

Faculty Member Presents Recital

Mr. LaMond Gives Program

Charles Dewolf La Mond, pianist and member of the Meredith College Music Department, gave a piano recital on Friday evening, November 21, at eight o'clock in the Meredith College Auditorium.

La Mond is a pupil of Ellsworth Grummon and Egon Petri. His program for the evening was:

- Bach, English Suite No. 6 in D Minor.
 - Schumann, Carnival, Opus 9.
 - Chopin, Etude in C Major, Opus 10, No. 7.
 - Chopin, Etude in E Flat Major, Opus 10, No. 11.
 - Chopin Etude in B Minor, Opus 25, No. 10.
- For the encores, La Mond played the Chopin "Berceuse" and the Brahms "Waltz in A Flat."

MacDowell Club Discusses Opera

The November meeting of the MacDowell Music Club was held on Tuesday evening, November 18, at 6:45 o'clock in the Rotunda.

After a brief business session presided over by Virginia Greene, president, the meeting was turned over to Nancy Carroll, program chairman. The remainder of the evening was spent in studying the opera "Tristan and Isolde" by Wagner. A brief story of the opera was given by Kathleen Braxton and recordings of some of the most outstanding selections from the opera were played.

Dean Davis Speaks To Classical Club

At the regular meeting of the Classical Club which was held Friday night, November 21, Dean Davis spoke on the lasting importance of Latin and classical study as revealed through the special work being done at the present at St. John's College. At the beginning of his speech Dean Davis gave each of the members present two sheets of paper; one entitled "A Bibliography of Articles on St. John's Program", and another entitled "A List of Great Books."

BSU Gives Special Service of Thanks

At twelve noon on Thanksgiving Day the Baptist Student Union offered a special program in the chapel. The service was opened by the playing of The Prelude by Anna Lou Toms. Annie Merle White read the scripture and offered a Thanksgiving prayer. "The First Thanksgiving", by Mildred Thornton, was followed by "The Prayer Perfect" sung by Laura Ann Cavender. Marjorie Ailstock with an appropriate musical background gave a special reading. The program was concluded by taking an offering for the orphanage at Thomasville.

Current "Acorn" Comes Out on Thursday

The second Acorn of the current school year came out on Thursday afternoon, November 27. The cover of this issue is most attractive, featuring a smiling picture of Julia Margarette Bryan of Garner at the door of the hut. This issue features a large amount of clever poetry that is indicative of what Meredith girls can do. The prose is excellent and varied, and exceedingly readable.

For those angels who are having difficulties with the m. i. t. j. the Acorn provides a little note that should show them the error of their ways. And incidentally it is all ready for convenient clipping.

This issue announces a contest open to all Meredith students, except members of the Acorn staff (and members of their immediate families). A book of theatre tickets will be given to the girl who writes, etc., the best effort on "Three Blocks Down, Turn to Your Right." All entries must be in by December 6.

This Acorn is in accord with the brilliant beginning of the first issue, and shows that there is more of the same in store for us.

Associated Collegiate Press Convention

The Associated Collegiate Press met in St. Louis during the Thanksgiving holidays. The program was a varied and interesting one. Some of the highlights were a talk by Daniel R. Fitzpatrick, cartoonist of national fame at the banquet. A speech by Branch Rickey, vice president of the St. Louis Cardinals; Muro Roberts' address at the opening convention; Irving Dilliard's speech at the noon luncheon under the sponsorship of Sigma Delta Chi, national journalism fraternity. The roundtable program, a successful feature of former programs, discussed some of the following subjects, "Sources of News for the College Paper"; "The Growing Importance of News and Feature Pictures"; "Building Staff Initiative"; "What makes an Editorial Click"; "Your Market," etc.

The problems of weekly or less frequent appearing newspapers were discussed thoroughly. A panel discussed the editorial problems of yearbooks, and a magazine clinic was conducted.

Delegates were the guests of Washington University at the Washington-Missouri School of Mines football game.

The Hotel Statler was the official convention headquarters.

an original song, written by a member of the class. Dr. Harry E. Cooper and committee judge the songs and immediately after stunt five dollars is presented to the girl who wrote the best song. Announcement is made after the song contest as to which class had the highest percentage present at palio—that class gets reserved seats for stunt night.

At 6:00 the A. A. Board is entertaining the past presidents of the association at a dinner arranged under the leadership of Sarah Jackson, social director of the board.

Gretchen Fanny, college marshal, and Virginia Lancaster, president of the Monogram Club, are to be in charge of directing traffic at palio and ushering at stunt.

Stunts begin at 8:00. Sale of tickets are in charge of Elizabeth McNeil; publicity, Beverly Ann Money. The stunt committee to approve stunts and dress rehearsal are Dr. Julia Harris, Miss Ellen Brewer, Miss Annie M. Baker, and Dr. Clayton Charles.
