COMMENCEMENT!
 May 28 - May 31
COME! COME! COME!

The program for Alumnae Day, Saturday, May 29, bids fair to compare most favorably with that of former years. The annual meeting will be presided over by Laura Weatherspoon Harrill, of Raleigh, and the business will include reports by officers and committee chairmen. This session, beginning promptly at 10:45 o'clock, will be greatly expedited by printed reports; but there will be ample time for necessary discussion.

During the morning special tribute will be paid Miss May Crawford, greatly beloved and honored member of our college faculty family for twenty years. The program will include, also, a short interlude by the Granddaughters' Club, several solos by Miss Beatrice Donley, head of the voice department of the college, and the annual alumnae address on "Women in the History and Life of China" by Valleria Green Rankin of Shanghai, China, and Richmond, Virginia.

Plans for the annual luncheon are well underway, according to information from Chairman Jane Yelverton Wells of Raleigh. And we wager that Musette Kitchin Dunn, of Enfield, as toastmaster, will carry the affair through in her own original and inimitable manner.

Crystal Davis Potter and her committee will be in the rotunda—alumnae headquarters — to welcome all alumnae. Register there; meet friends there; make yourself at home. Come!

REUNION CLASSES

1903 - 1904 - 1905 - 1906 - 1907 - 1918
 1923 - 1924 - 1925 - 1926 - 1933 - 1941

MESSAGES FROM PERMANENT CLASS OFFICERS

Class of 1903

Plan to attend commencement at Meredith, girls of '03. Don't miss our reunion. Plan to be one hundred per cent and let us make it the best yet.

Willie Lambertson Bolton,
 Rich Square.

Class of 1907

Alma Mater proclaims another Homecoming Day for our class, R.S.V.P. For her sake and for yours, don't send regrets unless you must. We have a record to maintain and improve.

Ethel Carroll Squires,
 Wake Forest.

Class of 1918

All the veterans of the war class of 1918 are expected at the Old Soldiers' Convention, May 29-31. Let us celebrate our twenty-fifth reunion by having all twenty-five of us present.

Ellen Dozier Brewer,
 Raleigh.

Class of 1924

I grow curiouser and curiouser with every passing year. Just how different are we in 1943 from the 1924 edition? Internally, I mean. Avoiding pique and grey hairs do not pique my curiosity. How would your opinion in 1924 differ from that of 1943 on the following subjects: Broadway, Genesis, League of Nations, Poultry, Shakespear, Discipline. Let's get together and compare notes!

Yours for a real reunion even in war time.

Susie Herring Jeffries,
 Bluefield, West Virginia.

Loyalty is the slogan of the day. We are loyal to our church, to our family, to our government; and now let's be loyal to our Alma Mater and attend the reunion of our class at commencement. Come and bring your dues, but if you can't come, be sure to send them anyway. Hope to see you soon.

Mabel Oldham Young,
 Kirtrell.

Class of 1926

Let every member of '26 be on the campus again for reunion, Alumnae Day, Saturday, May 29. It will be interesting to see some we have not seen for seventeen years.

Margaret Lineberry Owen,
 Canton.

Stop, Look, Listen, and Remember, this is our reunion year. Be sure and come. Friendships need renewing May 29.

Elihu Lane Pettey,
 Sullford.

Class of 1928

In June '28, our 10th reunion seemed as far away as the millennium—here it is! In our century of scientific progress, we have had many difficulties, let's see how many of us can be back at Meredith this commencement to compare notes on the past ten years — just to prove that "these bones do rise again." I still have all my teeth. Do you?

Pat Abernethy,
 Fort Bragg.

Class of 1941

We want to have an "all-out" for our Little Sisters' graduation, May 29. This will be our second reunion. Let's make it a good one by all being present. There's a lot of "news" to hear and tell.

Sara Hayworth,
 Asheboro.

We regret the loss of Catharine Mason Moseley Love (Mrs. James Stewart), of the classes of '35 and '36, of Warrenton, N. C., and Jackson, Miss. Catharine passed away following an illness of two weeks in a Jackson, Miss., hospital. She was a student leader, being president of Student Government in 1935, the year she received her art diploma, and member of Silver Shield. She was elected permanent president of this class. Also she was a member of the Meredith faculty, serving in the art department for three years, 1937-40. We extend deepest sympathy to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Moseley (Sarah Gardner, ex-), of Warrenton, her husband, and friends.

"BRING ON THAT ICE-COLD COCA-COLA"

"NOTHING ELSE LIKE IT"

"Letters come from war plant managers telling how a pause for Coca-Cola is welcomed by workers. If you had to stand up to a hot furnace, you'd see the word refreshment in a new light. And as for refreshment, that's what ice-cold Coca-Cola is. No wonder everybody agrees that the only thing like Coca-Cola is Coca-Cola, itself."
