

Deans Attend N. C. Meeting

Meredith Represented By Miss Anna May Baker, Mrs. Vera Tart Marsh and Miss Ethel English

On March 15, the North Carolina Associations of Deans had their annual meeting at Hugh Morson High School in Raleigh. Miss Anna May Baker, Mrs. Vera Tart Marsh, and Miss Ethel English attended the all-day session as representatives of Meredith. Mrs. Hazen Smith, the president, presided.

The topic for discussion was, "The Use of Tests and Records in a Guidance Program." Dr. K. B. Watson, of Duke University, discussed the phase of academic work; Dr. Bessie Lane, of Meredith College, discussed it in the phase of health; Mrs. Clyde L. Milner, Guilford College, in the social phase; Miss Nancy D. Lewis, W. C. U. N. C., in the vocational phase; and Miss Harriet Elliott, also of W. C. U. N. C., discussed the use of tests and records in the integration of personnel work.

In the evening session several members gave news from the National Deans' Meeting.

At 6:00 Miss Baker and Miss English attended a dinner meeting at the apartment of Miss May McLelland, Dean of Peace College.

Recital Given By Glee Club

Miss Rowland Is Director Of Club; Virginia Council Is President

On Tuesday night, March 19, at eight o'clock in the college auditorium, the Meredith College Glee Club gave its spring recital under the direction of Miss Ethel Rowland.

The program was made up of three groups of songs including one group of modern songs.

In the Glee Club are: Paulyne Stroud, Mary Lois Overby, Dora Virginia Greene, Frances Dixon, Virginia McGougan, Annie Laurie Overton, Hazel Johnston, Sarah Pope, Sarah Falls, Elfreda Barker, Ann Taylor, Juanita Stainback, Mary Esther Williams, Victoria Wood, Alma Carlton, Eula Dixon Hutchison, Edith Harrell, Olive Hamrick, and Louise Boone. Virginia Council, who is president of the club, is also the accompanist.

Silver Shield Gives Banquet

On Wednesday evening, March 13, at 6:30 o'clock, at the Old Rose Tea Room, the Silver Shield Society entertained at a banquet given in the honor of their newly elected members, Minetta Bartlett of Kinston, and Jean Freeman of Aberdeen. The new members were tapped at a recent chapel program. They were both seniors and were chosen on the basis of Christian character, leadership, and service to the school.

The other members of the society who attended the banquet were: Ailene Snow, president; Carolyn Citeher, Ella Eddins, Margaret Jane Childs, Bebe Dickinson, Dorothy Green, Sarah Hayworth, and Juanita Stainback. Special guests were Dr. Julia Harris of the faculty advisory committee for the new organization and the following alumnae members: Misses Pat Abernathy, Catherine Moseley, Norma Rose, and Margaret Kramer.

The Camps Crumb is the name of a lunch service managed by Haverford College students.

DOROTHY BUTLER

I remember the first time I saw Dot. It was up in the Astro Hall and it was the first get-together of the freshmen. All the freshmen who had special talents were soon given a chance to display them; Dot was one of these finds. She was called up to the platform to Big Apple with Iris Rose Gibson. It was a pajama party, and I remember her pajamas of black silk with great big white dragons and her white fuzzy bedroom shoes. With her lovely hair, her cute looks, and her dancing ability, I and the rest of the untalented gave huge sighs of envy.

Everybody likes Dot; she is cute and nice. Popularity and looks won for her the coveted honor of May Day attendant her sophomore year. She always has been an ardent society worker and her junior year found her vice president of the Astrotekton Society.

This year, Dot is College Marshal, which is a major office, thus making her a member of the nominating committee.

She is majoring in primary education, and judging from her success in her supervised teaching, she really is good. Dot seems to be undecided about teaching next year. Perhaps the thoughts of early matrimony are looming in her mind.

She is a member of the K. K. Club, and she has a minor in art. However, she does not spend all of her time in the studio painting, for she has other interests, such as archery and, incidentally, social life.

The members of the Senior Class elected Dot the most stylish in the class superlatives. She is a good subject for photography. Just wait until you see her superlative picture in the yearbook; she looks as if she just stepped out of Vogue. (Ask the ace photographer of Daniel and Smith, to express his views upon the matter.)

Some of her favorite past-times are eating, sleeping, going to picture shows, and riding around with Ben. Maybe he will help Dot make her decision about what she will do next year.

Silver Shield Taps Two New Sr. Members

J. Freeman and M. Bartlett Tapped in Chapel March 9; Dr. Helen Price Speaks on "The Meaning of an Honor Society on the Campus"

During chapel on Saturday, March 9, Dr. Helen Price spoke on "The Meaning of an Honor Society on the Campus." Dr. Price told what an honor society should mean to the new members, to the old members, and to the school as a whole.

Following Dr. Price's talk, Jean Freeman and Minetta Bartlett were tapped as members of the Silver Shield Society. They are the last two members chosen from the Senior Class this year.

Both girls are active in campus activities. Jean was secretary of her class her sophomore year. During her junior year she was on the Acorn staff and is also on the staff this year. She was a member of the B. S. U. Council her junior year and is on the Council now. Jean is a member of the Colton English Club and the International Relations Club. She is also an official chaperon.

Minetta was on the Tyro staff her freshman year. During her sophomore year she was an Astro marshal and was on the Oak Leaves staff. She was secretary of the Student Government Association her junior year. Minetta is a member of various clubs and organizations including Little Theatre, Colton English Club, Sociology Club, Alpha Psi Omega, and Kappa Nu Sigma. This year she is vice president of the Student Government Association and chairman of the freshman orientation committee.

Members of the Silver Shield are chosen on the basis of Christian character, constructive leadership, and service to the school.

French Review Brings Masters

"Verve," First Issue of the French Art Quarterly Since the War, to Appear

While the museums of France and England are closed indefinitely, "Verve," the French Quarterly Art Review (English text) will continue to bring to America luxurious reproductions of original masterpieces, together with essays by the most famous writers of the world.

The present double issue, Nos. 5-6 is devoted to the History of Portraiture from the 11th to the 20th centuries and contains more than 200 reproductions, including eighty in full color, many of which are printed by the renowned Draeger Color Process.

"Verve," No. 7 which is the first issue since the war will be here in April. The covers, which will be printed in twenty-six colors, have been created and painted by Henri Matisse.

The subscription price is $10.00 a year and the price of the double issue, Nos. 5-6 is $5.00. Orders may be placed directly with the American representative of "Verve," Mme. Jeanette Rocart, 40 E. 49th St., New York City.

Letter

By JUANITA McLEAN
Hey Screws
You aren't the only one
Here's just a little sample
To prove the fact to you.
My letters all are written
But my lessons all aren't read.
I'm curled up so uncomfortable
On one corner of my bed.
True Confessions is the text book
For those across the room,
While some one takes up basket-weaving
With the bristle from my broom.
A game of bridge is now progressing
For some nuts outside the door
Sitting there deeply pondering
On the dirty, dusty floor.
A beauty parlor I've installed
With a sign "Please bring your own
Or else consider my bobble pins
Only a temporary loan."
—Parlez Voo.

SPORT SCOOPS

By CATHERINE CHIFFELLE

Basketball holds the center of the spotlight again this week. The sophomore-freshman and senior-junior games have already been played. Eleanor Gib with four baskets, and Margaret Bunn with two, helped give the sophomore team a lead of 12 points over the freshman five. Helen Scarborough chalked up two baskets for the team. Up to the half it looked as though the freshmen were going to hold their opponents down, but the sophs pulled away rapidly after the half. The sophs were led by Avra Sacrinti and the frosh by Carolyn Duke. The juniors scored 34 points over the seniors during their encounter. Ida Howell was the highest scorer making ten baskets. Ruth Green was next with five baskets. The junior captain is Ruth Hicks and the senior captain, Frances Lanier.

In regard to the postponed faculty-student basketball game—this game will be held on April 3—this Wednesday at 9:30 p.m. It will be played in the auditorium. There will be no admission fee—so come one, come all—for fun!

Tennis, as well as basketball, starts around April 1. The A. A. has purchased two new tennis nets. All of the four courts are in fine condition now and are begging to be used. Tennis tournaments will be starting soon. See Sarah Hayworth for information about it.

As I said before, baseball also starts around this time. Watch the bulletin boards for notices about practices.

Soccer has started and the practice schedule has been posted. Here it is in case you've forgot: Monday—Juniors and freshmen; Wednesday—sophomores and seniors, and Friday—general practice. These are all at 4:45 on the Athletic Field. Make a mental note of these times and come out for a great deal of fun.

Now for something we're all interested in—a big badminton tournament is in full swing. It certainly is exciting, for 15 couples have signed up for it and it promises to be very interesting.

The golf course under Mr. Newham of the Country Club, is turning out some fine golfers. Let me tell you about another tournament. (Did you ever hear of so many?—There's one everywhere you turn.) This time it's a ping-pong tournament. Now all of you that have been playing a little here and there, go see the Pruitt twins—208 A—and they'll see that you are entered.

I think that will be all of the tournaments—for a while anyway. However, I should like to tell you about a few more events of this year. All of the minor sports equipment will be set up real soon now—horse shoes, archery, and outdoor badminton. The bicycles have been repaired and are in fine condition.

The A. A. asks that you please sign for any equipment that you should borrow from the A. A. room.

I'd like to close this week's account by telling you about the spring hike which the A. A. is planning. Anyone who is interested, please see Margaret Martin for information. This ought to be a lot of fun!

Let's see—there are two active tournaments, practice in tennis, baseball, and soccer, and many different sports to be active in this spring. Choose your pick.

Wednesday night, March 20, at 10:00, moving pictures of various events that have happened at the school in the past were shown by Aileen Snow. The pictures were shown in the Astro Hall and consisted of scenes of Soph Day Off, May Day, and commencement of 1939 and Stunt Day of 1939.

On Tuesday, March 9, the Helen Hull Law Classical Club had its regular monthly meeting at 6:45 p.m. The Latin class II had charge of the meeting. Becky Hamilton told the life story of Plautus, an ancient writer of plays. After the story of his life, the Latin class presented one of Plautus' plays, "A Liar Confounded." Two Latin students, Alice Justice and Cornelia Herring, were the only characters in the play.

The second group of Home Economics majors scheduled for this semester will take up their residence in the Mere-ello apartment during the month of April. Those entering are Clio Holloway from Durham, N. C., Alice Falls from Fallston, N. C., Huldah Hall from Wooddale, N. C., and Gertrude Foster from Louisburg, N. C. During the four weeks of their residence in the apartment they will assume all duties of housekeeping and experience entertaining guests at informal dinners.

The Colton English Club met in the rotunda at 6:45 o'clock on Thursday, March 14. There was a very brief business meeting over which Nora Binder presided. The speaker for the meeting was Dr. Lee C. Shepherd, pastor of Pullen Memorial Church. Dr. Shepherd talked about "Religion and Laughter." Following the talk the meeting was adjourned.
