

B.S.U. COUNCILS HAVE JOINT MEETING-SOCIAL

The combined B.S.U. councils of State and Meredith met Monday night, November 30 in the hut on the Meredith campus. A supper was followed by separate meetings of the two councils.

After the business meetings, the group had a social hour, the main event being a debate upon the topic, resolved, that a woman should get up at 5:00 a.m., and cook breakfast for her husband. The Meredith debaters, Evelyn Hampon and Cornell Brunt, who upheld the negative, were victorious. At the conclusion of the entertainment, punch was served.

Special guests were the Reverend and Mrs. Lee C. Sheppard, Mrs. Carl Townsend, Dick Howerton, State Secretary of the B.S.U., and Ben Parks, State President of the B.S.U.

Education Club Meets At State College

The Education Club held its regular meeting at Thompkins Hall at State College with the State Education Club Friday night, November 27.

Wallace Dickens, President of the State Club, welcomed the Meredith visitors and turned the program over to Gloria Watson, Meredith president. The program of the night was a debate—Resolved: All senior colleges should be co-educational. Upholding the affirmative side were Suzanne Bagnol and Rose Marie Haynes of Meredith and speaking for the negative were Jesse Sumner and Henry Dameron of State. Judges were Miss Lila Belle and Mr. Harry K. Dorsett of the Meredith Education Department and Professor Cook of the State Education Department. Their decision was that there was a tie. After the debate, songs were sung, games were played, and refreshments were served by the State club. Also a contest was held by Mr. Dorsett to see which girls knew the most boys present and which boy knew the most girls present. The winners, Kathleen Clarke and Gerald James, received theater tickets.

A Deke took his aunt out riding, Though icy was the breeze. He put her in the rumble seat, To see his anti-freeze.

Granddaughters Meet; Have Coffee

Mrs. L. R. Harrill, president of the General Meredith Alumnae Association, was the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Granddaughters Club on November 23. Mrs. Harrill, who was introduced by Evalyn Allen, the program chairman, spoke on "Inward Joy."

One guest, Mrs. Ralph Howland (Margaret Shields Everett), the daughter of a trustee and graduate of the first class, was introduced by Miss Mae Grimmer, club sponsor.

Special tables were provided in the dining hall for the members' dinner. Immediately following dinner, Miss Grimmer honored Mrs. Harrill and Mrs. Howland at an after-dinner coffee hour in the Faculty Parlor. Coffee was poured by Miss Anna May Baker, and she was assisted by students.

Two Juniors Chosen By Silver Shield

Charlotte Green of Ogbomoso, Nigeria, West Africa, and Virginia Ayers of Toccoa, Georgia, were this week taken in to the Silver Shield Honorary Society. These were the two juniors chosen to be admitted to the society this fall. Five more junior girls will be taken into the organization next spring. Eligibility for this honor depends on leadership, service to the school, and Christian character. These two juniors were selected by the members of the society from a group approved by the faculty.

The officers of the organization this year are Rachel Lovelace, president; Evelyn Hampton, vice president; and Elizabeth Brownlee, secretary. The three other members of the society are Mattie Irene Baugh, Ione Kemp Knight, and Carolyn Duke.
