

Avis Branch, above, is shown waving the $5.00 bill she received for writing the junior class song, which was judged best from among the other class songs.

The classes gather on the steps of Johnson Hall during the Pallo activities to present their original class songs and to watch the races and other features.

Juniors parade as bakers, capturing Pallo honors.

Above, Ione Kemp Knight, president of the Athletic Association, who, with her board, directed the students' activities in the annual homecoming events. She presided over Stunt Night.

Meredith Alumnae pull for future Meredith.

Pictured above is a scene from the freshman stunt which won honorable mention last Saturday in competition with the other class stunts.

Pictured here is Carolyn Duke, president of the Student Government Association who acted as "Podesta" at Pallo.

Compliments of Faucette and Turner

"The Coke's in"

5¢

"That's the happy greeting heard today when a new supply of Coke arrives at a cooler. Folks wait for it... wait because the only thing like Coca-Cola is Coca-Cola itself. Customers smile and start moving up to pause and be refreshed.

"There's a cheerful spirit about this way of accepting wartime restrictions. Morale is high."

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY CAPITAL COCA-COLA BOTTLING COMPANY

Louise Sawyer, who worked with the art department to make the Pallo animals, is pictured riding one of their creations.