"Heritage of Freedom"

Again we congratulate Eunice Edmundson for putting to use her poetic ability. Recently she wrote the words for a patriotic song, "Heritage of Freedom." We are happy to have a complimentary copy of this song, which has been used extensively in Florida. Eunice whose pen name is her maiden name, is Mrs. Greene Sharp Johnston of Tallahassee, Florida.

Local Alumnae Chapter to Sponsor Luncheon

The Winston-Salem Alumnae Chapter is making arrangements for the annual luncheon during meeting of Baptist State Convention. The place is the First Presbyterian Church (three blocks from the First Baptist Church). The time is 1 o'clock, Wednesday, November 17. The cost is 75 cents per plate. Friends and alumnae are invited. Please notify Dalve Belle Eaton, 616 Stratford Road, Winston-Salem 5, by Tuesday, November 16.

Freshmen and Seniors (Continued from page one)

The freshman class presented "Ritz Blitz," a lively staging of life and events on a street in Harlem.

After the stunts, Betty Cuthrell led the audience in the singing of school songs.

Judges for stunts were Mr. John Paul Nickell, Mrs. Janie Britt Silver, Mrs. O. K. Joyner, Mrs. Laura Weatherspoon Harrill, and Mr. J. C. Drake.

Work with diligence and to the best of your ability.

Wait! What a short word to be so long.

GIRLS ASSIST OPA

A call was sent out for volunteers to help at the Office of Price Administration. The following girls donated their services in helping with the clerical work concerned with the issuing of gasoline coupon books: Dorcas Stanley, Alice Payne, Joyce Aiken, Rachel Baker, Peggy Brewer, Margaret Duckworth, Eva Fitzgerald, Don Gilkeson, Evelyn Gwvaltney, Mildred Jennette, Caroline Jones, Edna Lou Lamb, Gertrude Mills, and Marjorie Pittman.

All the girls gave one afternoon to the work with the exception of two girls, Dorcas Stanley, and Alice Payne, who gave two afternoons.

For all of the people of the world to have equal rights—that's what the war is for, I think.
