more students of various colleges over the United States by averaging them.

There were three different tests: English, contemporary affairs, and general culture tests. The scores are planned to be used as means of advising students about their courses of study and even their majors.

GIVE BOOKS FOR WAR PRISONERS

Have you been wondering what to do with your old books?—or have you been saving them for the senior bonfire? Well, here is an opportunity to do something worthwhile with them. The drive began Thursday, March 30, and is continuing for a week. The B.S.U. is sponsoring the drive for books to be sent to our boys who are prisoners of war. We want you not only to give books for which you have no more use but also books of your own which might require a bit of sacrifice on your part. Look around to see if you have any of the following types of books:

6. Books on professional subjects: law, medicine, theology, etc. The following type of books cannot be sent:

1. College or preparatory school textbooks in current use.
2. Standard works in English literature: Shakespeare, Milton, Dickens, Thackeray, Meredith, Hardy, Galsworthy, Maughan.
3. Standard detective stories: Doyle, Christie, Sayers, etc.
4. Language books — grammars and readers and classics in English, French, German, Spanish, Italian, Russian, etc.
5. Books from the Modern Library, Everyman Library, Hazen Series in Religion, Home University Library.

1. Magazines and newspapers.
 2. Any book having military significance: Advanced technical books: i.e., advanced physics, chemistry, aeronautics, geography, radio, published since 1938.
 3. Books criticizing existing military, political, economic and social institutions.
 4. Histories that discuss European or world history since 1914.
- These books must have no marks—pen or pencil, so you would be a great help by beginning soon to clean out your books. There will be two girls on each hall to collect these books and to see that they are cleaned. Here is your chance to do a little toward helping your friends who are prisoners. Give them a chance to continue their education and give them something to do during their long hours. Begin now!—write home for what you might have there and gather together the ones you have at school.

AMERICA WORSHIPS

WITHOUT fear or favor, members of any sound religious faith worship openly in America.

Because religion is important to so many of us, we and our forefathers fought and worked to keep our government free. Government for the people, which permitted us to worship in our faith, gave us courage to build great churches, thriving businesses, dynamic industries, diversified agriculture . . . a land of endless opportunities.

So long as no one man nor one group of men attempt to tell us how we shall worship, America can remain free and her people may continue to provide the strength and initiative to keep her great.
