returned to the United States nearly every year. He has also been heard in Mexico and Cuba; throughout Central America; in Egypt and Palestine; in China and Japan; in the East and West Indies; and in Australia. The program which he presented contained compositions by Vivaldi, Scarlatti, Rachmaninoff, De Falla, Faure and Liszt, as well as Beethoven's Sonata, Opus 27, No. 2, better known as the Moonlight Sonata, and various pieces of Chopin.

A PRAYER

It is my joy in life to find
At every turning of the road,
The strong arm of a comrade kind
To help me onward with my load.

And since I have no gold to give,
And love alone must make amends,
My only prayer is, while I live—
God make me worthy of my friends!

Sociology Club Has Social Meeting in Hut

The Sociology Club had its fall social meeting in the Hut on Tuesday evening, November 17, with State College students as guests. Mr. Fred Sloan, from the Experiment Station of N. C. State College, was in charge of the program. The Hut was appropriately decorated with autumn leaves, and apple cider and cookies were served. Committee chairmen were as follows: Program, Cornell Brunt; Decorations, Nat Woodward; Refreshments, Mary Frances Kerr. An enjoyable evening was reported by all those present.

"All Out For Defense" Is Theme of Home Ec Club

At the first Home Economics Club meeting of the year, the new organization for the club was presented to all members. The theme of the program is that of "All Out for Defense." In connection with this theme, several committees have been formed which are as follows: a War Bond and Stamps Committee, Katie Carpenter, chairman, a Knitting Committee, Mildred Colvard, chairman; a Foods and Nutrition Committee, Virginia Lee, chairman; a Conservation Committee, Willa Lee Joyner, chairman; a Community Service Committee, Virginia Lee, chairman; and a Campus Service Committee, Dale Marks, chairman.

The War Bonds and Stamps Committee is to encourage the sale of stamps and bonds and also to raise money to be invested. The Publicity Committee is to inform the public as to the club as a whole and its various committees. A knitting class has been organized and all students are invited to attend. The Knitting Committee also plans to offer Red Cross knitting on the campus. The Foods and Nutrition Committee is to encourage correct nutrition. This committee will give exhibits and display posters to carry their points. The Conservation Committee is to encourage the conservation of all materials vital to the war effort and to stress proper care and mending of personal clothing. The Community Service group will carry out projects to help the underprivileged and needy. This committee at present is undertaking a project of making and dressing cloth dolls to give to underprivileged children for Christmas. The Campus Service Committee is to lead movements for the bettering of conditions around the campus.

Student League Meets and Discusses Recent Bills

The Student League of Women Voters met Wednesday afternoon, November 11, in the Rotunda. After a brief business meeting, Doris Hamrick, program chairman, introduced the speakers. Three girls who had introduced bills at the Student Legislature spoke. Rose Marie Haynes presented a bill concerning the raising of the compulsory school age from fourteen to sixteen; Marjorie Ailstock introduced a measure to provide a home for delinquent Negro girls, and Etta Taylor spoke on securing more efficient draft boards. Refreshments of popcorn and apples were served.

Page Rankin Announces I.R.C. Banquet Plans

Page Rankin, president of the International Relations Club, announces plans for a joint banquet with the International Relations Club of Wake Forest College. This banquet will be held in Raleigh and the tentative date is December 11.

The club is proud to announce that they have a membership of fifty-six showing an increase of about twenty from last year. The number is rather equally distributed among the four classes also.

A program schedule for the rest of the year is being worked on and shows promise of very interesting future programs.

COUNSELORS PLAN PARTY

During the year the Freshmen Counsellors have been working on a program of social adjustment. Now they are making plans for a Christmas Party in the Hut December 11.

"Facts about wartime"

"I never saw a fighting man who didn't cherish the very thought of a pause with Coca-Cola. That goes for workers in factories, too. Ice-cold Coke is something more than the drink that answers thirst. It adds the feel of refreshment.

"In war, Uncle Sam restricts the supply. But there's still enough for many refreshing pauses."
