Silver Shield Honor Society, an honor which is bestowed on only two members of the junior class.

Barbara Behrman is now president of the junior class—Continued on page 3.

ALICE CALDWELL PIANO RECITAL

Program includes Works of Schumann, Chopin, Bach

A piano recital, one of the season's regular entertainments provided for the students by the trustees of Meredith College, was presented by Miss Alice Caldwell, pianist, on Friday, March 18, at 8:15 p.m. in the Meredith auditorium.

An enthusiastic reception was given her throughout the program, which opened with Bach's Partita in B flat, and continued with selections from Brahms, Schumann, and Chopin.

Miss Caldwell was born of American parents in Smyrna, Turkey, making her first visit to America when she was seven years of age. Always deeply interested in the piano, Miss Caldwell studied music in Greece and the Orient, perfecting a touch and interpretation which critics proclaim exceptionally exquisite. Wherever she has played, she has received unstinted praise and appreciation. Miss Caldwell has presented concerts with unqualified success in London, Berlin, Munich, Athens, Sofia, Constantinople, and Smyrna.

The program at Meredith was as follows:

Partita in B flat—Bach; Prae-ludium, Allemande, Corrente, Sarabande, Minuet I, Minuet II, Gigue.

Concerto in D minor—Brahms; Adagio; Rondo, Allegro non troppo, John Winston Fontaine at the second piano.

Papillons, Op. 2, Schumann; Mazurka Op. 33, No. 3 C major; Chopin; Mazurka, Op. 68, No. 2 A minor, Chopin; Scherzo in B minor Op. 20, Chopin.